A SUPPLEMENT

To an act to incorporate the Pittsburg Gas Company, approved the sixteenth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Pittsburg gas company shall have power to increase the capital stock of said company to any sum not exceeding six hundred thousand dollars. Authorized to increase capital stock.

SECTION 2. That the management and control of said company shall be vested in nine trustees, who shall be citizens of Pittsburg, and stockholders in said company, and who shall be elected in the following manner: The six trustees now in office, who were chosen by the stockholders, viz: John Holmes, Joshua Hanna, George Black, Nathaniel Holmes, Jr., Thomas Bakewell and Robert Beer, shall remain until the expiration of the terms for which they were elected, and until the first Monday of October thereafter; and within sixty days after the accept- Management and control, relative to.

At all such elections each share of stock shall entitle the holder to one vote; but no vote shall be received for any share of stock upon which any installment is due, and remains unpaid. All elections shall be held under the directions of a committee of three stockholders, appointed by the trustees, and two weeks' notice of all elections and general meetings of stockholders shall be given in at least two daily newspapers in the city of Pittsburg. The trustees shall supply any vacancy that may occur in the board, by appointment, until the next annual election: Provided , That a failure to elect trustees at the time appointed shall not forfeit the charter, but such election may be held on a subsequent day, and the trustees shall continue in office until their successors are elected.

That the said trustees shall meet within three days after their election, and shall choose by ballot, from their own number, a president and secretary, who shall perform the duties usually performed by such officers, and shall serve for one year, or until the next annual election. Five trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but it shall require the consent of six to declare a dividend, change the price of gas, or to authorize an increase of the capital stock. The said trustees shall have power to purchase materials, make contracts, and employ such engineers, workmen and agents as may be necessary to carry on the business of the company; but no contract shall be made or expenses incurred to exceed the amount of the stock subscribed; they may call meetings of the stockholders whenever desirable, at which meetings the president and secretary of the board shall act in similar capacities; they shall also have power to adopt by-laws for the government of said company. The said trustees, or their agents, shall have power, and they are hereby authorized, to open any of the streets, roads or alleys of the city of Pittsburg, the borough of Lawrenceville, or the city districts, for the purpose of laying pipes therein, and introducing a supply of gas from such pipes: Provided , Such openings in the streets, roads and alleys shall be closed, and the pavements replaced thereon, without unnecessary delay, in a satisfactory manner. They shall also have the power to regulate the price of gas furnished to private consumers, but such price shall not exceed one dollar and sixty cents for each one thousand cubic feet of gas; and they shall make and prescribe proper rules and regulations for the supply thereof. All ordinances and regulations of the city of Pittsburg, necessary for the protection of the works, mains, lamps and other fixtures of the company from accident or mischief, shall be continued in force, as well as all ordinances forbidding interference with the water pipes and nuisances from the gas works. The trustees shall keep accurate accounts of their receipts and expenditures; and one month before each annual election shall publish, in pamphlet form, a full report of their proceedings for the previous year, and furnish a copy thereof to each member of the city councils.

Receipts and expenditures.

SECTION 4. The trustees shall declare semi-annual dividends on the second Mondays of January and July in each year, of so much as they may deem expedient of the net profits arising from the works, after deducting all expenses and charges; which dividends shall be paid to the stockholders, or their legal representatives, at the office of the company, within ten days after the same is declared, of which due notice shall be given; but no dividend shall be paid to any stockholder who is indebted to the company, nor upon any stock on which any instalment is due and unpaid: Provided, That no dividend shall be declared which shall impair the capital stock of the company: And provided, That an extra dividend of such portion of the surplus fund in the treasury as may be deemed expedient, within twenty days after this act, shall take effect and become a law.

When paid.

Proviso.

SECTION 5. The trustees shall appoint some competent citizen as treasurer of the company, who shall give bond for the faithful discharge of his duties, with two or more sufficient sureties, in such sum, not less than twenty thousand dollars, as the trustees may direct. The treasurer shall hold his office until his successor is appointed, shall discharge such duties as the trustees shall direct and appoint, and shall receive a reasonable compensation for his services.

Term of office.

SECTION 6. Whenever the extension of the capital stock and the issue of new shares shall be authorized by the stockholders, the trustees shall open books at such place in the city of Pittsburg, and sell the said stock at public sale, in such manner as they may consider most advantageous to the company, after giving public notice thereof. The said stock shall not be sold for less than its par value; five dollars per share shall be paid at the time of subscribing, and the balance in such instalments as the trustees may require; and if any stockholder shall refuse or omit to pay the instalments on the stock held by him for two months, after public notice by advertisement in two daily newspapers of the city of Pittsburg, the previous payments made by such stockholder, and all his interest in said stock, may be forfeited to the company; and the said trustees are hereby authorized to sue for and recover the balance due on such stock from the holder or original subscriber, as debts of similar amount are recoverable, nor shall any transfer of stock be allowed while the holder thereof is indebted to the company; and the trustees are further authorized to issue certificates of stock, or scrip convertible into stock, and distribute the same pro rata among the stockholders, for the amount of any surplus funds that may have accrued before the first Monday in July next, and for the amount which at that time, or at any time thereafter, may have been expended in extension of main pipes, and which has been or may be charged to the extension fund.

Acceptance of the provisions of this act, relative to.

SECTION 7. That whenever the provisions of this act shall have been accepted by the stockholders of the said company, and the councils of said city corporation, as hereinafter provided, the mayor, aldermen and citizens of Pittsburg shall forthwith cease to be stockholders in said company; and all the stock held by the city corporation, or standing in its name upon the books of the said company, shall be surrendered to the company; and the said city corporation shall have no further right to or interest in said stock, but the same shall become a part of the funds of the company, and be distributed among the stockholders pro rata.

When stock held by the city to be surrendered to the company.

Public lamps, gas for streets, &c.

SECTION 8. That the said company shall, at the cost of the city corporation, construct, erect and keep in order all such public lamps and burners in the streets as the city councils may direct, and shall also furnish all the gas required for consumption in the public street lamps, market houses, council chambers and public offices of the city, at the following rates, that is to say: Any quantity not exceeding twelve and one-half million cubic feet of gas annually, free of charge; and any excess over that quantity that may be required annually, at a rate not exceeding seventy-five cents for each one thousand cubic feet of gas in such excess. The price of such excess so furnished, together with the costs of constructing, erecting and keeping in order the public lamps and burners in the streets, shall be paid to the company quarterly by the city corporation.

SECTION 9. That if any person or persons shall open communication into the street gas mains or other gas pipes of the said company, without authority from the superintendent or authorized agent of said company, for repairs or any other cause or purpose, he, she or they shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars for each and every such offence, to be recovered as debts of like amount are recoverable by law, one-half to be paid to the informer, and the other half to the said company.

Injuries to works

SECTION 10. That if any person shall wilfully or maliciously do, or cause to be done, any act or acts whatever whereby any building, construction or works of said company, or any gas pipe, lamp post, burner or reflector, or any matter or thing appertaining to the same, shall be stopped or obstructed, injured or destroyed, the person so offending shall be considered guilty of a misdemeanor; and being thereof indicted and convicted in the court of quarter sessions, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided, Such criminal prosecution shall not in any manner impair the right of action for damages by a civil suit hereby authorized to be brought for any such injury as aforesaid, by and in the name of said company, in any court in this state having jurisdiction of the same.

Proviso.

SECTION 11. That the charter of said company be and the same is hereby declared perpetual, subject to the conditions contained in the proviso to the thirteenth section of the act to which this act is a supplement; but the city councils shall not have the right to purchase the stock of said company, in the manner provided in said section, before the first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

Charter made perpetual.

When city councils may purchase the stock of the company.

SECTION 12. That within thirty days after the passage of this act, it shall be submitted to the councils of the city of Pittsburg for their approval and acceptance; and within thirty days after such approval by the city councils, the same shall be submitted to the private stockholders of the company for their acceptance and approval, at a special meeting to be called for that purpose by the treasurer, of which meeting he shall give due public notice in at least four daily newspapers published in said city; and none of the provisions of this act shall take effect or become a law until the same shall have been approved and accepted by the city councils, and by the votes of a majority of the stockholders of said company represented at said meeting, in the manner aforesaid.

Approval by city councils to be had.

Approval of private stockholders to be had.

Notice of submission to councils and private stockholders to be published.

SECTION 13. That so much of the act to which this is a supplement, as is inconsistent with or supplied by the provisions of this act, is hereby repealed.

Relating to Roads and Bridges in the county of York.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That viewers.

the number of road and bridge viewers appointed by the court of quarter sessions of the county of York, shall be three. Every view, review and re-review shall be made by the whole number of persons so appointed, a majority of whom shall concur in their report, in order to its confirmation by the court.

Public notice of
to be given.

SECTION 2. That in all cases where the court of quarter sessions shall appoint viewers to locate a public road or a bridge, the viewers so appointed shall not proceed to view and locate the same until the persons interested in the road or bridge shall have given public notice, on the route of the proposed road, by written or printed advertisements, of the time and place when said viewers shall meet for the purpose of locating said road or bridge, at least ten days before such time of meeting; and the viewers so appointed shall receive one dollar for each day necessarily engaged in making said view, and mileage for traveling from their place of residence to the place of view, and returning therefrom, each viewer for each mile circular, six cents: Provided, That said mileage does not exceed one dollar for each viewer: And provided further, That in all cases in which one of the viewers shall perform the duties of surveyor, he shall receive two dollars per day for said services.

Proviso.

Damages, relative to.

SECTION 3. That if the viewers aforesaid, after being duly qualified, shall decide in favor of locating a public road or bridge, as the case may be, it is hereby made their duty to obtain, from the persons through whose lands the road may pass, releases for any damage that may arise to them in opening the same; and in every case where the owner or owners of such land refuse to release their claim to damages, it shall be the duty of the said viewers to assess the same, taking into view the advantages as well as disadvantages arising from said location, and make report of such assessment, which they shall transmit to the next court of quarter sessions, with a draft or plot of the location, to be filed by the clerk with the papers in the case; and it shall be the duty of the viewers to state, in their report, whether in their opinion the road is of such public utility that the amount of damages ought to be paid by the county.

Drafts, where filed.

Court of quarter sessions, duty of relative to damages.

SECTION 4. That it is hereby made the duty of said court to examine the amount of damages assessed as aforesaid; and if it shall appear to said court that the amount of damage assessed on the location of said road or bridge is so small that the public interest will be advanced by paying the same and opening the road, the court shall decide accordingly; but if the court shall be of opinion that the necessity for the road will not justify the county in paying the damage assessed, the court shall refuse to confirm the report of said viewers: Provided, That if any person or persons shall pay the damage, or reduce the same to what the court may deem reasonable and just in the case, then the road or bridge may be confirmed as heretofore: Provided further, That no petitioner for any road shall receive any damage occasioned by the construction thereof.

Proviso.

Proviso.

Further duties of

SECTION 5. That it shall be the duty of the court, upon sufficient cause being shown by any person or persons affected by such report, by petition or petitions presented therefor, not later than the third day of the next stated term to which the report is returnable, to appoint reviewers or re-reviewers; but when there is more than one petition presented for a review or re-review, the court shall appoint the same reviewers or re-reviewers on all the petitions, and direct one order only to be issued for the review or re-review of the road or assessment of damages, who shall have the same power as is given to viewers in the third section of this act, as to location, releases and assessment of damages; and the same notice shall be given of the time and place of meeting; and the court shall have the same power in regard to their report as in the case of views; and all proceedings in reviews and re-reviews shall be under this act, and no other; and the court charges, advertising, and pay of reviewers and re-reviewers and surveyors, shall be paid by the petitioners or others interested.

SECTION 6. That it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions to lay all reports on roads and bridges before the county commissioners, to be examined by them; and it shall be their duty to report, for the information of the court, what they know in the premises; and in regard to bridge reports, it shall be their duty, in addition, to cause an accurate estimate of the cost thereof, which they shall attach to said report, for the information of the court and grand jury.

County commissioners, duties of,

SECTION 7. That it shall be the duty of the supervisors of the several townships, and other persons having charge of the highways in incorporated boroughs, to keep in repair all bridges built, or that may hereafter be built, by the county commissioners, at the charge of the county; and they shall be subject to the like penalties for neglect as they are now liable to in the case of roads and bridges built at the expense of the township or borough.

sors.

SECTION 8. That when the viewers appointed shall decide in favor of locating or re-locating a private road, they shall view and assess the damages, if any, and make report thereof; and the proceedings thereupon, to review or re-review the damages, shall be as hereinbefore provided in case of public roads.

Damages, relative to.

SECTION 9. That it shall be the duty of the persons interested to give at least ten days' notice, to one of the county commissioners, of the time and place of holding all views, reviews and re-reviews, for the assessment of damages held under authority of this act.

Notice to be given to commissioners of views,
&c.

SECTION 10. That all exceptions filed to report of viewers, reviewers or re-reviewers, for any of the purposes mentioned in this act, shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of at least one of the exceptors; and that no report of viewers, reviewers or re-reviewers shall be set aside for any informality in the proceedings, if it shall appear by the report, or by proof made to the court, that notice of the time and place of meeting was given agreeably to the provisions of this act, that the viewers, reviewers or re-reviewers were duly sworn or affirmed before they proceeded to act, and afterwards viewed the site of the road or bridge; but any informality may be amended or omission supplied by the court, or the report may be re-committed to the viewers, reviewers or re-reviewers for amendment; and in no case shall any alias view, review or re-review be awarded.

Exceptions to report of viewers,
&c., relative to.

Oaths.

SECTION 11. That it shall be lawful for viewers, reviewers or re-reviewers to administer to each other the oaths or affirmations required by law.

Petition for re-view, &c., relative to.

SECTION 12. That no petition for a review or re-review shall be received by the court, unless said petition shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of one or more of the petitioners, and the grounds upon which the review or re-review is asked be specifically set out in said petition.

New petitions to view, relative to.

SECTION 13. That in all cases where the action of the court or grand jury shall be adverse to the grant of a new road or bridge, no new petition to view the same site, or one substantially the same, shall be granted by the court until after the expiration of two years from the final decree of the court on the former application; nor shall any report, recommending the erection of a new bridge, be presented to a subsequent grand jury after two grand juries have refused to approve the same.

Repeal

SECTION 14. That all acts inconsistent with the foregoing are hereby repealed, so far as they relate to the county of York:

Proviso.

Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to affect any proceedings commenced or pending in said court, relative to the laying out or vacating any road within said county, nor be held to apply to any road laid out by authority of any special act of assembly of this commonwealth.

AN ACT

Relative to Taxes, Rates and Levies payable to the city of Allegheny.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all taxes, rates and levies, (except street assessments,) payable to the city of Allegheny, shall be payable at the office of the city treasurer; and said treasurer shall make allowance to all payers of taxes, rates and levies aforesaid, who shall pay the same in the year for which they are assessed, as follows, viz:

Five per cent. if paid on or before the first day of July. Taxes, rates and levies, where paid.

Four per cent. if paid on or before the first day of August. When paid.

Two per cent. if paid on or before the first day of September.

If paid after the first day of September, and on or before the first day of October, no deduction shall be made.

If paid after the first day of October, and on or before the first day of November, an addition of five per cent. shall be added to and payable on the same.

And if not paid until after the first day of November, then an addition of ten per cent. shall be added to and payable on the same.

SECTION 2. From and after the passage of this act, all taxes, rates, levies and assessments which may be lawfully imposed or assessed by the city of Allegheny, or by authority thereof, on any real estate in said city, by provisions of this or any other act of assembly, shall be liens on said real estate, (together with all additions to and charges on said taxes, rates, levies and assessments;) and said liens shall have priority over, and be fully paid and satisfied, before any other lien whatever (except other taxes) on said real estate. Taxes to be liens on real estate.

SECTION 3. The treasurer shall render each and every day, or as often as required, to the chairman of the finance committee of the councils of said city, an account of each item of his receipts; and shall on the first day, or within the first week of September annually, give public notice, in such newspaper as councils have authorized to do the printing of said city, to all persons who shall have omitted to pay their taxes, rates, levies or assessments aforesaid, requiring said delinquents to pay the same on or before the first day of October next following after said day; and that if the same be not paid on or before said first day of October, then five per cent. will be added to and made payable thereon: Provided, The same be paid on or before the first day of November next following; and that if the same be not paid on or before the said first day of November next following, then ten per cent. shall be added thereto and made payable thereon. Treasurer to render an account of items of receipts.

To authorize the county of Dauphin to borrow money.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the commissioners of Dauphin county to borrow any sum of money, on the credit of the county, not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, at a rate of interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, and to give to the lenders thereof transferable bonds therefor, in sums not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, payable in thirty years from the first day of April next, with coupons attached thereto for the payment of the interest, which shall fall due thereon, payable to the bearer thereof half yearly on the first days of April and October, in each and every year; and also to issue bonds, as aforesaid, to the present creditors of the county, payable at such time as may be agreed upon, with the interest payable as aforesaid.

Commissioners authorized to borrow money.

When payable.

SECTION 2. That so much of the money, when borrowed in the manner provided in the first section of this act, as may be found necessary, shall be applied towards building a court house for the use of the county of Dauphin; and the said bonds in the hands of the holders shall at all times be clear and discharged from all taxes and assessments of every kind and nature whatsoever, and may be assigned, from time to time, by the holders thereof, by endorsement thereon.

How to be applied.

SECTION 3. That the bonds to be issued as aforesaid, shall be signed by a majority of the county commissioners, attested by their clerk, and verified by the seal of the county; and the coupons shall be signed by the clerk of the commissioners, or by some person appointed by the board for that purpose, and made payable either at the county treasury, or at some bank in the town of Harrisburg, to be designated by the commissioners. It shall also be the duty of said commissioners to keep an account, on their books, of the number, date and amount of each of said bonds, and to whom payable; and every holder of a bond by assignment, may, if he sees proper, have the same entered on said book by the clerk to the commissioners.

Bonds to be issued, how executed, &c.

SECTION 4. That it shall be the duty of the commissioners of said county to provide, by taxation, a sufficient sum of money to meet the interest on said bonds at all times, as it shall fall due, and the same shall be punctually paid out of any money in the county treasury; and at least fifteen years before said bonds shall become payable, it shall be the duty of the commissioners of said county to levy a tax and establish a sinking fund to meet the principal of said debt at maturity, which money shall be placed at interest, on good security, from time to time, as collected or paid to the holders of such of the bonds as are willing to accept the same, at the option of the commissioners for the time being.

Amount necessary to pay interest, &c., to be raised by taxation.

SECTION 5. That on the removal of the present court house and public offices, it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to procure a suitable building or buildings for the accommodation of the courts, and also for the safe keeping of the records, and the use of such of the county offices as the counties are obliged by law to provide with offices, until the new building is ready for occupancy.

Suitable buildings to be procured for holding courts, &c.

SECTION 6. That on the removal of the present court house, the general, special, township and borough elections within the borough of Harrisburg, shall be held at the following places

Elections, where

until otherwise provided by law, that is to say: The qualified electors of the North ward of said borough shall vote at the Lancasterian school house, in said ward; those of the East ward at the school house on Chestnut street, between Third and Fourth streets, in said ward; those of the South ward at the school house in Mulberry street, in said road; and those of the West ward at the school house in Walnut street, in said ward; the qualified electors of Susquehanna township shall hold their general and all other elections at Miller's (now Niesley's) school house, in said township, where their township elections are now held; and the qualified electors of Swatara township shall hold all of their elections at the public house of Samuel Luts, until the people of said townships shall determine otherwise in the mode provided by law.

gistered in index form, in suitable books to be furnished to the city commissioners at the order of the board of health. In the event of any of the persons above specified removing to any other place of residence, it shall be their duty to notify the health officer of the fact within thirty days after such removal, except where the persons removing shall cease to act in such official capacity as makes them subject to the provisions of this act.

SECTION 3. That whenever any person shall die in the city of Philadelphia, it shall be the duty of the physician who attended during his or her last sickness, or of the coroner, when the case comes under his notice, to furnish, within forty-eight hours after the death, to the undertaker or other person superintending the burial, a certificate, setting forth, as far as the same can be ascertained, the full name, sex, color, age and condition (whether married or single) of the person deceased, and the cause and date of death.

Certificate of persons dying to be furnished.

SECTION 4. That no person having the charge, as sexton or otherwise, of any vault, burying ground or cemetery within the said city, shall inter, or allow to be interred, or place, or allow to be placed, in any vault, burying ground or cemetery, the dead body of any person; nor shall any undertaker or other person remove the dead body of any person who has died in the said city, and has not been buried, to any place beyond the limits of the said city, without first procuring the certificate of the attending physician or of the coroner. To said certificate the undertaker or other person having charge of the body shall, as far as can be ascertained, add the occupation of the deceased, the place of birth, the ward, street, and number of the house in which the death occurred, the place and date of interment, and where the deceased is a minor, the full names of the parents. In case any person shall die without the attendance of a physician, or if the physician who did attend at the time of the death refuses or neglects to furnish a certificate as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the undertaker, or of any other person acquainted with the facts, to report the same to the health officer, who shall be authorized to give a certificate of death as aforesaid, provided it be not a case requiring the attendance of the coroner. Every sexton or other person having charge of any vault, burying ground or cemetery within the said city, and every undertaker or other person who shall remove any dead body from or out of the said city, shall return the said certificates to the health officer before twelve o'clock M. on the Saturday of every week, accompanied by a schedule of the same; which returns shall be published weekly by the health officer, in such manner as may be designated by the board of health.

act, entitled "An Act for establishing a health office, to secure the city and port of Philadelphia from the introduction of pestilential and contagious diseases, and for other purposes."

Persons practising midwifery, duty of.

SECTION 6. That every person practising midwifery in the city aforesaid, under whose charge or superintendence a birth shall hereafter take place, shall keep a true and exact register of such birth, and shall enter the same on a blank schedule, to be furnished by the health officer. This schedule shall contain a list of the births which have occurred under his or her care during the month, and shall set forth, as far as the same can be ascertained, the full name of each child, (if any name shall have been conferred,) its sex, color, the full name and occupation of its parent or parents, the day and place of its birth; and the said schedule shall be delivered, duly signed by the practitioner, in the form of a certificate, on the first day of each and every month, to the health officer, or to any other authorized person calling for the same. In case the birth of any child shall have occurred without the attendance of a physician or of a practitioner of midwifery, or should no other person be in attendance upon the mother immediately thereafter, it shall then become the duty of the parent or parents of such child to report its birth to the health officer, in the manner and form and within the period above required.

Persons authorized to perform marriage ceremony, duty of.

SECTION 7. That it shall be the duty of every clergyman and every magistrate, and of the clerk or keeper of the records of all religious and other societies, and of every other person by or before whom any marriage may hereafter be solemnized or contracted, to make a faithful return of the same, at the expiration of every three months, to the health officer, in the form of a certificate, which shall set forth, as far as the same can be ascertained, the full name of the husband, his occupation, the place of his birth, his residence and age, the date of marriage, the full name of the wife previous to the said marriage, and her age, the color of the parties, and the place where, and the name of the clergyman or other person by whom, the marriage ceremony was performed.

Refusal of clergymen, magistrates, physicians, &c., to report place of residence, penalty for.

SECTION 8. That every clergyman, and every magistrate, and every clerk or keeper of the records of all religious societies, and every practising physician, and every person practising midwifery in the city aforesaid, and every undertaker and superintendent or sexton of any cemetery or burying ground in the city of Philadelphia, who shall neglect or refuse to leave his or her name and place of residence at the health office, as herein provided, and who shall refuse or neglect to perform any other of the duties required as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay, for each offence, the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered in the manner and for the uses prescribed in an act, entitled "An Act for establishing a health office, and to secure the city and port of Philadelphia from the introduction of pestilential and contagious diseases, and for other purposes."

Certificates to be admitted as evidence in court.

SECTION 9. That the books or registers kept by the health officer, or a certificate duly certified by him as containing a copy of the record of any marriage, birth or death, shall hereafter be admitted in any court of the state as prima facie evidence of said marriage, birth or death.

SECTION 10. That the registry of marriages, births and deaths shall be kept in separate books; and there shall be general indexes to the record of all marriages, births and deaths, which indexes shall also be kept in separate books. Registers, how to be kept.

SECTION 11. That the health officer shall receive, for the use of the board of health, fifty cents for granting a certificate or certified copy of the record of any marriage, birth or death, and ten cents for making a search for either a marriage, birth or death, which sums shall be paid by the party applying for the certificate or search; but the said registers shall at all times be accessible to physicians, clergymen and lawyers without charge. Fees of health officer.

SECTION 12. That in order to secure uniformity and dispatch in the registration herein provided for, the books shall contain, upon the margin of each page, printed titles, with corresponding blanks, for suitable entries for marriages, births and deaths, in the order, to wit: To secure uniformity of registration, &c.

AN ACT

To authorize the erection of a Poor House by the city of Carbondale, in the county of Luzerne.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That John S. Law, James Clarkson, R. E. Marvin, Patrick Moffitt and James Stott, of the city of Carbondale, in the county of Luzerne, be and are hereby appointed commissioners, whose duty it shall be, as soon after the passage of this act as is practicable, to determine upon, and with the assent of the mayor's court of the city of Carbondale, to purchase or rent such real estate, within ten miles of the city hall in said city, as may be necessary and proper for the accommodation of the poor of the city of Carbondale; and it shall be lawful for said commissioners to take and receive proper conveyances therefor, in the name and for the use of the corporation mentioned in the second section of this act; and upon the receipt of such conveyance, to execute to the vendee or lessee, vendees or lessees, bonds or mortgages upon said real estate or other security in payment therefor, or for so much of the purchase money as remains unpaid, and also to erect thereon suitable buildings for the accommodation and keeping of the poor of said city; and they are also empowered to borrow such sum or sums of money as may in their opinion be necessary, not exceeding five thousand dollars, to be used in carrying out the purposes of this act.

Commissioners.

Duty of.

Directors.

SECTION 2. That the said John S. Law, James Clarkson, Patrick Moffitt, R. E. Marvin and James Stott are hereby constituted directors of the poor in the city aforesaid, until successors are appointed and qualified, as hereinafter provided; and they and their successors in office are hereby created a body politic and corporate in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, relative to the poor of said city of Carbondale, and shall have perpetual succession, by the name, style and title of the directors of the poor of the city of Carbondale, and by that name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, purchase, rent, receive, take and hold any lands, tenements and hereditaments, not exceeding in value five thousand dollars, to erect and keep in proper condition suitable buildings for the use, reception and accommodation and employment of the poor of said city, and to provide all things necessary for the lodging, maintenance, support and employment of the poor of said city, within ten miles of the city hall aforesaid.

SECTION 3. That the said John S. Law, James Clarkson, Patrick Moffitt, R. E. Marvin and James Stott shall continue in office as directors for a period of one year, when the two first named directors shall retire from the board, and the vacancy shall be filled by the mayor's court of the city of Carbondale, in open court; and annually thereafter, in the order in which they are named, two more directors shall in like manner retire from the said office, and the court in like manner appoint their successors; and the third year one shall retire from office, and the said mayor's court shall in like manner appoint a successor, and so on from year to year, so that each director shall hold his office (after this term of first officers) for and during the term of three years: Provided, That any vacancy in the said office of director, by resignation, death, removal or otherwise, shall be filled by the mayor's court of said city of Carbondale; and that said court shall have power to remove any director for gross neglect of duty or misconduct in office, upon the petition of fifty or more of the electors of said city, upon a hearing of the complaint, after reasonable notice to the director complained of.

SECTION 4. That the said directors shall, before entering upon the duties of their office, be duly sworn or affirmed to faithfully discharge the duties of said office; and the persons herein appointed directors shall, as soon as they think proper after the passage of this act, appoint from their number a president, secretary and treasurer, and select and appoint a steward or superintendent, and a collector of poor taxes, who shall serve until successors are appointed; and in the month of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and in the month of January in each year thereafter, shall appoint a collector and steward to serve for one year, and until successors are appointed and qualified; the treasurer and collector in all cases to give bonds, with sufficient security, conditioned for the faithful performance of their respective duties, in such sum as the directors may require. Any of said officers appointed by the directors as aforesaid, may be removed by them for neglect of duty, or for improper conduct in office; and the vacancies, as well as all vacancies which shall otherwise occur, shall be filled by them.

SECTION 5. That the said directors, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, shall have power annually, as soon as practicable after the return of the city assessments, to lay a rate or levy, not exceeding one cent on the dollar at any one time, upon all trades and occupations,

Applications for relief, relative to SECTION 7. That applications for relief shall be to the directors in person, and shall be according to a formula to be prescribed by them; and that the directors may require answers, on oath, touching the age, condition, means of subsistence, settlement and other circumstances of the applicant, to be committed to writing and subscribed by said applicant, to be filed among the papers of the poor department; and that any director may administer the said oath.

Work for the poor, relative to.

SECTION 8. That the said directors are hereby authorized to provide work and employment for such poor persons as may be able to perform any labor or pursue any employment; and if any poor person, unless unable by reason of age, infancy, disease, infirmity or other disability, shall refuse to perform such reasonable labor or service as shall be required or allotted to him or her by said directors or their steward, such person or persons shall not be entitled to or receive any relief or assistance during such refusal, and shall immediately, upon such refusal, be discharged from said poor house.

Steward to furnish yearly statement.

SECTION 9. That the steward or superintendent of said poor house is hereby required yearly, on the first Monday in January in each year, to furnish to said directors a statement of the income of said real estate, as nearly as the same can be done; also, of excess of his expenses over and above said income, the amount and kind of personal property then on hand, including grain, et cetera, the persons admitted and discharged during the year, with the number then therein, the length of time each remained, and the age and sex and nativity of each. The treasurer shall annually, on the first Monday in January of each year, render to said directors a just and correct account of his disbursements during the preceding year; and the said directors shall, in the month of January of each year, publish for at least two successive weeks, in a weekly newspaper published in the city of Carbondale, a detailed statement of the receipts, dis-

SECTION 11. That the said directors are hereby authorized to bind out poor children under their care, whose parents are dead or unable to support them, as apprentices, in the same manner and under the same restrictions as overseers of the poor may now by law put out such children; and the said directors shall exercise the same power and authority over the estate of any poor person under their care, as is now by law vested in the overseers of the poor. Directors may bind out children

SECTION 12. That the compensation of the secretary, treasurer, collector and steward shall be fixed by the directors, in full board, annually, and the compensation of the directors shall be fixed by the board of auditors, at each annual meeting, for the preceding year; said directors to furnish the said auditors with a full and correct statement of the time they have severally spent in attending to their duties: Provided, That the aggregate compensation of said directors shall not exceed two hundred dollars for the year, to be distributed in proportion to the time each has spent and the service rendered. Compensation of officers to be fixed by directors.
Proviso.

SECTION 13. That the said directors or treasurer, or any one or more of the tax payers of said city, may, within twenty days from the yearly settlement by the auditors as aforesaid, appeal from such settlement to the mayor's court of the city of Carbondale, in the same manner and under the same regulations appeals from settlements by township auditors are taken. enjoy all the powers now vested in the town council of the borough of Harrisburg, which powers are hereby transferred to, and vested in, the said council, in addition to the powers conferred upon them by this act: And it is further enacted, That the said council, or a quorum thereof, shall have jurisdiction and control over private alleys within the limits of the said city, so as to have the same cleansed and kept in order, graded, and provided with gutters or sewers, the expense whereof to be re-imbursed to the said city by the owners of the property having the right of access to, or passage along, the same, in such proportions as may be directed by the said council; the same, in case of non-payment, to be recoverable by the said corporation, by suit, before an alderman or justice of the peace, as debts of like amount are by law recoverable.

Jurisdiction and control over private alleys, relative to.

SECTION 9. That any by-law or ordinance which shall have been passed by the said council, shall be presented to the mayor; if he approves, he shall sign the same; but if he shall not approve, he shall return it, with his objections, to the council, who shall proceed to re-consider it. If, after such re-consideration, nine members of the council shall agree to pass such by-law or ordinance, it shall be a binding by-law or ordinance, and become a law, valid, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been approved of by the said mayor; but in all such cases the votes of council shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members of council so voting, shall be entered on the minutes of said council; every by-law or ordinance which the mayor shall not return within fifteen days, shall have the same force and effect as if it had been approved of by the said mayor; the said mayor may approve ordinances in vacation of council, and may call special meetings of council, to re-consider ordinances which he does not approve, on one day's notice to each member of the said council, and in case of the temporary absence or inability of the mayor to act, the council shall, if necessary, appoint a mayor to serve until he shall return, or be able to resume the duties of his office; and whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of mayor, by death or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the council to meet and elect, viva voce, a person qualified as aforesaid, to serve as mayor, who shall continue in office until the Friday succeeding the next city election; any additional salary or compensation, beyond the regular fees of the office of mayor, shall be fixed by council; the policemen, watchmen, and all other officers appointed by the said council, shall receive the compensation fixed by the by-laws or ordinances of council; and it shall be a misdemeanor in office for any of such officers to ask, demand or receive any other compensation or reward, for their official services, to be followed by dismissal or forfeiture of their respective offices.

days from and after the same have been so as aforesaid passed, ordained and established; and before any of the said by-laws, ordinances, regulations and resolutions shall be so as aforesaid recorded, the publication thereof, respectively, with the times thereof, shall be proved by the oath or affirmation of the clerk of the said council, which said oath or affirmation shall be recorded therewith, and the same shall at all times be deemed and taken as sufficient evidence of the time of said publication, and the promulgation of the said by-laws, ordinances, regulations and resolutions.

Width of foot walks, paving and curbing thereof, relative to.

SECTION 11. That the council in council assembled, or a quorum thereof, shall have power, by ordinance or resolution, to determine the width of the side or foot walks of the streets, lanes or alleys within the limits of the said city, and to require and direct the paving and curbing thereof by the owner or owners of lots fronting thereon; and on the failure or neglect of any person or persons, owning lots as aforesaid, to pave and curb the side or foot walks in front of his or their lot or lots, agreeably to the requisitions of such ordinance or resolution, the street commissioner of the proper ward or wards of the said city, shall cause the same to be paved and curbed at the expense of the said city, and the owner or owners of the said lot or lots, shall be liable to re-pay the expenses thereof to the said city; and it shall be lawful for the said council to file their lien for the same in the court of common pleas of Dauphin county, which lien, when so filed, shall have priority to any mortgage, judgment, recognizance or liability to which the said lot or lots may become liable after such paving and curbing has been done by the said city, and the amount secured thereby, may be recovered by scire facias, as debts are recoverable under the mechanics' lien law of this state, in the corporate name of the said city: Provided, That such lien shall be filed within thirty days after such expense is incurred by the said city, and shall recite the name of the owner or reputed owner of such lot or lots, and when such lots are occupied, the name or names of the occupier or occupiers of such lots shall also be recited.

Proviso.

Halls of council to be open to admission.

SECTION 12. That the doors of the respective halls of the said council shall be open at all times when the said council is in session, for the admission of all orderly and peaceable persons who shall be desirous of being present at the discussions of any by-laws, regulations, ordinances or resolutions for the welfare and good government of said city; and that all voting in the said council, by the members thereof, upon any by-laws, regulation, ordinance or resolution, or upon the election or removal of any officer, shall be viva voce.

Council to vote viva voce.

Mayor, election of.

SECTION 13. That the freemen of the city of Harrisburg, qualified to vote for members of the council of said city, shall meet in their several wards on the second Friday in April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and on the third Friday in March in each succeeding third year thereafter, and elect by ballot one person qualified to serve as a member of the Senate of this commonwealth, and who shall have been an inhabitant of said city for at least four years next preceding his election, to be mayor of the said city, for the term of three years, commencing on the Friday next following such election; such election of mayor shall be holden at the same time and places, by the same officers and in the same manner as is herein provided for holding the election of members of council of the said city; the candidate having the highest number of votes polled shall be elected as such mayor, and when the election, to be had and held in pursuance of this section, shall be closed, and the number of votes for each candidate or person voted for shall be counted and ascertained, the persons herein authorized and required to hold and conduct such election, shall prepare and make, under their respective hands and seals, duplicate returns of all the votes given at such election, one of which shall, with the tally list, be deposited in one of the ballot boxes, and be sealed with the seals of the said officers, and delivered within twenty-four hours, from and after such election, to the nearest justice of the peace or alderman, within the respective wards, for safe-keeping, and the other be delivered to the president of the council of the said city, or for the first election under this act, the same shall be deposited with the nearest justice of the peace, and the other to the president of the town council of the said borough.

Manner of conducting elections

Returns and tally lists, relative to.

SECTION 14. That the said president of the town council of Harrisburg, or the president of the council of the said city, or the person acting as such, shall, at a meeting of the said town council of the borough of Harrisburg, or at a meeting of the council of the said city, on the Friday next following the said election, open and publish said returns, and cause the same to be entered on the journal of the town council of the said borough, or on the journal of the council of the said city; and some person duly qualified to administer oaths and affirmations, shall then and there administer the usual oath or affirmation to the person having the highest number of votes for mayor as aforesaid, who shall thenceforth enter upon and perform all the duties, and possess and enjoy all the powers and privileges appertaining to the office of mayor of said city, by virtue of any law of this commonwealth, or any ordinance, by-law, regulation or resolution of said city, for the term of three years as aforesaid, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified; but if any election for mayor shall be contested, and there shall be from the returns received, or other competent testimony, to be judged of by the members present at such meeting, a reasonable doubt whether the person having the return has been duly elected, then the members of the council, in meeting as aforesaid, which they shall have power to adjourn from day to day, for the purpose of hearing and determining the matter, shall, within a reasonable time, not exceeding two weeks thereafter, decide upon such contested election, by a majority of the votes of the members of council present at such meeting; and if such return be confirmed, the person having it shall be forthwith qualified as aforesaid; and if such return be not confirmed, and the election be set aside, a special election shall be ordered to be holden by the citizens of the said city, within twenty days from and after the determination of said contested election, to elect a mayor thereof, which shall be conducted in the manner prescribed in the preceding section of this act; and the returns thereof being made as therein directed, on the third day next SECTION 16. That the aldermen of the said city shall severally, and within their respective wards, have and exercise jurisdiction of all actions, prosecutions, complaints and proceedings for fines, penalties or forfeitures imposed or enacted, or which may hereafter be imposed or enacted, by the laws of this commonwealth relating to the said city, or by the by-laws, ordinances, regulations and resolutions of the said city, for offences, acts, neglects, matters and things done or committed anywhere within the said city, and to hear, try and determine the said actions, prosecutions and complaints, in pursuance of the said laws, ordinances, regulations and resolutions, and in the manner prescribed and directed thereby. The said aldermen shall also severally have and exercise, within their respective wards, jurisdiction of all complaints, informations, prosecutions and proceedings for and relative to all crimes and offences, and breaches and sureties of the peace, of whatsoever nature, against the laws and statutes of this commonwealth, which may be done or committed, or threatened or intended to be done or committed, anywhere within the said city or elsewhere, as largely and fully, and in the same manner as the justices of the peace of this commonwealth severally have and exercise, or may hereafter have and exercise, within their respective districts; and the said aldermen shall have and exercise severally, or two or more jointly, jurisdiction of all actions, prosecutions, proceedings and cases of summary convictions for fines, penalties or forfeitures, imposed and enacted, or which may be hereafter imposed or enacted, by the laws and statutes of this commonwealth, with power to hear, try and determine the same, as largely and fully as the justices of the peace of this commonwealth can have and exercise, or may hereafter have and exercise severally, or two or more jointly, within their respective districts or counties.

Aldermen, jurisdiction of, &amp;c.

The said aldermen shall have the jurisdiction and powers generally of conservators of the peace within the said city; and the said aldermen shall have power to do and perform all the acts and duties which they may be required or authorized to do and perform by the by-laws, ordinances, regulations and resolutions of the said city.

Aldermen and police constables, fees of, &c.

SECTION 17. That the said aldermen and police constables shall severally receive for services rendered by them, in and concerning any actions, prosecutions, complaints and proceedings in pursuance of the by-laws, ordinances, regulations and resolutions of the said city, or in the name of the said city, and for the performance of any act and duty enjoined or authorized by the by-laws, ordinances, regulations and resolutions of the said city, such fees, perquisites or compensation as may be allowed by the by-laws, ordinances, regulations and resolutions of the said city; and the said aldermen, police constables and other constables in the said city, shall receive for any and all other services rendered, and acts, matters and things done and performed by them by virtue of their jurisdictions and powers respectively, and in pursuance of the laws and statutes of this commonwealth, such fees and perquisites as are allowed to aldermen and constables by the act of assembly, passed the twenty-eighth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, entitled "An Act establishing a fee bill," or as may be hereafter allowed to aldermen in the city of Philadelphia.

Prosecutions, complaints, &c., for violation of ordinances and regulations, relative to.

SECTION 18. That all actions, prosecutions, complaints and proceedings for violation of the by-laws, ordinances, regulations and resolutions of the said city, and for fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed or enacted thereby, which shall be brought before the mayor or any alderman or aldermen of the said city, respectively, shall be instituted in the corporate name of the said city; those which shall be so brought for violation of an offence against the laws of the commonwealth, relating to the said city, and for fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed and enacted thereby, shall be instituted in the name of the commonwealth, or as prescribed by the said laws of the commonwealth; and all other actions, prosecutions, complaints and proceedings so brought for fines, penalties or forfeitures imposed or enacted by the laws or statutes of this commonwealth, shall be instituted and conducted as provided by law; and all warrants, writs, orders and process in and concerning the said actions, prosecutions, complaints and proceedings, or in and concerning any criminal prosecutions, complaint, case or proceeding made and issued by the said mayor and aldermen respectively, shall be made, directed and issued to any of the police constables, or other constables of the said city, who shall respectively serve, obey and execute the same any where within the said city or county of Dauphin, or in any of the cities or counties of this state, under the provisions of the act of assembly of this commonwealth, passed the sixteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, entitled "An Act concerning backing of warrants by justices of the peace," or the same may be issued and served and executed any where in the said city and county, by special constables or other persons, as provided by law.

SECTION 19. That it shall be the duty of every police constable of the said city, to serve, execute, obey and perform any where within the said city or county of Dauphin, all warrants, orders, writs and process, made or issued by the said mayor or any alderman of the said city, in pursuance of the aforesaid jurisdiction and powers of the said mayor or aldermen, and which may be directed, issued or delivered to the said police constables; and every such police constable shall have power so to do, and also to have authority as a conservator of the peace, to be exercised any where within the said city; and it shall be his or their duty to do and perform all acts and things which he or they may be required to do and perform, by the by-laws and ordinances of the said city.

Police constable,

SECTION 20. That if any person shall think himself aggrieved by any judgment against him as defendant, by the mayor or any alderman of the said city, in any action, prosecution or proceedings for any fine, penalty or forfeiture, imposed or enacted by or under any law or statute of this commonwealth, relative to the said city, or by or under any ordinance, by-law, resolution or regulation of the said city, such person may, if the said judgment shall exceed the sum of five dollars, exclusive of costs, appeal from the said judgment to the court of common pleas for the county of Dauphin: Provided, That such person shall enter into recognizance to the said city, with one or more sufficient sureties, whose sufficiency shall be approved of by the said mayor or alderman, before the said mayor or alderman, in a sum sufficient to cover the said judgment; and all costs that have accrued, or that may thereafter accrue in the said case, conditioned that such defendant shall prosecute his appeal with effect: And provided, That such appeal shall be taken, the recognizance entered into, and a certified transcript of the judgment and recognizance to be furnished by the said mayor or alderman, to the said defendant, on his demand therefor, shall be filed by the said defendant in the office of the prothonotary of the said court, within twenty days after the rendition of the said judgment. In case the said transcript shall not be so filed within the said time, the said mayor or alderman, shall proceed in the said case as if no such appeal had been taken; and in case of the forfeiture or breach of the condition of the said recognizance, the same shall be brought in the corporate name of the said city, and recovered in an action of debt thereon, in the same manner as debts on contract of like amount are sued and recovered by the laws of this commonwealth: Provided further, That the said mayor or alderman may issue process and execution on the said judgment, immediately on the rendition of the said judgment, and before the expiration of the aforesaid twenty days, unless an appeal shall at the time have been taken and the said recognizance entered into, the said process and execution to be stayed on the payment of the costs of said execution; on an appeal being taken and recognizance entered into and transcript filed as aforesaid, the proceedings on the said appeal, and on any judgment thereon in the said court, shall be by the said court, with like process, proceedings and writs of execution, as directed or authorized by the acts of assembly of this commonwealth: And provided, That in case of a judgment for the defendant, by the said mayor or alderman, in any such action or prosecution instituted in the name of the said city, for a fine, penalty or forfeiture greater than the sum of five dollars, the said city shall have the same right of appeal as the defendant, as aforesaid, under the same terms and conditions, except entering into recognizance as aforesaid.

Election and term of service of aldermen.

SECTION 21. That there shall be one alderman elected in each of the wards of the said city, to be chosen by the qualified voters in each ward, and commissioned for the same term of years, and in the same manner; and all vacancies in the offices of the said aldermen, to be supplied in the same manner as aldermen are elected under the act of assembly of this state, passed the twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, and the supplement or supplements thereto, and in pursuance of the provisions of this act. The said aldermen to give security, as provided in the said acts of assembly, and to be subject to the same liabilities and penalties, to be removed from office in the same manner, and to be entitled to the same powers, rights and privileges as aldermen, generally, under the laws and statutes of this commonwealth. The first election for aldermen aforesaid, shall be held in the respective wards, on the second Friday in April, A. D. 1860, and on the third Friday in March in every succeeding fifth year thereafter, to be held and conducted as is in this act provided for in respect to municipal elections: Provided, That the justices of the peace elected and commissioned within the corporate limits of the said city, at the passage of this act, shall hold and enjoy their offices, and perform all the duties pertaining thereto, until the times for which they were respectively elected and commissioned shall have expired: Provided also, That if any of the said justices shall be elected alderman for either of the said wards, at the first election for aldermen to be held under the provisions of this act, the commission of such justice, so elected, shall be thereby determined and ended.

aldermen in civil cases.

SECTION 22. That the aldermen of the said city shall have and exercise, within their respective wards, the same jurisdictions in all civil actions, cases, matters and proceedings, as justices of the peace of this commonwealth have and exercise, severally, or two or more of them jointly, within their several districts and counties; and the said aldermen shall proceed therein in like manner, and with the like powers and authorities, and under and subject to the like rules, regulations and restrictions, and with the like means, process and writs of execution as justices of the peace now may, or hereafter can have under the laws of this commonwealth, with the like right of appeal, by the party or parties aggrieved, from any judgment, order or decree of any such alderman or aldermen, to the court of common pleas of the county of Dauphin.

Constables, election of, &c.

SECTION 23. That on the second Friday in April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and on the third Friday in March in each year thereafter, the qualified voters of the city of Harrisburg, in each ward, shall elect one constable; the said constable shall be qualified as the laws of this commonwealth require such officers to be, and shall, upon entering the requisite security, be appointed by the court of quarter sessions of the county of Dauphin; and they shall be under and subject to the same legal penalties and provisions, and exercise all the powers, and do and perform all duties, that, by the usages and laws of this commonwealth, are enjoined upon such officers.

All vacancies that may, from any cause, occur in the said office of constable, shall be filled by the court of quarter sessions of the said county of Dauphin: Provided, That the constables now elected for the borough of Harrisburg shall hold and enjoy their said offices, and perform all the duties respectively belonging to the said office, until their successors shall be elected and duly qualified under the provisions of this act.

they are hereby enjoined and required to execute the same by making the arrest, if the same can be done at any place within the county of Dauphin, or in any of the cities or counties of this commonwealth, under the provisions of the act of assembly of said commonwealth, passed the sixteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, entitled "An Act concerning the backing of warrants by justices of the peace," and also by bringing such offender or offenders before the said mayor or aldermen, or some of them.

Power of mayor and aldermen in certain cases.

SECTION 30. That it shall and may be lawful for the said mayor and alderman, or any of them, before whom any complaint, matter or thing of a criminal or civil nature, within his or their jurisdiction, shall be made or depending, to issue their subpœna, in common form, to any person or persons within this commonwealth, commanding him or them to appear and give evidence therein; and every person to whom the same shall be directed, and on whom service thereof shall be duly made, shall attend accordingly, and give evidence, under such pains and penalties as are by law incurred by any person or persons refusing to attend and give evidence before any aldermen, justice of the peace or courts of this commonwealth, when duly subpœnaed for that purpose.

Duty of keeper of the Dauphin county prison.

SECTION 31. That the keeper of the Dauphin county prison is hereby enjoined and required to receive and keep in safe custody, in the prison of said county, at the expense of the said county, until legally discharged therefrom, any person or persons who may be committed by virtue of lawful process, issued by the mayor or any alderman or aldermen of the said city, in the manner and under the same penalties as if he, she or they had been committed by the court of quarter sessions of Dauphin county, or any judge thereof; and all neglect of duty or wilful misbehaviour in said keeper of said prison toward such prisoners, or any of them, shall be and the same is hereby made cognizable and punishable as a like neglect of duty or a like wilful misbehaviour in said keeper of said prison towards prisoners committed by any justice of the peace, or by the said court of quarter sessions, or any judge thereof, of the said county, is or would be cognizable and punishable.

Election of city treasurer.

SECTION 32. That the inhabitants of said city qualified to vote for mayor, may, at the times and places, and in the same manner they elect the mayor of the said city, elect a city treasurer, to serve for two years from the fourth Friday in April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and from the fourth Friday in March in each and every succeeding second year thereafter, and until another person be duly elected and qualified to serve in his stead; and the said treasurer shall give security, by bond, with two or more sufficient sureties, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, for the payment over of all moneys remaining in his hands, in his official capacity, at the expiration of his term of office, and the delivery of all books and papers in his hands belonging to the said office to his successor in office; and the said bond shall be taken in the name of the city of Harrisburg, and shall be docketed and filed of record in the office of the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of the said county of Dauphin, and when so entered, shall be a lien against the real estate of said treasurer and his sureties; and may also, Auditors. at the same time and place, and in the same manner, elect three reputable persons as auditors, for two years, to audit the accounts of the treasurer of the said city.

SECTION 33. That Charles F. Muench, William Colder, junior, Commissioners. A. Boyd Hamilton, Henry Peffer, John H. Briggs, George W. duty of. Harris and Rudolph F. Kelker, of Harrisburg, and David Herr, of Susquehanna township, are hereby appointed commissioners, to do and perform the duties herein specified; and in case of the death, removal or refusal of either of them to serve, such vacancy shall be filled by the council of said city; said commissioners are hereby authorized, and by and with the consent of the said mayor and council, to select and employ competent engineers, surveyors or draughtsmen, who, under the direction of the said commissioners, shall execute a survey and plan of all lands embraced within the limits of said city, designating thereon the avenues, streets, lanes and alleys now existing and opened, also such tracts, pieces or parcels of land through which no avenues, streets, lanes and alleys have been located. When said draft is completed, it shall be the further duty of said Further duties. commissioners, or a majority of them, to complete said plan, by designating where new avenues, streets, lanes and alleys shall hereafter be opened. The said avenues, streets, lanes and alleys shall be laid out by the said commissioners, in such manner as to conform, as nearly as possible, in their courses and distances, with the courses and distances of the present existing avenues, streets, lanes and alleys of the borough of Harrisburg, and the villages of West Harrisburg, Paxton, Fairhill, and those laid out by the Harrisburg building association, and to make a plot or draft thereof, showing the courses, distances and width of the avenues, streets, lanes and alleys so as aforesaid laid out by the said commissioners, and make report of the same, together with a plot or draft thereof, signed by the said commissioners, or a majority of them, to the court of quarter sessions of the county of Dauphin, and the same being approved of by the said court, the same shall be recorded in the recorder's office at Harrisburg; and the said avenues, streets, lanes and alleys so laid out by the said commissioners, shall, when thus approved of by the said court, be deemed, taken and allowed to be public streets, lanes or alleys of the said city of Harrisburg, and to be hereafter opened, as is hereinafter directed by the provisions of this act; the said commissioners, or a majority of them, may Reservoirs or basins, relative to. designate, within the limits of the said city, a plot, piece or parcel of ground, containing not less than twenty acres, to be for the use of the public and of the said city, upon which plot, piece or parcel of ground, reservoirs or basins for holding water, or other necessary buildings and works, for the use of the said city and its inhabitants, may be hereafter erected; said plot, piece or parcel of ground to be appropriated, taken and occupied, and the damages to be ascertained and adjusted, as in this act provided for the opening of avenues, streets, lanes and alleys within the said city: Provided, That the damages for the said Provide. plot, piece or parcel of ground shall be paid by the city of Harrisburg.

Commissioners to receive no compensation.

SECTION 34. That the said commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services, except the necessary expenses for stationery and carriage hire; they may be allowed the time necessary (not exceeding two years) to fulfil and complete the duties assigned to them by this act, and are hereby authorized, by and with the consent of the mayor and council, to fix the number and compensation of their employees, and the amounts to be respectively paid to such employees for their services, whilst actually employed in the discharge of their several and respective duties; such compensation to be paid to such employees respectively, upon certificates signed by said commissioners, or a majority of them; when countersigned and approved by the said mayor, said certificates shall be paid by the treasurer of the said city, out of any moneys in his hands belonging to the said city, and not otherwise specifically appropriated, which certificates shall be proper vouchers for such treasurer, and be allowed as credits to the said treasurers in the settlement of their respective accounts; the said commissioners to use, occupy and enjoy the council chamber of the said city as their office, which shall be furnished by the said council, with the proper and necessary accommodations for the use of the said commissioners, their engineers, surveyors and draughtsmen.

Opening, grading and curbing of streets, alleys, &c.

SECTION 35. That at any time hereafter, when the necessities of the said city, and the increase of the population thereof, shall require the same to be done, the council of the said city, by an ordinance or ordinances passed by the said council, and approved of by the said mayor, may direct such or so many of the said avenues, streets, lanes and alleys to be opened, graded and curbed, as the said council for the time being may deem necessary to accommodate the desire for improvement and building thereon, by the inhabitants of the said city, or by other persons; and after the said avenues, streets, lanes and alleys shall be thus ordered to be opened, graded and curbed, the said court shall, upon the application by petition, presented in open court by the mayor of the said city, or by the president of said council, or by the owner or owners of the lands, occupied and taken for the said avenues, streets, lanes and alleys so as aforesaid ordered to be opened, curbed and graded, appoint six discreet and disinterested freeholders, residents of the said city of Harrisburg, or of the said county of Dauphin, who being first duly sworn or affirmed according to law, shall inquire what damage the owner or owners of the said lands, houses or other buildings shall or may sustain, by reason of the same being injured, taken, used and occupied for the purposes aforesaid: Provided, That in assessing said damages, no compensation shall be made or allowed by the said freeholders, to any person or persons for houses or other buildings, erected or built by any person or persons on any of the avenues, streets, lanes and alleys of the said city, from and after the said avenues, streets, lanes and alleys shall have been designated and laid out by the said commissioners or a majority of them: Provided also, That it shall also be the duty of the said freeholders, in assessing such damages, to take into consideration the advantages which have accrued, or may thereafter accrue, to the owner or owners of such lands, houses or other buildings erected thereon, before the designation

That the several streets, lanes and alleys now existing and being within the said city, shall be of the width laid out originally by the proprietors of the ground, or according to law, as they have been heretofore established and recorded for the borough of Harrisburg, namely: Paxton street, Second street and Market street, shall each be eighty feet wide; Meadow lane, from Second to Market street, shall be thirty-three feet wide; Vine street, forty feet wide; Front street, extended below Paxton street, forty-five feet wide; Mulberry street, Chestnut street, Walnut street, Locust street, Pine street, Third street, to Meadow lane, Fifth street, Sixth street, High street, in the rear of the arsenal, and Short street, shall each be fifty-two and a-half feet wide; State street, in front and rear of the capitol, one hundred and twenty feet wide; High or Fourth street, in the rear of the capitol, North street, Spruce and Filbert street, each sixty feet wide; Canal street, below North street, including the twenty feet given to public use by lot holders, to be fifty-three feet wide; South street, in the rear of the public grounds, forty feet and six inches at High street, and thirty-eight feet at Poplar lane; South street, in front of the public grounds, Third street, from South to North street, each sixty feet wide; the streets on the east, north and west of the reservoir grounds, shall be forty feet wide; Third street, extending from North street to the road from Hammon's to the canal, shall be sixty feet wide; Washington avenue, from Second to Front street, fifty-five feet wide; Liberty street, thirty feet wide; Myrtle alley, Willow alley, Spring alley, Church alley, Chestnut alley, Cedar alley, Buttonwood alley, West alley, Poplar lane, Tanner's lane, Barbara alley, Cranberry alley, Strawberry alley, Blackberry alley, Cherry alley, Mary's alley, River alley, Raspberry alley, Dewberry alley, Huckleberry alley, Love lane, and the alleys from Fourth street and from Market street, to the English and German burying grounds, each twenty feet wide ; North alley, seventeen feet wide, and South alley fourteen feet wide ; Canal street, from Market to Walnut, shall be feet wide.

SECTION 40. That Water street, running from the west end of State street to the water house, and thence extending up the river the several courses and distances as laid down upon the draft on file in the office of the court of quarter sessions of the county of Dauphin, to intersect Second street, shall be thirty-three feet wide ; and that the corporation may occupy so much of said street as is necessary for the erection of their wharf to lay their coal upon, to carry on the water works for the supplying the city with water, without being amenable as trespassers for obstructing any part of said street.

Water street,
relative to.

SECTION 41. That from and after the passage of this act, the supervisors or commissioners of streets and council of the city of Harrisburg, shall be amenable for any gross neglect of duty in permitting the by-laws and ordinances of the said city to be violated or neglected, or by suffering the avenues, streets, lanes and alleys within the said city to be obstructed in any way or manner, by neglecting to cause any filth or nuisance to be removed, which is injurious to the health of the city or the comfort of its inhabitants ; for any of the aforesaid neglects or violations of duty, the said supervisors, commissioners of streets or council may be proceeded against by information and indictment ; and upon conviction before the court of quarter sessions of the peace of the said county of Dauphin, they, or either of them, shall be individually fined, at the discretion of the said court.

tions, relative to.

SECTION 42. That the corporation of the city of Harrisburg are hereby authorized to straighten Paxton creek, wherever the same may be necessary within the boundary lines of the said city and Swatara township, and also to change the bed of the said stream wherever it may become necessary to accomplish the desired object of removing all obstructions in said creek, so that no stagnant water will remain in the said creek or its immediate vicinity.

Paxton creek authorized to be straightened.

SECTION 43. That all persons who may feel themselves aggrieved or in any way damaged by the straightening or changing of the bed of Paxton creek, shall or may apply to the court of quarter sessions of the county of Dauphin, and have their damages valued and assessed, as is provided for in the preceding sections of this act, relating to the opening, grading and curbing of streets, lanes and alleys within the said city, and the damages, if any, to be paid by the county of Dauphin.

Damages by straightening,
relative to.

SECTION 44. That immediately after the passage of this act, the council of the said city shall take measures to carry out all the necessary provisions contained in this act, for the benefit and interest of the inhabitants of the said city.

Council to carry out provisions of this act.

SECTION 45. That the mayor of the said city shall appoint some proper person to attend his office, and act as a police constable throughout the bounds of the city, who shall be styled and known as the chief police constable of the said city, and be authorized to arrest all vagrants and disorderly persons, and bring them before the mayor of the said city, or in his absence or inability to act, from sickness or any other cause, he shall in that case take the said offenders before any of the aldermen of the said city, to be dealt with according to law, and to execute and serve all process issued by the mayor or aldermen of the said city; and on all extraordinary occasions, when imperious necessity requires, the said mayor shall be authorized to appoint so many police officers as the emergency of the case may require, whose fees for services shall be the same as constables; and in case of disobedience or neglect of duty, or when the said emergency has passed or ceased to exist, the mayor shall have power, and he is hereby authorized, to dismiss such special police officer, or any of them.

Acts of assembly
now in force, relative to.

SECTION 46. That all acts of assembly now in force, touching or concerning the borough of Harrisburg, and all the by-laws and ordinances of the said borough of Harrisburg, not being inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall be and remain in full force and virtue, in the said city, until the same shall be re-enacted, repealed, altered or supplied by other acts of assembly, or by the by-laws or ordinances enacted under the authority hereby given to the council of the said city.

Incompatibility.

SECTION 47. That no alderman of the said city, or any person holding an office of trust or profit under the by-laws or ordinances of the said city, the emoluments whereof are paid out of the treasury of said city, shall be competent to serve as a member of the council.

Officers to hold the first election,
relative to.

SECTION 48. That for the purpose of holding the first election, to be held on the second Friday of April next, for municipal officers of the said city, the judges and inspectors thereof shall be chosen at the time and places fixed for said election, by the qualified voters of the said wards present at the said time, and at the several places named in this act in the respective wards; at which election the qualified citizens of the said wards shall elect judges and inspectors of elections for their several and respective wards, to hold the next general and presidential elections in their said wards, in the manner now provided by law for the election of judges and inspectors of such elections.

Lock-up or watch house.

SECTION 49. That the said council shall rent, until they can provide for, erect or purchase, a lock-up or watch house in some convenient part of the said city, for the detainer and confining of vagrants and persons arrested by the police officers, until the persons so arrested can be taken before the mayor or some proper magistrate for hearing, and committed to prison or discharged; but no person shall be detained in the said watch house for a longer time than twenty-four hours, except upon the order of the mayor, or a magistrate legally authorized, who may commit such person for further hearing.

mayor.

SECTION 50. That each and every mayor and alderman of the said city, who shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, shall be liable to be removed from office in the same manner that justices of the peace are, by the constitution and laws of this commonwealth, removable for misconduct in office.

Penalty for refusing to perform duties of office.

SECTION 51. That all persons elected or appointed under the authority of this act, shall, in addition to the usual oath of office, be sworn to support the constitution of the United States and of this state; and any person so elected or appointed, who shall refuse to take upon himself the duties of such office, shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered as debts under one hundred dollars are by law recoverable, unless the fine shall be remitted by the mayor of said city, who is hereby authorized to remit the same on sufficient cause shown, or by the council, who are hereby authorized, on sufficient cause shown, to remit the said fine, in case of the refusal to act of the person elected to serve as mayor.

SECTION 52. That all property and estates whatsoever, real, personal and mixed, of the borough of Harrisburg, are hereby severally and respectively transferred to and vested in the corporation or body politic of the city of Harrisburg, and their successors; the said city to have and to hold the same, to and for the use and benefit of the said city, and its citizens or inhabitants forever; and until the corporation of the said city shall be duly organized under this act, the present charter of the borough of Harrisburg shall continue in full force and operation; and all persons now holding offices under the said charter shall hold their offices as they now may or can do by law, until the officers provided for in this act are duly elected and qualified under the provisions of this act; and as soon as this act shall go into operation, all suits, prosecutions, debts and claims whatsoever, to which the said borough shall be a party, shall, by force thereof, become transferred to the said city, which, in all suits now pending, shall be substituted as party therein, and be under the management and control thereof, as fully and completely as if no alteration had been made in the said charter; and all contracts, claims and demands of whatsoever nature, now existing, and whether the same be performable or payable, presently or in future, by the said borough of Harrisburg, shall, by force and virtue of this act, be fulfilled by, and be recoverable from, or payable by the city of Harrisburg.

SECTION 53. That the said council shall, once in every year, cause to be published, in one or more of the newspapers printed in the said city, a just and true account of all the moneys which shall have accrued to them in their corporate capacity during the year preceding such publication, and also of the disposition thereof, exhibiting the amount of taxes levied and assessed on all taxable property, and on all persons, for water rents, together with the rents of the market houses and stalls on the streets, and all other revenues of the said city; also exhibiting all outstanding taxes and revenues of every kind; also the credits for all exonerations of taxes which could not be collected, the amount of per centage paid for collecting taxes and water rents, and all other revenue of the said city, together with all the expenses of the city, all outstanding debts due by the said city, including the permanent or funded debt of the said city.

SECTION 54. That nothing in this act contained shall be taken, deemed, held or construed so as to affect the school districts at present existing in the borough of Harrisburg, but the same shall be and remain as now established by law: Provided, That all the territory included within the First and Second wards of the said city shall constitute the school district now designated and known as the South ward school district, and all the other territory of the said city shall be included in what is now the North To incorporate the Kittatinny Improvement Company.

WHEREAS, A large section of country in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the state of New Jersey, lying on the river Delaware, between the Delaware Water Gap and Matamoras, in

Pike county, is without any cheap, safe and convenient channel of communication with the great markets of the country, and such communication may be supplied by the improvement of the channel of the Delaware river, between the Foul Rift, in Northampton county, and Matamoras, in Pike county, Pennsylvania :

And whereas, Considerable money has already been expended by persons whose names are hereafter mentioned, in clearing out and improving the channel of the river between the points last above named, and building steamboats for the navigation of the same, and the object contemplated by such persons cannot be effectually carried out without legislative aid ; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Charles Brodhead, Conrad Shimer, Albert G. Brodhead, William R. Sharpe, Alfred Thomas, John H. Wallace, Oliver S. Dimmick and Richard Holcomb, and all other persons who shall become subscribers and owners of the capital stock hereby created, are hereby made and declared to be a corporation and body politic, in deed and in law, by the name of the Kittatinny improvement company, with power and authority to procure, purchase, construct and equip one or more boats and vessels, to be propelled or driven by steam or caloric engines or otherwise, with such appurtenances and equipments as may be deemed adequate and proper for the object and purposes of this incorporation, and the same to use and employ, to the exclusion of all other boats or vessels, (except those of such class, description or build as have been heretofore accustomed to be employed in the navigation of the river Delaware between the points aforesaid,) in the transportation of freight and passengers, and the towing of other craft to and from all points upon the Delaware river, between the head of Foul Rift, in the county of Northampton, and the village of Matamoras, in the county of Pike, and state of Pennsylvania.

SECTION 2. That the capital stock of the said corporation shall be one hundred thousand dollars, and shall be divided into one thousand shares of one hundred dollars each, with the privilege of increasing the said capital stock to two hundred thousand dollars ; certificates of said stock shall be issued and signed by the president and secretary, and sealed with the common seal of the corporation ; said stock shall be personal property, and may be transferred, in person or by attorney, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the by-laws.

SECTION 3. That the affairs of the said corporation shall be managed by a board of not less than six nor more than eleven directors, (one of whom shall be president,) and a secretary and treasurer ; and that the said corporators hereinbefore mentioned are hereby declared and appointed the first directors, who shall serve until the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and until others are elected ; and that all directors subsequently elected, shall be elected at such times and places, and shall hold their offices for such terms and periods as the by-laws may direct ; the secretary and treasurer shall be appointed by the board of directors ; a majority of the directors said, except and unless when the water in the said river shall be at so low a stage as would now prevent the navigation of said river, between the points aforesaid, with such boats as have heretofore been used.

Authorized to remove obstructions.

SECTION 7. That the said corporation shall have power to abate, clear out and remove all wings, dams, fish baskets, eel weirs and other obstructions now or hereafter erected or placed in the said river, which shall interfere with the navigation of the same; and no dam, wing, fish basket, eel weir or other erection, shall hereafter be placed or erected by any person or persons in the said river, between the points heretofore specified, in such a manner as to interfere with the free navigation of said river by such boats and vessels as the said company shall employ or use in the navigation thereof; and the said corporation shall also have power to require and enforce any person or corporation, owning or working any ferry over the said river between the points above mentioned, and using any rope, wire, chain or cable for such ferriage, to raise any and all of said ropes, wires, chains or cables so high above the waters of the said river, as not in any manner, nor at any stage of water, to obstruct or in anywise interfere with the ascending or descending navigation of the said river, with such vessels, boats and craft as the company hereby incorporated may use in the navigation thereof.

What kind of craft may navigate the river.

SECTION 8. That no person or persons shall be allowed to navigate the said river, between the head of the Foul Rift and the village of Matamoras aforesaid, with boats propelled by steam or caloric, or flat bottomed or other boats of a draft or build not heretofore accustomed to be used in the navigation of the river, between the said points, for the purpose of transporting passengers or freight; nor shall any person or persons use the channel, as improved by the said corporation, for navigation with durham and other boats of the draft or build heretofore used on the said river, between the points aforesaid, when the waters of the said river are so low as would prevent the use of such boats in the condition the channel is now in, and without the improvements made by the company, unless by the permission of the said corporation, and at such reasonable rates of toll as the said corporation may adopt.

Certain property may be purchased of the corporators.

SECTION 9. That the said corporation shall purchase and take, of such of the corporators herein named as may be the owners of the same, at a fair valuation, all boats and machinery which, at the passage of this act, they shall have constructed or purchased for or used in the navigation of the said Delaware river, between the points last above named; and shall also refund and pay to the said corporators, and each of them, all moneys which they or any part of them have heretofore laid out and expended in exploring, surveying or improving the channel of the said river, between the said points, for the purposes of, and with a view to, the navigation thereof, in the manner contemplated by this act.

Obstructing the navigation, penalty for.

SECTION 10. That if any person or persons shall wilfully injure or obstruct the said corporation in the navigation of the said river between the points aforesaid, or shall in any manner injure, impair or obstruct the channel of the said river, or any walls, wings or other erections made by the said company for the improvement of the navigation thereof, or the wharves, slips, piers or other erections made by said corporation, or any of their boats, engines or machinery, or shall in any manner interfere with, violate or infringe upon any of the privileges or franchises herein granted or conferred upon the said corporation, such person or persons so offending shall forfeit and pay to the said corporation, the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered as debts of like amount are recoverable by law; and shall also be liable to double the amount of damages sustained thereby, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction. How recovered.

SECTION 11. That this act shall continue in force for thirty years, and no longer. Limitation.

SECTION 12. That the said company shall pay a bonus of one-half of one per centum on the capital stock of said company, and that this act shall not take effect until it shall receive the concurrence of the legislature of New Jersey. Bonus.

to which such real estate may become subject after the passage of this act; and the mayor, aldermen and citizens aforesaid are hereby authorized to collect the amount of such lien by a writ of scire facias issuing out of the court of common pleas of Lancaster county, in like manner as the claims of mechanics and material-men are now collected.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of Lancaster county to procure and keep in his office a book or docket, to be called the municipal lien docket, in which he shall cause to be entered and recorded all descriptions and designations of real estate as hereinbefore mentioned, and all claims that may be filed by virtue of this act, together with the date of filing the same, and shall cause the names of the owners of such real estate to be alphabetically indexed therein; for which services, as well as in subsequent proceedings upon such liens, he shall receive the same fees as are by law allowed him in proceedings upon the liens of mechanics and material-men.

Prothonotary to keep municipal lien docket.

SECTION 3. No tax, rate or levy hereafter to be assessed by the corporate authorities of the city of Lancaster, and no claim for expenses as described in the first section of this act, shall continue to be a lien on real estate situated in said city, after the first day of March in the year immediately succeeding that in which such tax, rate or levy shall have been assessed, or such expenses incurred, unless a statement thereof, as provided in the first section of this act, shall before that time have been filed in the court of common pleas of Lancaster county; but when so filed, such lien shall continue for the period of five years from the date of the filing thereof, and may be revived in like manner as is provided for the revival of mechanics' liens.

Continuation of lien, relative to.

SECTION 4. No lien created by this act shall affect the right of freehold in any real estate otherwise unencumbered, nor shall the lien of any mortgage upon real estate, situated in the city of Lancaster, be divested or in any way affected by any sale of the mortgaged premises under a subsequent judgment, (other than one entered upon a claim which was a lien prior to the recording of such mortgage,) by reason of any prior lien of any tax or municipal claim as hereinbefore created, where, by existing laws, the lien of such mortgage would otherwise continue: Provided, That the continuance of the lien of such mortgage shall not prevent the discharge of such prior liens by such sale, or their payment out of the proceeds of such sale.

To incorporate the Saucon Valley Railroad Company.

- SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That
- Corporators. George T. Lewis, Joseph Wharton, Samuel F. Fisher, Richard W. Leibert and Joseph Deihl, and their associates, successors and assigns, and other persons who shall become stockholders, be and they are hereby made and created a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of the Saucon Valley railroad company; and by the said name they shall and may have perpetual succession, and shall be in law capable of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, in all courts and judicatories whatsoever, and also of contracting and being contracted with relative to the business and objects of the said corporation; and they may have a common seal, and may change and alter the same at pleasure, and make rules and by-laws for the regulation and management of the said corporation, consistent with the laws of this commonwealth.
- Style.
- Powers.
- Capital stock. SECTION 2. That the capital stock of said company shall be fifteen thousand dollars, to be divided into three hundred shares of fifty dollars each; and the said company shall have the right to increase their said capital stock, from time to time, as the board of directors may deem necessary: Provided, That the whole capital stock shall not exceed sixty thousand dollars.
- Proviso.
- May borrow money. SECTION 3. That the said company may borrow money to an amount not exceeding sixty thousand dollars, and issue, from time to time, bonds therefor, in the corporate name and under the common seal of said company, in sums not less than one hundred dollars each, either with or without coupons attached, payable at such time, on such terms, and at such rate of interest, not exceeding twelve per centum per annum, as they may deem expedient, and to sell said bonds at a less rate than the par value thereof; and may secure the payment of said bonds and coupons by a mortgage or mortgages upon the road, property, income, revenue, tolls, and also upon the franchises and corporate privileges of the said company, with the same effect as any company incorporated in this commonwealth may or can do.
- Route. SECTION 4. That the said company shall have the right to build and construct a railroad, westwardly from a point on the North Pennsylvania railroad, to any mine or mines in Saucon valley, not exceeding six miles distant from the starting point; with power, also, to connect with the railroad of the Thomas iron company, at or near their iron mine, and also with the said North Pennsylvania railroad company.
- Injury to private property, how to be settled. SECTION 5. That if in the location of said road, or in the building of the same, any injury shall be done to private property, and the parties cannot agree upon the amount of compensation to be made to the owner or person injured, the same shall be adjusted and settled according to the provisions of the eleventh section of an act, entitled "An Act regulating railroads," approved the nineteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

SECTION 6. That the stockholders shall annually, on the second Wednesday in May, elect a president, four directors, secretary and treasurer for said company; said president shall be a member of the board of directors, and one person may hold the office of secretary and treasurer: Provided, That the company shall not be dissolved by the failure to elect directors on said day, but the stockholders may, at any time within sixty days thereafter, elect such directors.

Election of officers.

Proviso.

SECTION 7. That the president and directors shall procure certificates of stock, which, signed by the president and treasurer, and sealed with the corporate seal, shall be delivered to each stockholder, and which shall be transferable on the books of said company at his pleasure, in person, or by attorney duly authorized, in presence of the president, treasurer or other person appointed by the company for that purpose; subject, however, to all payments due and to become due thereon; and when such transfer shall have been made and entered upon the books of said company, the holder shall be a member of the said company; and in every election or meeting, the stockholders of the said company shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock by him or them held.

Certificates of stock, relative to.

Votes.

SECTION 8. That if any subscriber for stock, or his assignee, shall refuse or neglect to pay any instalment called for by the said company at the place appointed, and the same shall remain unpaid for thirty days after the time appointed, he shall, in addition to the instalment called in, pay at the rate of five per centum per month for delay; and if the same shall remain unpaid so long as that this penalty shall amount to the sum actually paid in by the said subscriber or subscribers, it shall be in the power of the said company to forfeit the said stock, and the amount paid thereon, to be disposed of by the said company as will best promote their objects and interests.

A N A C T

Relating to the Estate of Mary M. Ellicott, late of Chester county, deceased.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Thomas Ellicott, and Mary M., his wife, formerly of Avondale, in the county of Chester, and state of Pennsylvania, by indenture dated the seventeenth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, recorded at West Chester, in miscellaneous deed book number eight, page five hundred and sixty, did grant and convey certain land, messuages and premises as therein described, situate in New Garden and Londongrove townships, in said county of Chester, unto Eli K. Price, of the city of Philadelphia, in fee, in trust for the said Mary M. Ellicott for her life, and from and after her decease, in trusts for such persons, estates and uses as she should, by any last will and testament in writing, direct, limit and appoint:

And whereas, The said Mary M. Ellicott, in pursuance and execution of said power of appointment, did by her last will in writing, dated the seventeenth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, duly proved and registered at West Chester, devise, limit, and appoint all the said estate and property to her husband, Thomas Ellicott, in trust for the maintenance and support of himself and her unmarried children during his life, and that at his decease, the said estate should be divided into eight equal and separate parts, and one of such equal separate parts should be conveyed by said trustee, to each of her children, certain of said shares under the limitation and restriction therein set forth :

And whereas, The said Thomas Ellicott has recently departed this life, whereby the said devisees are entitled to a conveyance from said trustee of said estate, as provided in said will :

And whereas, In the opinion of all the said devisees, it is inexpedient and unadvisable to divide the estate, and convey it in such divided parts as the said will directs ; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Eli K. Price, trustee, or any successor to him in said trust, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to convey the said estate and premises held by him in trust, as one entire and undivided property, (and not in separate shares and parcels,) to the said devisees or appointees, under the will of said Mary M. Ellicott, to hold to them undivided as tenants in common, for the same estates and uses as are set out in said will, or to their devisees or assigns, according to their present respective rights and titles therein, and that the shares therein devised in trust for the sole and separate use of the daughters of said Thomas and Mary M. Ellicott, be conveyed by said Eli K. Price to William M. Ellicott, who has been by them selected as their trustee, to be held by him upon the trusts set forth in said will.

Trustee empowered to convey to William M. Ellicott.

SECTION 2. That it shall and may be lawful for any trustee of the shares of said estate, held in trust for any of the daughters of said Thomas and Mary M. Ellicott, to make sale, either publicly or privately of the same, and by sufficient deeds therefor, to grant and convey the same to the purchaser in fee or for any less estate, freed, cleared and discharged of all trusts: Provided however, Before receiving the purchase money, they shall give security for the faithful application of the same, according to the trusts and limitations thereof, satisfactory to the orphans' court of Chester county, in such amount as said court may deem sufficient.

Authorized to sell either at public or private sale.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT

To the act to provide for the erection of a House for the Employment and Support of the Poor of the county of Bedford, approved thirty-first March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the court of quarter sessions of the county of Bedford, having first obtained the approbation of the grand jury, shall have authority to appoint five commissioners to advertise and receive proposals for, and to sell at public sale, all the real estate and appurtenances known as the poor house property, and now held by the directors of the poor of said county of Bedford, at such time and on such terms as may, in the discretion of said commissioners, be considered most advantageous; and, with the approval of said court, to make, execute and deliver deeds therefor to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, in fee simple.

Poor house property to be sold.

SECTION 2. That said commissioners are hereby further authorized and empowered, with the proceeds of said sale or sales, to purchase, in their own names, for the use of said county of Bedford, such other real estate in said county as may, in the opinion of said commissioners, be best calculated to accommodate the poor of said county, with full power to erect, or cause to be erected and constructed, all such buildings and improvements as said commissioners may deem necessary for the proper and comfortable maintenance and support of the poor of said county.

Other real estate to be purchased.

SECTION 3. That in the event of the consideration of said purchase exceeding the proceeds of the sale hereinbefore authorized, the county commissioners of said county, on notice of the fact from the commissioners appointed by this act, shall provide and pay over to said last named commissioners the amount of said excess.

Excess of purchase, how paid

SECTION 4. That the aforesaid sale and purchase and erection of improvements, should any be needed, shall be so conducted as that the property purchased shall be ready for the use and occupancy of the poor before they shall be required to leave the premises now occupied by them.

Sale, purchase and erection, how conducted.

SECTION 5. That the said commissioners shall proceed to do and perform the several matters and things herein authorized and directed, as soon after their appointment by said court as practicable; and when the premises authorized to be purchased shall be ready for occupancy, the directors of the poor of said county, for the time being, shall, on three months' notice from said commissioners, deliver up possession of the present poor house property to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and remove the poor, and all the personal property belonging to the establishment, to the premises prepared for them by said commissioners; and the said commissioners, for a nominal consideration, shall thereupon convey to the said directors of the poor, or their successors, in fee simple, all the right and title to the real estate and appurtenances so purchased by them as aforesaid, and shall also transfer to said directors all obligations and securities for money which they may then hold as commissioners aforesaid.

When premises to be delivered to purchaser.

Conveyance of real estate.

SECTION 6. That all matters and things whatsoever, directed to be done and performed by said commissioners by the provisions of this act, may be subject to the approval of said court, or a judge thereof, done and performed by a majority of them, or by a majority of the survivors of them, in case of the death of any of them; and the provisions of this act shall be and remain in full force for the term of three years, and no longer.

Duties of commissioners, subject to the approval of court

SECTION 7. That said commissioners shall give a joint and several judgment bond to the county of Bedford, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties under this act; and the commissioners of said county are hereby authorized and required to enter satisfaction on said bond, whenever, in their opinion, the duties of said obligors shall have been satisfactorily done and performed; and the commissioners hereby appointed shall receive the sum of one dollar and fifty cents each per day, for all time necessarily spent in the discharge of their duties, to be paid out of the

To incorporate the Mifflin County Bank.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That

Commissioners. William Thompson, Davis Bates, Andrew M'Farlane, E. L. Benedict, Thomas Reed, Joseph Alexander, John D. Naggeny, Thompson G. Bell, William Beatty, Samuel Milliken, Oliver P. Smith, James Brown, Henry M'Auley and H. L. Close, of the

Duty of. county of Mifflin, are hereby appointed commissioners, and they, or a majority of them, are authorized to carry into effect the Capital. establishment of a bank, to be located in the borough of Lewistown, in the county of Mifflin, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, and the said commissioners may increase it to two hundred thousand dollars, and the president and directors may at any time increase the same to five hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one thousand dollars each, and to be organized, managed and governed as hereinafter provided for.

SECTION 2. That the commissioners named in the first section of this act, or a majority of them, shall have power to open books for receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of said bank, agreeably to the provisions of the first section of this act; and no person shall be permitted to subscribe less than five shares, and such subscriptions shall be made payable to the president and directors of said bank; and the said commissioners shall have the power of keeping the books open to receive subscriptions for the term of one year, if they should not get the one hundred shares subscribed sooner.

Subscriptions of stock.

SECTION 3. That all persons offering to subscribe to the capital stock of said bank, shall first pay to the attending commissioners the sum of ten dollars on each share to be subscribed, out of which shall be defrayed the expenses of taking the subscriptions, and other incidental charges, and the residue shall be paid over to the president and directors of said bank as soon as the same shall be organized.

Amount to be paid on each share.

SECTION 4. That the stockholders of said bank shall at no time be less than three nor more than thirty in number; and they shall be the directors of said bank, with power, after incorporation, to elect a president, cashier and other necessary officers, from time to time, as occasion may require. In said election of officers, and on all other questions that may come before the board, every five shares of stock shall entitle the holder to one vote, except in determining what paper may be discounted, when each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote, and no more, irrespective of the number of shares held by him; and all paper offered for discount shall be rejected if there be two or more votes against it; the president and cashier, or any other officer, is prohibited from discounting any paper, unless they have written instructions, signed by all the directors, giving them power to do so; and in all elections for officers, and all matters, except discounting, to be decided by a vote; two-thirds of all the votes shall be necessary to a decision.

Number of stockholders, power of, &c.

Discounting paper, relative to.

SECTION 5. That the stockholders of said bank, in addition to their corporate liability, shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts and liabilities of said bank; and as a further security to the holders of all bills or notes which may be issued by said bank, the stockholders thereof are hereby required to give mortgages to the commonwealth, upon real estate situated in this state, clear of all prior incumbrances, at a fair cash valuation of said real estate; said valuation to be ascertained by an appraisement of the mortgaged premises, made under oath or affirmation, by three competent and disinterested persons, to be appointed by the governor for that purpose; and before the commissioners enter on the duty of their office, they are to notify the governor, who is authorized to appoint three appraisers, whose duty it shall be to appraise the property shown to them, at a fair cash valuation, and to make out a certificate of the same, signed by said appraisers, or a majority of them, which certificate is to be attached to said mortgage.

Individual liability.

Mortgages to commonwealth.

Appraisers to be appointed by the governor.

Mortgages to be submitted to the judges of the court of common pleas.

SECTION 6. That the said commissioners shall have the mortgages drawn and duly executed, and submit them and the title papers to the judges of the court of common pleas of the county in which the mortgaged premises are situated, or a majority of them, of whom the president judge shall be one; and the said judges, or a majority of them, are hereby authorized to examine them, and, if approved of, they are so to certify, and the said certificate shall be attached to said mortgage, with the certificate of appraisers.

Mortgagors to keep up policies of insurance.

SECTION 7. That each mortgagor who, under the provisions of this act, shall mortgage lands or assign mortgages which he has on land, on which valuable buildings are erected, shall procure and keep up a policy or policies of fire insurances on said buildings, in some solvent company or companies, for such amount as may be required by the rest of the stockholders, and to be approved of by said appraisers; said policies to be deposited with auditor general, for the security of the noteholders of said bank; and in case any such mortgagor shall neglect or refuse to keep up such insurances, it shall be the duty of the auditor general, whenever any such policy shall expire, forthwith to require said bank, within ten days, to renew or furnish other policies, or to surrender up to him the circulating notes of said bank to an amount equal to the amount of such expired policy, if the said policies are not given, and the said notes surrendered as required, the auditor general shall inventory and destroy the same, as hereafter directed; but if the policies and notes be not so given, the auditor general shall direct the attorney general to collect the amount of said policies out of said mortgages, and pay the same into the state treasury, there to be kept for the use and security of said noteholders.

Mortgages to be given for amount of notes proposed to be issued.

SECTION 8. That said mortgages shall be given for the amount of notes proposed to be issued by said bank, and shall be acknowledged as other mortgages, and recorded, together with the aforesaid certificates of valuation, in the county or counties in which the mortgaged lands and tenements lie, and also in the auditor general's office, in books to be provided for that purpose, and shall be held by said commonwealth in trust, for the use of the noteholders of said bank; and upon the failure of said bank to redeem any of its notes, as required by law, it shall be the duty of the assignee or assignees who may be appointed under the proceedings authorized by the seventeenth section of the act regulating banks, approved the sixteenth of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, to sue out said mortgages and collect the proceeds, or so much thereof as may be necessary to redeem all the notes issued by said bank.

Subscriptions to capital stock.

SECTION 9. That when not less than one hundred thousand dollars of the capital stock of said bank shall have been subscribed, and ten dollars on each share has been paid on the amount so subscribed, in gold or silver coin, or the notes of specie paying banks, which the said commissioners are hereby authorized to receive, said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall certify to the governor, under their hands and seals, and under their oaths and affirmations respectively, the names of the subscribers and the number of shares subscribed by each, together with the amount so actually paid, and that mortgages on real estate to the amount of the shares subscribed for, and the policies of insurance, have been given and deposited with the auditor general, as required by this act; and thereupon the governor shall, by letters patent, under his hand and the seal of the state, create and erect the said subscribers, their successors and assigns, into one body politic and corporate, in deed and in law, by the name, style and title of the Mifflin County Bank; and they shall so continue a body politic and corporate, for the term of twenty years, from and after the date of said letters patent; and by the name, style and title aforesaid, they shall be able to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, answer and be answered, in all courts of record and elsewhere, and to purchase, have, hold, receive, possess, enjoy and retain to their and their successors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, rents, goods and chattels, of what kind, nature and quality whatsoever, to an amount not exceeding in the whole the capital stock of said bank, except such as may be purchased in satisfaction of any judgment or decree in favor of said bank, or lands purchased in which said bank may have a lien, or assigned to it as security for the payment of any debt, and the same from time to time to sell, grant, demise, alien and dispose of; and also to make and have a common seal, and the same to break, alter and renew at pleasure; and also to ordain and put in execution such by-laws, rules and regulations as shall be convenient and necessary for the good government of said bank: Provided, That they be not contrary to the constitution or laws of the United States or of this state, and generally to do and execute all such acts, matters and things which a corporation may lawfully do, subject to the rules, regulations, restrictions and provisions of this act: Provided however, That all such lands, tenements and hereditaments, except the banking house and lot of said bank, shall be aliened, sold and disposed of within five years after the same shall have been acquired by said bank.

of the cashier, the said bank shall be entitled to receive from said auditor general, an amount of the aforesaid bill or notes, in blank, equal to the aggregate amount of said mortgages, in such denomination as said bank may desire, numbered, registered and countersigned as aforesaid; and the said bank, on receipt of said notes, is hereby authorized, after having them signed by the president and cashier thereof, in such manner as to make them obligatory promissory notes, payable on demand, at its banking house or place of business, to loan and circulate the same as money, according to the ordinary course of banking business, subject to all the provisions and restrictions of this act.

Bills received from the auditor general only to be circulated.

SECTION 12. That said bank is hereby prohibited, under a penalty of a forfeiture of its charter, from issuing, paying out or circulating any bills or notes, or paper in the nature or similitude of bank notes, purporting to be the notes of said bank, other than such as may be received from the auditor general as aforesaid; and any president, cashier or other officer of said bank, who shall make, sign, issue, pay out, or cause or knowingly permit to be made, signed, issued or paid out, any bill or note as aforesaid, not authorized by this act, or if any auditor general shall number, countersign or deliver, or knowingly permit to be numbered, countersigned or delivered to said bank, or to any of its officers, or to any other person, said bills or notes to an amount in the aggregate beyond the amount of mortgaged securities deposited as aforesaid, such auditor general, president, cashier or other person so violating the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be fined not less than one thousand, nor more than ten thousand dollars, and undergo an imprisonment in the penitentiary of the proper district for a period not less than three years, nor more than ten years: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit said bank or its officers from loaning, passing and circulating the notes of other banks, in the same manner as other banks incorporated by the laws of this commonwealth may lawfully do.

Violating this section deemed a misdemeanor.

Proviso.

Specie funds, relative to.

SECTION 13. That no officer or director of said bank shall at any time permit the specie or specie funds on hand to be reduced below twenty-five per cent. of the aggregate amount of notes in circulation; and should specie or specie funds at any time be so reduced, it shall not be lawful for said bank to discount any paper until said specie or specie funds be made to exceed said twenty-five per cent.; and any president, cashier or director who shall allow or knowingly permit any discounts to be made in violation of the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be fined not less than one hundred, nor more than five hundred dollars, and undergo an imprisonment in the penitentiary of the proper district for a term not less than one month, nor more than one year: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the renewing of paper that has been discounted, or the discounting bills of exchange at short dates.

Violation of this section, relative to.

Proviso.

Statement of cashier, &c.

SECTION 14. That the said directors to meet on the Tuesday of each week, and as much oftener as they think necessary, for the purpose of discounting or other business, at which time the cashier shall make a full statement of the situation of the bank, in a book to be kept for that purpose, when a majority of the directors shall be a quorum for discounting; but if a majority of said directors should not attend on the days appointed, then, and in that case, any two of them shall have the privilege of discounting.

SECTION 15. That said bank shall make the same statements and returns, to be verified and published in the same manner as are required of the other banks of this commonwealth, not located in the cities of Philadelphia, Pittsburg or Allegheny; and the said directors, or a majority of them, shall examine one of the statements every three months, and certify under their hands that it is correct, to the best of their knowledge and belief.

Statement for publication.

SECTION 16. That it shall be the duty of the auditor general, whenever requested by said bank, to receive all defaced and mutilated bills or notes, and to deliver in lieu thereof other circulating notes, duly numbered, registered and countersigned as aforesaid, to the same amount; and said auditor general, on receipt of any bills or notes under any of the provisions of this act, shall forthwith make out complete lists of the same, containing the numbers, dates and amounts of all said bills or notes respectively, and without delay cause said lists to be recorded in his office, in the book or books for recording the aforesaid mortgages, and as soon thereafter as practicable shall burn and destroy all notes received as aforesaid, in the presence of the state treasurer and cashier or president of said bank.

SECTION 17. That on the death of any party who shall have given and deposited mortgage securities as aforesaid, or whenever any person, having so given and deposited the same, shall desire to withdraw his or her or their means from said bank, and to have their said mortgage securities cancelled, and the lands and tenements bound thereby released, it shall be lawful for such stockholder, if living, or for the heirs or devisees of such as may be dead, to apply to the auditor general by petition, briefly setting forth the facts, and praying that the said securities may be cancelled; whereupon the said auditor general shall forthwith issue a citation, directed to the said bank, and cause the same to be served, by copy, on the president or cashier thereof, requiring said bank, within six months after said service, to substitute other mortgage securities, under the provisions of the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh sections of this act, for the same amount as that proposed to be cancelled, or within said six months to deliver up to said auditor general, to be destroyed, an amount of the circulating notes of said bank equal to the amount of said mortgage securities so proposed to be cancelled; and on compliance of bank with either of said provisions, the auditor general shall issue an order, under his hand and seal of office, directed to the recorder of deeds in whose office such mortgage or mortgages may be recorded, authorizing said recorder to enter satisfaction on such mortgage or mortgages; and said recorder shall also, at the same time, record the authority on which said satisfaction may be entered, after which date the said stockholder is discharged from all liability, unless he holds other stock in the bank: Provided, That no mortgage securities shall be cancelled or marked satisfied as aforesaid, unless the stockholder asking for the same shall have first discharged all his or her indebtedness to said bank, and paid off all costs that may occur by entering said satisfaction, and getting other mortgages in lieu thereof.

Settling up the affairs of the bank, redeeming circulation, &c.

SECTION 18. That on settling up of the said bank, either at the expiration of the charter or by consent of the partners, or by failure of the bank, the persons authorized to settle it, after giving notice in one paper published in the county, one in Harrisburg, and one in Philadelphia, to be published six months, giving notice that they are ready to redeem all the notes in circulation, and requesting the holders of them to present them; and at the expiration of two years from the date of the notice, on proof of the notice being published, and all the notes that were presented at the counter was paid, the auditor general is authorized to issue power of attorney to the register and recorder of the counties in which the mortgaged premises are, to enter satisfaction on all the mortgages held by the commonwealth as security for the redemption of the notes.

Plates, dies, notes, books, &c., to be paid for by bank.

SECTION 19. That the plates, dies and other materials procured by the auditor general for engraving and printing said bills or notes as herein directed, shall remain in the possession of said auditor general for safe keeping, and under his direction and control; and the necessary expense of procuring said plates, dies, books and other materials, and of printing, numbering, registering and countersigning said bills or notes, and the usual fees for recording said mortgages and other papers, shall be paid by the said bank before the said bills or notes shall be delivered by the auditor general as aforesaid.

A SUPPLEMENT

To an act to incorporate the Mount Joy Savings Institution, approved the thirteenth day of May, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

- SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Mount Joy savings institution, located at the borough of Mount Joy, in Lancaster county, shall be called and known by the name, style and title of the Mount Joy Bank, and in addition to its present objects and privileges, shall have and enjoy full banking privileges, and the privilege of issuing bank notes, redeemable in specie, at its counter. All judgments obtained by said corporation, and notes, bonds, drafts, contracts or debts, made and owing to it by its former name, it shall be lawful to enforce, recover and collect, in the name given by this act, and a change in the title of any of its officers or agents shall not prevent such recovery and collection, nor shall such change in its name affect any pending suits wherein it is a party.
- SECTION 2. That the directors of said corporation are hereby authorized to increase the capital stock of the same twenty-five thousand dollars, such new capital stock to be divided into five hundred shares, of the value of fifty dollars each; they may open books for subscription to the same, at such time or times, and in such amounts, at any one time, as to them may seem expedient, giving at least thirty days' public notice, in at least one newspaper published in Lancaster county, of the time and place when such books will be opened. The holders of the present stock shall first be permitted to subscribe for any number of shares, not exceeding, however, one-half, or other proper proportion of the number of shares of old stock held by such stockholder, on the first day books shall be opened for subscription to any certain amount of stock. Should any stockholder neglect or refuse to take his or her quota, for ten days after the books shall have been opened, then any other stockholder may subscribe for such stock not so taken; and after twenty days from the time such books shall have been opened, persons other than stockholders shall be permitted to subscribe for any shares then undisposed of, and for the disposal of which the books shall have been opened. Every subscriber shall pay five dollars, in gold or silver coin of the United States, at the time of subscribing, for each share subscribed for; the remainder of the money, payable thereon, shall be paid wholly or partly in coin, at such times and in such amounts as the directors shall require. The said stock may receive such dividends, and be transferred, subject to the payment of the instalments due, and to become due thereon, as the by-laws shall prescribe,
- Name changed.
- Additional privileges.
- Increase of capital stock.
- Present stockholders first permitted to subscribe.
- When persons other than stockholders may subscribe.
- Dividends on increased stock.

but the holders thereof shall not be entitled to certificates therefor, or votes thereon, until it be fully paid. If any instalment upon any stock shall remain unpaid at the time prescribed for payment, such stock, with all moneys paid thereon, may be forfeited to the bank; but before such forfeiture is made, at least one year's notice shall be given to the person holding the same at the time of such notice.

Unpaid instalments, relative to.

SECTION 3. That after the stock authorized by the preceding section shall have been subscribed for and fully paid in, it shall and may be lawful for the directors of said bank to further increase its capital stock, in such amounts and at such times as may be deemed expedient. The further increase or increases authorized by this section shall not exceed seventy-five thousand dollars in the aggregate, and any such increase shall first be authorized by a majority of at least two-thirds of the stockholders present at any general or special meeting, after at least thirty days' notice published as aforesaid, and given by order of the directors, or any ten stockholders, that a proposition for such increase, and stating the amount thereof, will be voted upon at said meeting; such stock may be forfeited, shall be subscribed for, paid and in all respects disposed of as the stock authorized by the preceding section.

Further increase of capital stock.

SECTION 4. That no person or persons, firm or corporation, who shall be drawer or drawers, endorser or endorsers, upon any note or notes discounted by said bank, or shall be in anywise indebted to it to the amount of ten thousand dollars, shall be suffered to become indebted to it in any greater or further amount in any manner or form whatever. Any wilful violation of this section shall work an absolute forfeiture of the charter of said bank; and any director or other officer knowingly permitting or consenting to any violation hereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in the court of quarter sessions of Lancaster county, shall pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Amount of indebtedness limited.

Relative to violations of this section.

SECTION 5. That said bank shall be invested with all the privileges and immunities of incorporated banks under the general laws of the commonwealth regulating them, and shall be subject to all the provisions and restrictions thereof, so far as the same are not altered and supplied by this act, or the act to which it is a supplement. It may purchase, hold, lease and convey such real estate only as may be necessary to transact its business, not exceeding five thousand dollars in value, and such as may be bought by it at sales on executions issued upon judgments or mortgages, to secure debts due it. It shall pay a bonus into the state treasury of one per centum of the amount of capital stock authorized by the second section of this act, within one year after its passage, and one per centum of the amount of capital stock from time to time created according to the third section hereof, within one year after its creation.

Subject to.

Real estate.

Bonus.

SECTION 6. That this act shall go into effect when a certificate of the acceptance thereof by the directors of said savings institution, under the hands of its president and treasurer, and its corporate seal, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of the commonwealth, who is required to file the same. The present board of directors shall continue in office until the third Mon-

Acceptance of this act, relative to.

Election of directors, when held. day of November next, when the next election shall be held, and until their successors be duly qualified, notice of such election to be given as directed by the general laws of the commonwealth regulating banks. Elections for directors shall be held upon the third Monday of November in every year thereafter, upon like notice. Dividends of so much of the profits as may seem advisable shall be declared by the directors on the first discount days of May and November in each year, and paid to the stockholders at the expiration of ten days thereafter. The next dividend shall be declared on the first discount day of November next. The last three provisoes of the first section, and so much of the fourth and sixth sections of the act to which this is a supplement, as are inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT

To an act, entitled "An Act approved the seventeenth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, authorizing the Board of Canal Commissioners to examine the Claim of Thomas Morley."

WHEREAS, The canal commissioners neglected to examine said claims, and report the same to the state treasurer, as was contemplated in the supplement of said act, consequently the said Morley has not been remunerated for damages:

And whereas, The said canal board has been abolished; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the auditor general, attorney general and state treasurer be and are hereby appointed commissioners to examine, adjust and settle, upon principles of justice and equity, the claim of Thomas Morley against the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in Wyoming county, and it shall be the duty of said auditor general, attorney general and state treasurer, or a majority of them, to proceed to the performance of said duty, having given ten days' notice to the claimant of the time and place of meeting, receiving as evidence, on such examination, such depositions or witnesses as shall be produced before them on behalf of said claimant or the commonwealth; and after such examination or hearing, the said auditor general, attorney general and state treasurer, or a majority thereof, shall make out and award thereon, and deliver the same to the auditor general, who shall draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for such amount, if any, as shall be by said commissioners awarded to said Morley, which shall be paid by the state treasurer, out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated: Provided, That in the opinion of the said commissioners, or a majority thereof, the commonwealth is liable for the same. They shall have all the powers given to referees and arbitrators in the act of sixteenth of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, relating to references and arbitrations.

A SUPPLEMENT

To an act relative to certain parts of the Estate of Elizabeth Powel, deceased.

WHEREAS, By an act of the general assembly of this commonwealth, approved on the second day of February, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, reciting certain pro- Preamble.

visions of the will of Elizabeth Powel, formerly of the city of Philadelphia, deceased, the true date whereof is the twenty-second day of May, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it was enacted that any person who then had, or or thereafter should have or hold, under the said will, an estate, or use for life in an estate, called Powelton, thereby devised, should have power to grant and convey the said estate, and any and every part or parts thereof, in fee, reserving as the entire consideration thereof, a perpetual annual rent or rents, payable half yearly, and redeemable and extinguishable, as therein provided, by the payment of a sum of money, not less than sixteen years and two-thirds of a year's purchase of any such annual rent :

And whereas, Afterwards John Hare Powel, of the said city, being then entitled, under the said will, to an estate or use for life as aforesaid, and acting under and by virtue of the said act of assembly, by articles of agreement, dated the seventh day of July, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and recorded at Philadelphia in deed book G W C, number one hundred and thirteen, page two, did contract to sell unto William C. Patterson, and others, the said estate, called Powelton, which was therein more particularly described, for the price or sum of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to be paid in a ground rent or ground rents to be reserved out of the said estate; and by the third article of the said agreement, it was agreed that the ground rents which might be reserved out of separate parts of the estate, should be charged and apportioned upon several certain sections of the said estate, according to certain rates or valuations in the said article particularly set forth :

And whereas, The said John Hare Powel afterwards, in pursuance of the said articles of agreement, by indenture, dated the second day of May, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and recorded as aforesaid in deed book T H, number eighty-four, page seventy-three, by and with the concurrence, and at the request of the said William C. Patterson, and others, parties of the second part to the said articles, did grant and convey unto the Pennsylvania railroad company, their successors and assigns, a tract of thirty acres of land, in the late district of West Philadelphia, and now city of Philadelphia, part of the said estate, called Powelton, reserving thereout, unto Robert Hare and Hartman Kuhn, the then trustees under the will of the said Elizabeth Powel, and parties of the second part to the said indenture, the yearly rent or sum of eleven thousand dollars, in trust for the uses and purposes set forth and declared in the said will; and by another indenture, likewise bearing date the second day of May, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and recorded as aforesaid in deed book T H, number eighty-four, page eighty-five, he, the said John Hare Powel, did grant and convey to the said William C. Patterson, and others, parties of the second part to the said articles of agreement, the residue of the said estate called Powelton, described therein as containing ninety-three acres, more or less, reserving thereout, to the said then trustees under the said will, the yearly rent or sum of ten thousand dollars, in trust for the uses and purposes aforesaid :

And whereas, At the time of the execution of the said articles of agreement, it was the understanding and intention of the parties thereto that the said William C. Patterson, and others, their heirs and assigns, after three months' previous notice, and upon the payment by them of any sum, not less than five thousand dollars at any one time, on account of the principal of any one of the ground rents to be reserved upon the conveyance of the said estate as aforesaid, should be entitled at any time to have such rent or rents proportionately abated, and a just proportion of such estate exonerated from the lien of the same, according to certain rates then agreed upon ; but it has been doubted whether this understanding and intention have been sufficiently expressed in the said articles of agreement, and carried into effect by the terms of the said two above recited indentures :

And whereas, To confer upon the trustees under the said will the power of releasing parcels of the said estate from the lien of the said ground rents, would facilitate the improvement of the whole of the estate, and thereby increase the value and security of the said rents :

And whereas, The said John Hare Powel being deceased, his son Samuel Power, of the city of Philadelphia, is the person now entitled, under the said will and act of assembly, to an estate, or use for life, in the said two yearly ground rents of eleven thousand dollars, and ten thousand dollars respectively ; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the said Samuel Powel shall have power, at one time, or from time to time, by agreement with any persons or corporations in whom the said tract of land conveyed by the said two several above recited indentures, or any part thereof, is, are or shall be vested, to ascertain and specifically determine, according to the rates or valuation set forth in the third article of the first above recited agreement of the seventh day of July, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, the sums which ought to be paid for the abatement or release of the said rents, with respect to such smaller parcels, sub-divisions or sections of the said estate, called Powelton, as shall be designated and agreed upon : Provided, That not less than the sum of five thousand dollars shall be thereby made payable for the release of any one such parcel, sub-division or section.

Samuel Powel authorized to make agreement relative to releases or abatements.

Proviso.

SECTION 2. That when, and as often as such agreement shall be made as is above provided, it shall be lawful, at any time thereafter, for any person or corporation, being the owner of any such parcel, sub-division or section of the said estate so as aforesaid ascertained and defined, upon three months' previous notice, in writing, of his, her or their intention so to do, to tender and pay to the trustees or trustee, for the time being, under the will of the said Elizabeth Powel, such sum or sums, not being less than five thousand dollars, as shall have been so agreed to be made payable in abatement of the ground rent or ground rents aforesaid with respect to the particular parcel, sub-division or section, the same being always estimated in silver money of the weight and standard particularly specified in the said two indentures, together with the proportionate arrears of ground rent then due or accrued with respect thereto; whereupon, it shall be the duty of the said trustees or trustee, for the time being, and they or he are or is hereby authorized, in due form of law, and at the proper costs and charges of the person or corporation so paying such sum or sums, to release and exonerate the said parcel, section or sub-division from the lien of either or both of the said yearly rents, as the case may be, and to abate and proportionately reduce the particular rent or rents, and the principal or extinguishment moneys thereafter to be paid in respect thereto; whereupon, and so often as this shall be done, the covenants, conditions and provisions set forth and contained in that one or both of the said above recited indentures, by which the particular rent or rents so abated or reduced was or were reserved, shall thenceforth, for all purposes of remedy, action or otherwise, be held and construed to extend and apply to such abated rent or rents, and principal or extinguishment moneys, and to the remainder of the said tract or tracts of land other than the parts so released as aforesaid, as though the same had been originally, and by proper terms therein and thereby mentioned, reserved, expressed and described: Provided, That all sums to be received by the said trustees or trustee, for the time being, in pursuance of this act, not being arrears of ground rent, shall be invested in the debt of the United States, or of this state, or of the city of Philadelphia, or in real securities or ground rents, in the manner, and under the authority prescribed by the act of assembly to which the act is a supplement, in respect to the extinguishment moneys of the said ground rents, and in like manner, without liability on the part of the party paying the same, to see to the investment and application thereof.

SECTION 11. If any person shall unlawfully dissuade, hinder or prevent, or attempt to dissuade, hinder or prevent any witness from attending and testifying, who may have been required to attend and testify either before any committee of the legislature of this state, or before any civil or criminal court, judge, justice or other judicial tribunal thereof, by virtue of any writ of subpoena or other legal process, or who may have been recognized to attend as a witness on behalf of the commonwealth or of any defendant, before any court having jurisdiction, to testify in any case depending or about to be tried in such court, any person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and being thereof convicted, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and undergo an imprisonment not exceeding one year. Dissuading a witness from testifying.

SECTION 12. If any justice, clerk, prothonotary, sheriff, coroner, constable or other officer of this commonwealth, shall wilfully and fraudulently receive or take any reward or fee to execute and do his duty and office, but such as is or shall be allowed by some act of assembly of this commonwealth, or shall receive or take, by color of his office, any fee or reward whatever, not, or more than is allowed as aforesaid, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and on conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding one year. Extortion in taking illegal fees.

SECTION 13. If any person shall attempt to corrupt or influence any juror in a criminal or civil court, or any arbitrator appointed according to law, by endeavoring, either in conversation or by written communication, or by persuasion, promises or entreaties, or by any other private means to bias the mind or judgment of such juror or arbitrator, as to any cause pending in the court to which such juror has been summoned, or in Embracery.

which such arbitrator has been appointed or chosen, except by the strength of evidence or the arguments of himself or his counsel during the trial or hearing of the case, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or suffer an imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, or either, at the discretion of the court.

Perjury and subornation thereof

SECTION 14. If any person shall wilfully and corruptly commit wilful and corrupt perjury, or shall by any means procure or suborn any person to commit wilful and corrupt perjury, on his or her oath or affirmation, legally administered either before any committee of the legislature of this commonwealth, or in any judicial proceeding, matter or cause which may be depending in any of the courts thereof, or before any judge, justice, mayor, recorder, alderman or other magistrate, or before any arbitrator, prothonotary, clerk, notary public, commissioner or auditor, appointed by any court of this commonwealth, or in any deposition taken pursuant to the laws of this commonwealth, or the rules, orders and directions of any court, arbitrator or judge thereof, or preparatory and for the purpose of obtaining any rule or order of court, or of a judge or arbitrator, or if any person in taking any other oath or affirmation required, or that may hereafter be required by any act of assembly of this commonwealth, shall be guilty of wilfully and corruptly making a false oath or affirmation; or if any person shall procure or suborn any other person to make any such false oath or affirmation, every person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, by separate or solitary confinement at labor, not exceeding seven years, and shall be forever disqualified from being a witness in any matter in controversy.

Making false entries and destroying or abstracting public records.

SECTION 15. If any prothonotary, clerk, register, public officer or other person, shall fraudulently make a false entry in, or erase, alter, secrete, carry away or destroy any public record, or any part thereof, of any court or public office of this commonwealth, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, by separate or solitary confinement at labor, not exceeding two years.

False personation.

SECTION 16. If any person shall fraudulently and corruptly acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged, any deed, or any writing authorized to be acknowledged, or any recognizance or judgment, in the name of any other person not privy thereto, or consenting to the same, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and undergo an imprisonment, by separate or solitary confinement at labor, not exceeding seven years.

Misdemeanors of district attorney.

SECTION 17. If any district attorney shall wilfully and corruptly demand, take or receive any other fee or reward, than such as is prescribed by law, for any official duties required by law to be executed by him in any criminal proceeding; or if such district attorney shall be guilty of wilful and gross negligence in the execution of the duties of his office, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and on conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding one year, and his said office shall be declared vacant. Upon complaint in writing, verified by the oath or affirmation of the party aggrieved, made to the court in which any district attorney shall prosecute the pleas of the commonwealth, charging such district attorney with wilful and gross negligence in the execution of the duties of his office, the said court shall cause notice of such complaint to be given to the said district attorney, and of the time fixed by the said court for the hearing of the same. If, upon such hearing, the court shall be of opinion that there is probable cause for the said complaint, they shall bind over or commit the said district attorney to answer the same in due course of law. If the court shall be of opinion that there is no probable cause for such complaint, they shall dismiss the same with reasonable costs, to be assessed by the court.

SECTION 18. If any district attorney shall be charged according to law, with any crime or misdemeanor, before, or bound over, or committed by any court, to answer for wilful and gross negligence in the execution of the duties of his office, it shall be the duty of the court to appoint some competent attorney thereof, to prepare an indictment against such district attorney, and to prosecute the same on behalf of the commonwealth, until final judgment, to whom a reasonable compensation, to be fixed by the court, shall be paid for his services, out of the county treasury; if such district attorney shall be convicted of any crime, for which he may be sentenced to imprisonment, by separate or solitary confinement at labor, in addition thereto, his said office shall be declared vacant by the court passing such sentence.

Seizure of implements to prove the charge.

SECTION 59. If an affidavit be made and filed before any magistrate, before whom complaint has been made of the commission of either of the crimes provided against in the three preceding sections, setting forth that the affiant has reason to believe, and does believe, that the person charged in such complaint has upon his person, or at any other place named in said affidavit, any gaming table, device or apparatus, the discovery of which might lead to establish the truth of such charge, the said magistrate shall, by his warrant, command the officer who is authorized to arrest the person so charged, to make diligent search for such table, device or apparatus, and if found, to bring the same before such magistrate; and the officer so seizing, shall deliver the same to the magistrate before whom he takes the prisoner, who shall retain possession, and be responsible therefor until the discharge, commitment or letting to bail of the person so charged; after which such officer shall retain such table, device or apparatus, subject to the order of the court before which such offender may be required to appear, until his discharge or conviction; and in case of the conviction of such person, the gaming table, device or apparatus shall, by the direction of the court, be destroyed.

General authority to seize gambling instruments.

SECTION 60. It shall and may be lawful for any sheriff, constable or other officer of justice, with or without warrant, to seize upon, secure and remove any device or machine of any kind, character or description whatsoever, used and employed for the purposes of unlawful gaming as aforesaid, and to arrest, with or without warrant, any person setting up the same. And it shall be the duty of such sheriff, constable or other officer, to make return, in writing, to the next court of quarter sessions of the proper county, setting forth the nature and description of the device or machine so seized upon, and the time, place and circumstances under which such seizure was made; and the said court, upon hearing the parties, if they should appear, if satisfied that such device or machine was employed and used for the purpose of unlawful gaming as aforesaid, shall adjudge the same forfeited, and order it to be publicly destroyed, and at the same time order such reasonable costs and charges to the seizing officer as they shall deem adequate and just, to be paid by the owner or possessor of such device or machine, or in case of his default, or in case he cannot be found, to be paid as costs are now by law paid upon indictments; and such adjudication shall be conclusive evidence to establish the legality of such seizure, in any court of this commonwealth, in any cause in which the question of its legality shall arise; and in any case in which a decree of forfeiture shall not be pronounced, if said court shall, upon the evidence, be satisfied that there was probable cause for the seizure, they shall certify the same, which certificate shall be a bar to any action brought against the officer for or on account of such seizure, in those cases in which the said officer returns, or offers to return such device or machine; and in all cases shall prevent a recovery in damages, for any sum beyond the real value of the device or machine seized.

SECTION 61. No writ of replevin shall issue for any device or machine, seized as aforesaid, nor shall any action be instituted for or on account of such seizure, until the court shall have first adjudicated upon the premises; but such writ or action shall forthwith, on motion, be quashed and abated by the court in which it shall be sued or brought.

No writ of replevin to issue therefor.

SECTION 62. If any officer of this commonwealth, or of any city, borough, county or township thereof, shall loan out, with or without interest, or return therefor, any money or valuable security received by him, or which may be in his possession, or under his control by virtue of his office, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and on conviction be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and undergo an imprisonment, by separate or solitary confinement at labor, not exceeding five years, and if still in office, be adjudged thereafter incapable of exercising the same, and the said office shall be forthwith declared vacant by the court passing the sentence.

Kidnapping.

SECTION 95. If any person or persons shall, by force or violence, take and carry away, or cause to be taken or carried away, or shall, by fraud or false pretence, entice or cause to be enticed, or shall attempt so to take, carry away or entice, any free negro or mulatto from any part of this commonwealth, to any other place whatsoever out of this commonwealth, with a design and intention of selling and disposing of, or of causing to be sold, or of keeping and detaining, or of causing to be kept and detained, such free negro or mulatto, as a slave or servant for life, or for any term whatsoever, every such person or persons shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, one-half whereof shall be paid to the person or persons who shall prosecute for the same, and the other half to this commonwealth, and to undergo an imprisonment, by separate or solitary confinement at labor, not exceeding twelve years. If any person or persons shall hereafter knowing sell, transfer or assign, or shall knowingly purchase, take a transfer or assignment of any free negro or mulatto, for the purpose of fraudulently removing, exporting or carrying such free negro or mulatto out of this state, with the design or intent, by fraud or false pretences, of making him or her a slave or servant for life, or for any term whatsoever, every person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, one-half whereof shall be paid to the person or persons who shall prosecute for the same, and the other half to this commonwealth, and at the discretion of the court, to undergo an imprisonment, by separate or solitary confinement at labor, not exceeding twelve years. No judge of any of the courts of this commonwealth, nor any alderman or justice of the peace of said commonwealth, shall have jurisdiction or take cognizance of the case of any fugitive from labor, from any of the United States or territories, under any act of congress; nor shall any such judge, alderman or justice of the peace of this commonwealth, issue or grant any certificate or warrant of removal of any such fugitive from labor, under any act of congress; and if any alderman or justice of the peace of this commonwealth shall take cognizance or jurisdiction of the case of any such fugitive, or shall grant or issue any certificate or warrant of removal as aforesaid, then, and in either case, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and shall, on conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay, at the discretion of the court, any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, the one-half to the party prosecuting for the same, and the other half to the use of this commonwealth. If any person or persons claiming any negro or mulatto, as a fugitive from servitude or labor, shall, under any pretence of authority whatsoever, violently and tumultuously seize upon and carry away to any place, or attempt to seize and carry away in a riotous, violent, tumultuous and unreasonable manner, and so as to disturb or endanger the public peace, any negro or mulatto, within this commonwealth, either with or without the intention of taking such negro or mulatto before any district or circuit judge, the person or persons so offending against the peace of this commonwealth shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and further, to be imprisoned in the county jail, for any period at the discretion of the court, not exceeding three months.

SECTION 96. All sales that shall hereafter be made within this state, of any fugitive from service or labor, who at the time of such sale shall be within the limits of this state, shall be utterly null and void; and if any person, under color or pretence of any such sale or sales, shall seize, arrest, or by intimidation, seduction or fraud, shall remove or cause to be removed from this state, any such fugitive thus sold, or attempted to be sold, the person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars, one-half thereof to the use of this commonwealth, and the other half to the use of the party suing for the same.

Sale of fugitive slaves to be void.

SECTION 97. Any person who shall be convicted of an assault and battery, or of an assault, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and undergo an imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, or either, at the discretion of the court.

Assault and battery.

SECTION 98. If any person shall unlawfully and maliciously inflict upon another person, either with or without any weapon or instrument, any grievous bodily harm, or unlawfully cut, stab or wound any other person, every such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and to an imprisonment, either at labor by separate or solitary confinement, or to simple imprisonment, not exceeding three years.

Aggravated assault.

SECTION 99. If upon the trial of any indictment for felony, except murder or manslaughter, the indictment shall allege that the defendant did cut, stab or wound any person, and the jury shall be satisfied that the defendant is guilty of the cutting, stabbing or wounding charged in such indictment, but are not satisfied of his guilt of the felony charged in such indictment, then, and in every such case, the jury may acquit the defendant of such felony, and find him guilty of a misdemeanor, in unlawful cutting, stabbing and wounding; and thereupon such

TITLE X. General Provisions.

SECTION 177. No crime whatsoever, hereafter committed, except murder of the first degree, shall be punished with death in the state of Pennsylvania.

Capital punishment.

SECTION 178. Every felony, misdemeanor or offence whatever, not specially provided for by this act, may and shall be punished as heretofore.

Crimes not provided for, how punished.

SECTION 179. On all convictions for robbery, burglary or larceny of any goods, chattels or other property, made the subject of larceny by the laws of this commonwealth, or for otherwise unlawfully and fraudulently taking or obtaining the same, or of receiving such goods, chattels or other property, knowing the same to be stolen, the defendant shall, in addition to the punishment heretofore prescribed for such offences, be adjudged to restore to the owner the property taken, or to pay the value of the same, or so much thereof as may not be restored. And on all convictions on any indictment for forgery, for uttering, publishing or passing any forged or counterfeit coin, bank notes, check or writing, or any indictment for fraudulently, by means of false tokens or pretences, or otherwise cheating and defrauding another of his goods, chattels or other property, the defendant, in addition to the punishment hereinbefore prescribed for such offences, shall be adjudged to make similar restitution, or other compensation, as in case of larceny, to the person de-

Restitution to be awarded in certain cases, and party aggrieved to be a witness frauded: Provided, That nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent the party aggrieved, and to whom restitution is to be awarded, from being a competent witness on the trial of the offender.

Accessories.

SECTION 180. Every principal in the second degree, or accessory before the fact, to any felony punishable under this act, for whom no punishment has been hereinbefore provided, shall be punishable in the same manner as the principal in the first degree is by this act punishable. Every accessory after the fact to any felony, punishable under this act, for whom no punishment has been hereinbefore provided, shall, on conviction, be sentenced to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, with or without labor, at the discretion of the court, not exceeding two years. And every person who shall counsel, aid or abet the commission of any misdemeanor, punishable under this act, for whom no punishment has been hereinbefore provided, shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished as the principal offender.

Sentence fulfilled, to effect a pardon.

SECTION 181. Where any person hath been, or shall be convicted of any felony, not punishable with death, or any misdemeanor punishable with imprisonment at labor, and hath endured, or shall endure the punishment to which such offender hath been or shall be adjudged for the same, the punishment so endured shall have the like effects and consequences as a pardon by the governor, as to the felony or misdemeanor whereof such person was so convicted: Provided, That nothing herein contained, nor the enduring of such punishment, shall prevent or mitigate any punishment which the offender might otherwise be lawfully sentenced on a subsequent conviction for any other felony or misdemeanor, and that the provisions of this section shall not extend to the case of a party convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Second conviction after punishment of similar offences.

SECTION 182. If any person who has been convicted of any offence, other than murder of the second degree, for which the punishment prescribed by this code is imprisonment by separate or solitary confinement at labor, shall, after such conviction, be guilty of a similar offence, or of any offence for which such punishment is directed, he shall in either case, upon conviction, be sentenced to undergo an imprisonment, and be kept at labor not exceeding double the whole period of time which may, by the penal laws of this commonwealth, be prescribed for the crime of which he is convicted.

Acts of assembly to be strictly pursued.

SECTION 183. In all cases where a remedy is provided, or duty enjoined, or anything directed to be done by any act or acts of assembly of this commonwealth, the directions of the said acts shall be strictly pursued; and no penalty shall be inflicted, or anything done agreeably to the provisions of the common law in such cases, further than shall be necessary for carrying such act or acts into effect.

Explanatory of general terms.

SECTION 184. That wherever anything is forbidden or directed by the provisions of this code, by using the general terms, any one, any person, the person, every person and such person, or the relative pronoun he, referring to such general term, the same prohibition or direction, if the contrary be not expressed, is extended to more persons than one, and to females as well as males doing or omitting the same act.

TITLE I. Of proceedings to detect the Commission of Crimes.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the judges of the supreme court, of the court of oyer and terminer and jail delivery, of the courts of quarter sessions, or any of them, shall and may direct their writs and precepts to the sheriffs and coroners of the several counties within this commonwealth, when need shall be, to take persons indicted for felonies, or other offences, before them, who may dwell, remove, or be received into another county; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the said judges, or any of them, to issue subpœnas into any county of the commonwealth, for summoning and bringing any person to give evidence in any matter or cause before them, or any of them, and to compel obedience to such writs, precepts, or subpœnas, by attachment or otherwise, and under such pains and penalties as other writs or subpœnas are or ought by law to be granted and awarded; and that it shall be lawful for said judges, or any of them, if they see fit to direct such writ, precept, summons, subpœna or attachments, to be executed by the sheriff of the county in which the same is awarded, which said writ, precept, summons or subpœna, shall be the sufficient warrant of such sheriff for executing the same throughout this commonwealth, as fully and effectually as if directed to, and executed by the sheriff of the proper county where issued: Provided, That the reasonable ex- Proviso. penses of executing such process, when issued on behalf of the commonwealth, shall be paid out of the funds of the county where issued, and the expenses of removing any person charged with having committed an offence in one county into another county, or of transporting any person charged with having committed any offence in this state from another state into this state for trial, or for conveying any person, after conviction, to the penitentiary, shall be paid out of the treasury of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed.

SECTION 2. Where any person charged with having committed any felony, in any city or county of this commonwealth, shall go or escape into any other county thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the president, or any judge of the court of common pleas in the county where the said person may be found, to issue his warrant, authorizing and requiring the sheriff of the said county to take the said person and conduct him to the proper county, where the said felony is alleged to have been committed, the expenses of which shall be paid to the said sheriff by the county to which the said person is conducted. Escapes into another county.

SECTION 3. That in case any person against whom a warrant may be issued by any judge or alderman of any city, or justice of the peace of any county in this commonwealth, for any offence there committed, shall escape, go into, reside, or be in any other city or county out of the jurisdiction of the judge, alderman, justice or justices of the city or county granting such warrant as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for, and it is hereby declared to be the duty of any alderman, justice or justices of the city or county where such person shall escape, go into, reside, or be, upon proof being made, upon oath or affirmation, of the hand writing of the judge, alderman, justice or justices granting such warrant, to endorse his or their name or names on such warrant, which shall be sufficient authority to the person or persons bringing such warrant, and to all Backing warrants.

other persons to whom such warrant was originally directed, to execute the same in such other city or county, out of the jurisdiction of the alderman, justice or justices, granting such warrant as aforesaid, and to apprehend and carry such offender before the alderman, justice or justices who indorsed such warrant, or some other alderman, justice or justices of such other city and county where such warrant was indorsed; and in case the offence for which such offender shall be so apprehended, shall be bailable in law by an alderman or justice of the peace, and such offender shall be willing and ready to give bail for his appearance at the next court of general jail delivery or quarter sessions, to be held in and for the city and county where the offence was committed, such alderman, justice or justices shall and may take such bail for his appearance, in the same manner as the alderman or justice of the peace of the proper city or county might have done; and the said alderman, justice or justices of the peace of such other city or county so taking bail, shall deliver or transmit such recognizance and other proceeding to the clerk of the court of general jail delivery or quarter sessions, where such offender is required to appear by virtue of such recognizance, and such recognizance and other proceedings shall be as good and effectual in law as if the same had been entered into, taken or acknowledged in the proper county where the offence was committed, and the same proceedings shall be had therein; and in case the offence for which such offender shall be apprehended in any other city or county, shall not be bailable in law by an alderman or justice of the peace, or such offender shall not give bail for his appearance at the proper court having cognizance of his crime, to the satisfaction of the alderman or justice before whom he shall be brought, then the constable or other person so apprehending such offender, shall carry and convey him before one of the aldermen or justices of the peace of the proper city or county where such offence was committed, there to be dealt with according to law.

magistrate backing such warrants.

SECTION 4. That no action of trespass, or false imprisonment, or information, or indictment, shall be brought, sued, commenced, exhibited or prosecuted by any person, against the alderman, justice or justices, who shall indorse such warrant, for or by reason of his or their indorsing the same, but such person shall be at liberty to bring or prosecute his or their action or suit against the alderman or justice who originally granted the warrant.

Property supposed to be stolen found in the possession of one accused.

SECTION 5. That when any person shall be accused before a magistrate, upon oath or affirmation, of the crime of burglary, robbery or larceny, and the said magistrate shall have issued his warrant to apprehend such person or persons, or to search for such goods as have been described, on oath or affirmation, to have been stolen goods, if any shall be found in the custody or possession of such person or persons, or in the custody or possession of any other person or persons, for his, her or their use, and there is probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, to suspect that other goods, which may be discovered on such search, are stolen, it shall and may be lawful for the said magistrate to direct the said goods to be seized, and to secure the same in his own custody, unless the person in whose possession the same were found shall give sufficient surety to produce the same at the time of his or her trial; and the said magistrate shall forthwith cause an inventory to be taken of the said goods, and shall file the same with the clerk of that court in which the accused person is intended to be prosecuted, and shall give public notice in the newspapers, or otherwise by advertising the same in three or more public places in the city or county where the offence is charged to have been committed, before the time of trial, noting in such advertisement the said inventory, the person charged and time of trial; and if, on such trial, the accused party shall be acquitted, and no other claimant shall appear or suit be commenced, then, at the expiration of three months, such goods shall be delivered to the party accused, and he, she or they shall be discharged, and the county be liable to the costs of prosecution; but if he be convicted of larceny only, and, after restitution made to the owner and the sentence of the court being fully complied with, shall claim a right in the residue of the said goods, and no other shall appear or claim the said goods, or any part of them, then it shall be lawful, notwithstanding the claim of the said party accused, to detain such goods for the term of nine months, to the end that all persons having any claim thereto may have full opportunity to come, and to the satisfaction of the court, prove their property in them; on which proof the said owner or owners, respectively, shall receive the said goods, or the value thereof, if from their perishable nature it shall have been found necessary to make sale thereof, upon paying the reasonable charges incurred by the securing the said goods and establishing their property in the same; but if no such claim shall be brought and duly supported, then the person so convicted shall be entitled to the remainder of the said goods, or the value thereof, in case the same shall have been sold agreeably to the original inventory; but if, upon an attainder of burglary or robbery, the court shall, after due inquiry, be of opinion that the said goods were not the property of such burglar or robber, they shall be delivered, together with a certified copy of the said inventory, to the commissioners of the county, who shall indorse a receipt therefor on the original inventory, register the said inventory in a book, and also cause the same to be publicly advertised, giving notice to all persons claiming the said goods to prove their property therein to the said commissioners; and unless such proof shall be made within three months from the date of such advertisement, the said goods shall be publicly sold, and the net moneys arising from such sale shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of the commonwealth: Provided always, That if any claimant shall appear within one year, and prove his or her property in the said goods to the satisfaction of the commissioners, or in the case of dispute, shall obtain the verdict of a jury in favor of such claim, the said claimant shall be entitled to recover, and receive from the said commissioners, or treasurer, the net amount of the moneys paid as aforesaid into the hands of the said commissioners, or by them paid into the treasury of this commonwealth. Proviso.

peace.

SECTION 6. If any person shall threaten the person of another to wound, kill or destroy him, or do him any harm in person or estate, and the person threatened shall appear before a justice of the peace, and attest, on oath or affirmation, that he believes that by such threatening he is in danger of being hurt in body or estate, such person so threatening as aforesaid, shall be bound over, with one sufficient surety, to appear at the next sessions, according to law, and in the meantime to be of his good behaviour, and keep the peace towards all citizens of this commonwealth. If any person, not being an officer on duty in the military or naval service of the state or of the United States, shall go armed with a dirk, dagger, sword or pistol, or other offensive or dangerous weapon, without reasonable cause to fear an assault or other injury or violence to his family, person or property, he may, on complaint of any person having reasonable cause to fear a breach of the peace therefrom, be required to find surety of the peace as aforesaid.

Bail.

SECTION 7. In all cases the party accused, on oath or affirmation, of any crime or misdemeanor against the laws, shall be admitted to bail by one or more sufficient sureties, to be taken before any judge, justice, mayor, recorder or alderman where the offence charged has been committed, except such persons as are precluded from being bailed by the constitution of this commonwealth: Provided also, That persons accused, as aforesaid, of murder or manslaughter, shall only be admitted to bail by the supreme court or one of the judges thereof, or a president or associate law judge of a court of common pleas. Persons accused, as aforesaid, of arson, rape, mayhem, sodomy, buggery, robbery or burglary, shall only be bailable by the supreme court, the court of common pleas, or any of the judges thereof, or a mayor or recorder of a city.

Surrender of bail

SECTION 8. All sureties, mainpernors, and bail in criminal cases, whether bound in recognizance for a particular matter or for all charges whatsoever, shall be entitled to have a bail piece, duly certified by the proper officer or person before whom or in whose office the recognizance of such surety, mainpernors or bail shall be or remain, and upon such bail piece, by themselves, or their agents, to arrest and detain, and surrender their principals, with the like effect as in cases of bail in civil actions; and such bail piece shall be a sufficient warrant or authority for the proper sheriff or jailor to receive the said principal, and have him forthcoming to answer the matter or matters alleged against him: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prevent the person thus arrested and detained from giving new bail or sureties for his appearance, who shall have the same right of surrender hereinbefore provided.

Proviso.

Settlement of cases.

SECTION 9. In all cases where a person shall, on the complaint of another, be bound by recognizance to appear, or shall, for want of security, be committed, or shall be indicted for an assault and battery or other misdemeanor, to the injury and damage of the party complaining, and not charged to have been done with intent to commit a felony, or not being an infamous crime, and for which there shall also be a remedy, by action, if the party complaining shall appear before the magistrate who may have taken recognizance or made the commitment, or before the court in which the indictment shall be, and acknowledge to have received satisfaction for such injury and damage, it shall be lawful for the magistrate, in his discretion, to discharge the recognizance which may have been taken for the appearance of the defendant, or in case of committal, to discharge the prisoner, or for the court also where such proceeding has been returned to the court, in their discretion, to order a nolle prosequi to be entered on the indictment, as the case may require, upon payment of costs: Provided, That this act shall not extend to any assault and battery, or other misdemeanor, committed by or on any officer or minister of justice. Proviso.

TITLE II. Of Indictments and Pleadings.

SECTION 10. The foreman of any grand jury, or any member thereof, is hereby authorized and empowered to administer the requisite oaths or affirmations to any witness whose name may be marked by the district attorney on the bill of indictment. Grand jurors may administer oaths.

SECTION 11. Every indictment shall be deemed and adjudged sufficient and good in law which charges the crime substantially in the language of the act of the assembly prohibiting the crime, and prescribing the punishment, if any such there be, or if at common law, so plainly that the nature of the offence charged may be easily understood by the jury. Every objection to any indictment for any formal defect, apparent on the face thereof, shall be taken by demurrer, or on motion to quash such indictment, before the jury shall be sworn, and not afterward; and every court, before whom any such objection shall be taken for any formal defect, may, if it be thought necessary, cause the indictment to be forthwith amended in such particular, by the clerk or other officer of the court, and thereupon the trial shall proceed as if no such defect appeared. Objections to indictment to be made before the jury is sworn.

SECTION 12. It shall be lawful for any court of criminal jurisdiction, if such court shall see fit so to do, to cause the indictment for any offence whatever, when any variance or variances shall appear between any matter in writing or in print, produced in evidence, and the recital or setting forth thereof in the indictment whereon the trial is pending, to be forthwith amended in such particular or particulars, by some officer of the court, and after such amendment the trial shall proceed in the same manner, in all respects, as if no such variance or variances had appeared. Indictments may be amended.

SECTION 13. If, on the trial of any indictment for felony or misdemeanor, there shall appear to be any variance between the statement of such indictment and the evidence offered in proof thereof, in the name of any place mentioned or described in any such indictment, or in the name or description of any person or persons or body politic or corporation therein stated, or alleged to be the owner or owners of any property, real or personal, which shall form the subject of any offence charged therein, or the name or description of any person or persons, body politic or corporate therein stated or alleged to be injured or damaged, or intended to be injured or damaged, by the commission of such offence, or in the christian name or surname, or both christian and surname, or other description whatsoever of any person or Immaterial variances between indictment and proof amendable.

persons whomsoever therein named or described, or in the name or description of any matter or thing whatsoever therein named or described, or in the ownership of any property named or described therein, it shall and may be lawful for the court before whom the trial shall be had, if it shall consider such variance not material to the merits of the case, and that the defendant cannot be prejudiced thereby in his defence upon such merits, to order such indictment to be amended, according to the proof, by some officer of the court, both in that part of the indictment wherein said variance occurs, and in every other part of the indictment in which it may become necessary to amend; and after such amendment, the trial shall proceed in the same manner, in all respects, and with the same consequences, as if no variance had occurred. And every verdict and judgment which shall be given after making such amendment, shall be of the same force and effect, in all respects, as if the indictment had originally been in the same form in which it was after such amendment was made.

Manner of laying the ownership of property of joint owners.

SECTION 14. That in order to remove the difficulty of describing the ownership of property, in the case of partners and joint owners, in any indictment for any felony or misdemeanor committed on or with respect to any money, chattels, bond, bill, note or other valuable security or effects belonging to or in the possession of any partners or joint owners, it shall be sufficient to aver that the particular subject matter on which, or with respect to which, any such offence shall have been committed, to be the property of some one or more of the partners or joint owners named in the indictment, and of other persons being partners or joint owners with him or them, without stating any of the names of such other persons; and that in any indictment for any felony or misdemeanor, committed on or with respect to any house or building whatsoever, belonging to or in the possession of any partners or joint owners; or for any felony or misdemeanor committed on or with respect to any property being in any such house or building, it shall be sufficient to aver that the particular house or building on or with respect to which, or on or with respect to the property being in which any such offence shall have been committed, is the property of some one or more of the partners or joint owners named in the indictment, and of other persons being partners or joint owners with him or them, without stating any of the names of such other persons.

Manner of charging frauds against joint owners.

SECTION 15. With regard to frauds committed against partners and joint owners, it shall be sufficient in any indictment for any felony or misdemeanor committed with intent to defraud any partners or joint owners, to allege that the act was committed with intent to defraud any one or more of the partners or joint owners named in the indictment, and other persons being partners or joint owners with him or them, without stating any of the names of such other persons.

Manner of laying property of counties, cities and townships.

SECTION 16. With respect to property belonging to counties, cities, townships and districts, it shall be sufficient in any indictment for any felony or misdemeanor committed on or with respect to any goods, chattels, furniture, provisions, clothes, tools, utensils, materials or things whatsoever, which have been, or at any time shall be, provided for or at the expense of any county, city, township or district, to be used in any court, jail, house of correction, alms-house, or other building or place, or in any part thereof respectively, or to be used for the making, altering or repairing of any bridge or road, to aver that any such things are the property of such county, city, township or district.

SECTION 17. In any indictment for forgery, uttering, stealing, embezzling, destroying or concealing, or obtaining by false pretences, any instrument, it shall be sufficient to describe such instrument by any name or designation by which the same may be usually known, or by the purport thereof, without setting out any copy or fac-simile thereof, or otherwise describing the same or the value thereof.

Forms of indictment in cases of forging, stealing, &c.

SECTION 18. In all other cases whatsoever in which it shall be necessary to make any averment in any indictment, as to any instrument, whether the same consists wholly or in part of writing, print or figures, it shall be sufficient to describe such instrument by any name or designation by which the same may be usually known, or by the purport thereof, and in such manner as to sufficiently identify such instrument, without setting out any copy or fac-simile of the whole or any part thereof.

Forms in other cases.

SECTION 19. It shall be sufficient in any indictment for forging, uttering, offering, disposing of, or putting off any instrument whatsoever, or for obtaining or attempting to obtain any property by false pretences, to allege that the defendant did the act, with intent to defraud, without alleging the intent of the defendant to be to defraud any particular person; and on the trial of any of the offences in this section mentioned, it shall not be necessary to prove any intent on the part of the defendant to defraud any particular person, but it shall be sufficient to prove that the defendant did the act charged with an intent to defraud.

Intent to defraud particular persons.

SECTION 20. In any indictment for murder or manslaughter, it shall not be necessary to set forth the manner in which, or the means by which the death of the deceased was caused, but it shall be sufficient in every indictment for murder, to charge that the defendant did feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought, kill and murder the deceased; and it shall be sufficient, in every indictment for manslaughter, to charge that the defendant did feloniously kill and slay the deceased.

Indictments for murder and manslaughter.

SECTION 21. In every indictment for wilful and corrupt perjury, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the offence charged, and in what court, or before whom the oath or affirmation was taken, averring such court or person or body to have competent authority to administer the same, together with the proper averment, to falsify the matter wherein the perjury is assigned, without setting forth the information, indictment, declaration or part of any record or proceeding, other than as aforesaid, and without setting forth the commission or authority of the court, or person, or body before whom the perjury was committed.

What is requisite in indictment for perjury.

SECTION 22. In every indictment for subornation of perjury, or for corrupt bargaining, or contracting with others to commit wilful and corrupt perjury, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the offence, without setting forth the information, indictment, declaration or part of any record or proceedings, and without setting forth the commission or authority of the court, or person or body before whom the perjury was committed, or was agreed or promised to be committed.

In indictment for subornation of perjury.

Indictment for duelling.

SECTION 23. In cases arising under the laws of this commonwealth for the restraint of the horrid practice of duelling, it shall be sufficient to form an indictment generally, against either of the principals for challenging another to fight at deadly weapons, and notwithstanding it may appear on the trial that the defendant only accepted the challenge, it shall be sufficient to convict and render him liable to the penalties of the law; and in like manner an indictment against the seconds may be framed generally, for carrying and delivering a challenge, and proof of the mere act of fighting, and the defendant being present thereat, shall be sufficient to convict the defendant upon an indictment so framed; and if the duel shall take place within this commonwealth, the mere fact of fighting shall be full and complete evidence of the charges, respectively, of giving or receiving, or of carrying or delivering a challenge, without other proof thereof.

Counts for stealing and receiving, may be joint.

SECTION 24. In every indictment for feloniously stealing property, it shall be lawful to add a count for feloniously receiving the said property, knowing it to have been stolen; and in any indictment for feloniously receiving property, knowing it to have been stolen, it shall be lawful to add a count for feloniously stealing said property; and it shall be lawful for the jury trying the same, to find a verdict of guilty either of stealing the property, or of receiving the same, knowing it to have been stolen; and if such indictment shall have been preferred and found against two or more persons, it shall be lawful for the jury who shall try the same, to find all or any of the said persons guilty of either stealing the property or of receiving it, knowing it to have been stolen, or to find one or more of the said persons guilty of stealing the property, and the other or others of them guilty of receiving it, knowing it to have been stolen.

Issue in criminal cases, and trial thereof.

SECTION 25. In all cases of felony the prisoner shall be arraigned, and where any person on being so arraigned shall plead not guilty, every such person shall be deemed and taken to put himself upon the inquest or country for trial, without any question being asked of him how he will be tried, and the inquest shall be charged only to inquire whether he be guilty or not guilty of the crime charged against him, and no more. And that wherever a person shall be indicted for treason or felony, the jury empanelled to try such person shall not be charged to inquire concerning his lands, tenements or goods, nor whether he fled for such treason or felony.

Prisoners standing mute.

SECTION 26. If any prisoner shall, upon his arraignment for any offence with which he is indicted, stand mute, or not answer directly, or shall peremptorily challenge above the number of persons summoned as jurors for his trial to which he is by law entitled, the plea of not guilty shall be entered for him on the record, the supernumerary challenges shall be disregarded, and the trial shall proceed in the same manner as if he had pleaded not guilty, and for his trial had put himself upon the country.

SECTION 27. No person shall be required to answer to any indictment for any offence whatsoever, unless the prosecutor's name, if any there be, is endorsed thereon, and if no person shall avow himself the prosecutor, the court may hear witnesses, and determine whether there is such a private prosecutor, and if they shall be of opinion that there is such a prosecutor, then direct his name to be endorsed on such indictment.

Prosecutor's name to be endorsed on indictment.

SECTION 28. It shall be lawful in cases of embezzlement by clerks, servants or other persons in the employ of another, to charge in the indictment, and proceed against an offender for any distinct acts of embezzlement, not exceeding three, which may have been committed by him against the same master or employer, within the space of six calendar months, from the first to the last of such acts, and in every such indictment, except where the offence shall relate to a chattel, it shall be sufficient to allege the embezzlement to be of money, without specifying any particular coin or valuable security; and such allegation, so far as regards the description of the property, shall be sustained, if the offender shall be proved to have embezzled any amount, although the particular species of coin or valuable security of which such amount was composed, shall not be proved, or if he shall be proved to have embezzled any piece of coin or valuable security, or any portion of the value thereof, although such piece of coin or valuable security may have been delivered to him in order that some part of the value thereof should be returned to the party delivering the same, and such part shall have been returned accordingly.

Distinct acts of embezzlement may be charged in same indictment.

SECTION 29. No district attorney shall, in any criminal case whatsoever, enter a nolle prosequi, either before or after bill found, without the assent of the proper court in writing first had and obtained.

Nolle prosequi.

SECTION 30. In any plea of autrefois acquit, or autrefois convict, it shall be sufficient for any defendant to state, that he has been lawfully convicted, or acquitted, as the case may be, of the offence charged in the indictment.

Plea of autrefois convict, or autrefois acquit.

TITLE III. Of Courts.

SECTION 31. The courts of oyer and terminer and general jail delivery shall have power—

Of courts of oyer and terminer.

I. To inquire by the oaths and affirmations of good and lawful men of the county, of all crimes committed, or triable in such county.

II. To hear, determine and punish the same, and to deliver the jails of such county of all prisoners therein, according to law.

III. To try indictments found in the quarter sessions, and certified by the said court according to law; and the said courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction and power to try and punish all persons charged with any of the crimes herein enumerated, which shall be committed within the respective county, to wit:

1. All persons charged with any murder or manslaughter, or other homicide, and all persons charged with being accessory to any such crime.

2. All persons charged with treason against the commonwealth.

3. All persons charged with sodomy, buggery, rape or robbery, their counsellors, aiders and abettors.

4. All persons charged with the crime of voluntarily and maliciously burning any building, or other thing, made punishable in the same manner as arson.

5. All persons charged with mayhem, or with the crime of cutting off the tongue, putting out the eye, slitting the nose, cutting off the nose, cutting off a lip, cutting off or disabling any limb or member of a person, by lying in wait, or with malice aforethought, and with intent in so doing to maim or disfigure such person, and their aiders and abettors and counsellors.

6. All persons charged with burglary.

7. Every woman who shall be charged with having endeavored privately, either by herself or the procurement of others, to conceal the death of any issue of her body, male or female, which, if it were born alive, would be by law a bastard, so that it may not be known whether such issue was born dead or alive, or whether it was murdered or not.

8. All persons charged with the second or any subsequent offence of receiving, harboring or concealing any robber, burglar, felon or thief, or with the crime of receiving or buying any goods or chattels, which shall have been feloniously taken or stolen, knowing the same to be so taken or stolen.

Quarter sessions.

SECTION 32. The courts of quarter sessions of the peace shall have jurisdiction and power within the respective counties—

I. To inquire, by the oaths or affirmations of good and lawful men of the county, of all crimes, misdemeanors and offences whatsoever, against the laws of this commonwealth, which shall be triable in the respective county.

II. To inquire of, hear, determine and punish, in due form of law, all such crimes and misdemeanors and offences, whereof exclusive jurisdiction is not given, as aforesaid, to the courts of oyer and terminer of such county.

III. To take, in the name of the commonwealth, all manner of recognizances and obligations heretofore taken and allowed to be taken by any justice of the peace; and they shall certify such as shall be taken, in relation to any crime not triable therein, to the next court of oyer and terminer having power to take cognizance thereof.

IV. To continue, or discharge the recognizance and obligations of persons bound to keep the peace, or to be of good behaviour, taken as aforesaid, or certified into such court by any justice of the peace of such county, and to inquire of, hear and determine, in the manner hitherto practiced and allowed, all complaints which shall be found thereon.

V. The courts of quarter sessions shall also have jurisdiction in cases of fines, penalties or punishments, imposed by any act of assembly, for offences, misdemeanors or delinquencies, except where it shall be otherwise expressly provided and enacted.

VI. The said courts shall also have and exercise such other jurisdiction and powers, not herein enumerated, as may have been heretofore given to them by law.

Whenever any indictment shall be found in any court of quarter sessions, for any crime or offence not triable therein, it shall be the duty of said court to certify the same into the court of oyer and terminer next to be holden in such county, there to be heard and determined in due course of law.

The judges of the county courts of oyer and terminer and quarter sessions, and every of them, shall have power to direct their writs or precepts to all or any of the sheriffs or other officers of any of the counties, cities, boroughs or towns corporate of this commonwealth, to arrest and bring before them persons indicted for felonies and other offences, and amenable to the respective court; each of said courts shall have power to award process to levy and recover such fines, forfeitures and amercements, as shall be imposed, taxed or adjudged by them respectively; each of the said courts shall have full power and authority to establish such rules for regulating the practice thereof respectively, and for expediting the determination of suits, causes and proceedings therein, as in their discretion they shall judge necessary or proper: Provided, That such rules shall not be inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this commonwealth; each of the said courts is empowered to issue writs of subpœna, under their official seal, into any county of this commonwealth, to summon and bring before the respective court any person to give testimony in any cause or matter depending before them, under the penalties hitherto appointed and allowed, in any such case, by the laws of this commonwealth. Proviso.

SECTION 33. Every person indicted in any court of quarter sessions, or in any county court of oyer and terminer and general jail delivery, may remove the indictment, and all proceedings thereon, or a transcript thereof, into the supreme court by a writ of certiorari, or a writ of error, as the case may require: Provided, That no such writ of certiorari, or writ of error shall issue, or be available, to remove the said indictment and proceeding thereupon, or a transcript thereof, or to stay execution of the judgment thereupon rendered, unless the same shall be specially allowed by the supreme court, or one of the justices thereof, upon sufficient cause to it or him shown, or shall have been sued out, with the consent of the attorney general; which special allowance or consent shall be in writing, and certified on the said writ. Writs of error and certiorari.
Proviso

TITLE IV. Of the Trial.

SECTION 34. No person who may hereafter be arraigned on any indictment, and who shall be bound by recognizance to appear and abide by the judgment of the court, shall be placed within the prisoner's bar to plead to such indictment, or be confined therein during his trial; and all persons shall have an opportunity of a full and free communication with their counsel. Persons under bail not to be placed in criminal bar.

SECTION 35. Every person indicted for treason shall have a copy of the indictment and a list of the jury and the witnesses to be produced on the trial for proving such indictment, mentioning the names and places of abode of such jurors and witnesses, delivered to him three whole days before the trial. Persons indicted for treason to have copy of indictment.

SECTION 36. On the trial of any indictment for treason or misprision of treason, murder, manslaughter, concealing the death of a bastard child, rape, robbery, burglary, sodomy, malicious maiming and arson, the accused shall be at liberty to challenge, peremptorily, twenty of the jurors, and on the trial of all other Peremptory challenges.

indictments the accused shall be at liberty to challenge, peremptorily, four of the jurors.

Challenges by the commonwealth

SECTION 37. The commonwealth shall have the right, in all cases, to challenge, peremptorily, four persons, and every peremptory challenge beyond the number allowed by law in any of the said cases, shall be entirely void, and the trial of such person shall proceed as if no such challenge had been made.

How challenges are to be conducted

SECTION 38. All challenges in criminal proceedings shall be conducted as follows, to wit: The commonwealth shall challenge one person, and then the defendant shall challenge one person, and so alternately, until all the challenges shall be made; but if the commonwealth shall refuse to make any challenge, the defendant shall, nevertheless, have the right to challenge the full number allowed him by law.

How to be determined.

SECTION 39. When a challenge for a cause assigned shall be made in any criminal proceeding, the truth of such cause shall be inquired of and determined by the court.

Persons jointly indicted, and joint challenges.

SECTION 40. In all cases in which two or more persons are jointly indicted for any offence, it shall be in the discretion of the court to try them jointly or severally, except that in cases of felonious homicide, the parties charged shall have the right to demand separate trials; and in all cases of joint trials, the accused shall have the right to the same number of peremptory challenges to which either would be entitled if separately tried, and no more.

How tales awarded and juries summoned.

SECTION 41. All courts of criminal jurisdiction of this commonwealth shall be and are hereby authorized and required, when occasion shall render the same necessary, to order a tales de circumstandibus, either for the grand or petit jury, and all talesmen shall be liable to the same challenges, fines and penalties as the principal jurors: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall repeal or alter the provisions of an act passed the twentieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, entitled "An Act establishing a mode of drawing and selecting jurors in and for the city and county of Philadelphia."

Provided.

Of jury de medio-tate lingue.

SECTION 42. No alien shall, in any criminal case whatsoever, be entitled to a jury de medietate lingue, or partly of strangers.

Place of trial of treason.

SECTION 43. The trial of all treason against the commonwealth, committed out of the jurisdiction of the state, shall be in the county where the offender is apprehended, or into which he shall first be brought.

Of accessories before the fact.

SECTION 44. If any person shall become an accessory before the fact, to any felony, whether the same be a felony at common law, or by virtue of any act of assembly now in force or hereafter to be in force, such person may be indicted, tried, convicted and punished in all respects as if he were a principal felon.

Of accessories
after the fact.

SECTION 45. If any person shall become an accessory after the fact, to any felony, whether the same be a felony at common law, or by virtue of any act of assembly now in force, or that may be hereafter in force, he may be indicted and convicted as an accessory after the fact, to the principal felony, together with the principal felon, or after the conviction of the principal felon, or may be indicted and convicted of a substantive felony, whether the principal felon shall or shall not have been previously convicted, or shall or shall not be amenable to justice, and may thereupon be punished in like manner as any accessory after the fact to the same felony, if convicted as an accessory, may be punished; and the offence of such person, howsoever indicted, may be inquired of, tried, determined and punished, by any court which shall have jurisdiction to try the principal felon, in the same manner as if the act by reason of which such person shall have become accessory, had been committed at the same place as the principal felony: Provided always, That no person who shall be once duly tried for any such offence, whether as an accessory after the fact, or as for a substantive felony, shall be liable to be again indicted or tried for the same offence.

Proviso.

SECTION 46. If any person hereafter shall be feloniously stricken, poisoned, or receive other cause of death in one county, and die of the same stroke, poisoning or other cause of death in another county, then an indictment found therefor by jurors of the county where the death shall happen, shall be as good and effectual in law, as well against the principal in such murder as against the accessory thereto, as if the stroke, poisoning or other cause of death had been given, done or committed in the same county where such indictment shall be found; and the proper courts having jurisdiction of the offence shall proceed upon the same as they might or could do in case such felonious stroke, poisoning or other cause of death, and the death itself thereby ensuing, had been committed and happened all in one and the same county.

Poisoning in one county and death in another.

SECTION 47. If any person shall be feloniously stricken, poisoned, or receive other cause of death within the jurisdiction of this state, and shall die of such stroke, poisoning or other cause of death at any place out of the jurisdiction of this state, an indictment therefor found by the jurors of the county in which such stroke, poisoning or other cause of death shall happen as aforesaid, shall be as good and effectual, as well against the principal in any such murder, as against the accessory thereto, as if such felonious stroke, poisoning or other cause of death, and the death thereby ensuing, and the offence of such accessory, had happened in the same county where such indictment shall be found; and the courts having jurisdiction of the offence shall proceed upon the same, as well against principal as accessory, as they could in case such felonious stroke, poisoning or other cause of death, and the death thereby ensuing, and the offence of such accessory, had both happened in the same county where such indictment shall be found.

Poisoning in the state and death out of the state.

SECTION 48. That in order to obviate the difficulty of proof as to all offences committed near the boundaries of counties, in any indictment for felony or misdemeanor committed on the boundary or boundaries of two or more counties, or within the distance of five hundred yards of any such boundary or boundaries, it shall be sufficient to allege that such felony or misdemeanor was committed in any of the said counties; and every such felony or misdemeanor shall and may be inquired of, tried, determined and punished in the county within which the same shall be so alleged to have been committed, in the same manner as if it had been actually committed therein.

Of proof of offences committed near county lines.

SECTION 49. That in order to obviate the difficulty of proof as to offences committed during journeys from place to place, journeys.

Of offences committed during journeys.

in any indictment for felony or misdemeanor committed on any person or on any property, upon any stage coach, stage, wagon, railway car, or other such carriage whatever employed in any journey, it shall be sufficient to allege that such felony or misdemeanor was committed within any county or place through any part whereof such coach, wagon, cart, car or other carriage shall have passed in the course of the journey during which such felony or misdemeanor shall have been committed; and in all cases where the centre or other part of any highway shall constitute the boundaries of any two counties, it shall be sufficient to allege that the felony or misdemeanor was committed in either of the said counties through, or adjoining to, or by the boundaries of any part whereof such coach, wagon, cart, car, or other carriage shall have passed in the course of the journey during which such felony or misdemeanor shall have been committed; and in any indictment for any felony or misdemeanor, committed on any person or on any property on board any vessel whatsoever, employed in any voyage or journey on any navigable river, canal or inland navigation, it shall be sufficient to allege that such felony or misdemeanor was committed in any county or place through any part whereof such vessel shall have passed in the course of the voyage or journey during which such felony or misdemeanor shall have been committed; and in all cases where the side or bank of any navigable river or creek, canal or inland navigation, or the centre or other part thereof, shall constitute the boundary of any two counties, it shall be sufficient to allege that such felony or misdemeanor was committed in either of the said counties through, or adjoining to, or by the boundary of any part thereof, such vessel shall have passed in the course of the voyage or journey during which such felony or misdemeanor shall have been committed; and every such felony or misdemeanor committed in any of the cases aforesaid, shall and may be inquired of, tried, determined and punished in the county or place within which the same shall be so alleged to have been committed, in the same manner as if it had actually been committed therein.

Party indicted for felony or misdemeanor may be found guilty of attempt to commit the same.

SECTION 50. If on the trial of any person charged with any felony or misdemeanor, it shall appear to the jury upon the evidence, that the defendant did not complete the offence charged, but was guilty only of an attempt to commit the same, such person shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted, but the jury shall be at liberty to return, as their verdict, that the defendant is not guilty of the felony or misdemeanor charged, but is guilty of an attempt to commit the same; and thereupon such person shall be liable to be punished in the same manner as if he had been convicted upon an indictment for attempting to commit the particular felony or misdemeanor charged in the indictment, and no person so tried as herein lastly mentioned, shall be liable to be afterward prosecuted for an attempt to commit the felony or misdemeanor for which he was so tried.

Persons tried for misdemeanor not to be acquitted if the offence turn out to be felony.

SECTION 51. If upon the trial of any person for any misdemeanor, it shall appear that the facts given in evidence amount in law to a felony, such person shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted of such misdemeanor; and no person tried for such misdemeanor shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for felony on the same facts, unless the court before whom such trial may be had shall think fit, in its discretion, to discharge the jury from giving any verdict upon such trial, and direct such person to be indicted for felony, in which case such person may be dealt with in all respects as if he had not been put upon his trial for such misdemeanor.

SECTION 52. No person shall be deemed and adjudged an incompetent witness on the trial of any indictment, for or by reason of such person being entitled, in the event of the conviction of the defendant, to a restitution of his property feloniously taken, or the value thereof, or if fraudulently obtained, to a pecuniary remuneration or compensation therefor, or for or by reason of such witness being liable and subject to the payment of the costs of prosecution.

Witnesses entitled to restitution to be competent.

SECTION 53. No verdict in any criminal court shall be set aside, nor shall any judgment be arrested or reversed, nor sentence delayed, for any defect or error in the precept issued from any court, or in the venire issued for the summoning and returning of jurors, or for any defect or error in drawing, summoning or returning any juror, or panel of jurors, but a trial, or an agreement to try on the merits, or pleading guilty, or the general issue in any case, shall be a waiver of all errors and defects in, or relative or appertaining to the said precept, venire, drawing, summoning and returning of jurors.

Cure of defects in jury process by verdict.

SECTION 54. If any person shall be committed for treason or felony, or other indictable offence, and shall not be indicted and tried some time in the next term, session of oyer and terminer, general jail delivery, or other court where the offence is properly cognizable, after such commitment, it shall and may be lawful for the judges or justices thereof, and they are hereby required on the last day of the term, sessions or court, to set at liberty the said prisoner upon bail, unless it shall appear to them, upon oath or affirmation, that the witnesses for the commonwealth, mentioning their names, could not then be produced; and if such prisoner shall not be indicted and tried the second term, session or court after his or her commitment, unless the delay happen on the application or with the assent of the defendant, or upon trial he shall be acquitted, he shall be discharged from imprisonment: Provided always, That nothing in this act shall extend to discharge out of prison, any person guilty of, or charged with treason, felony, or other high misdemeanor in any other state, and who by the constitution of the United States ought to be delivered up to the executive power of such state, nor any person guilty of, or charged with a breach or violation of the laws of nations.

Of the trial of prisoners committed.

SECTION 55. Upon the trial of any indictment for making or passing, and uttering, any false, forged or counterfeited coin, or bank note, the court may receive in evidence, to establish either the genuineness or falsity of such coin or note, the oaths or affirmations of witnesses who may, by experience and habit, have become expert in judging of the genuineness, or otherwise, of such coin or paper, and such testimony may be submitted to the jury without first requiring proof of the hand-writing or the other tests of genuineness, as the case may be, which have been heretofore required by law; and in prosecutions for either of the offences mentioned or described in the one hundred and sixty-fourth, one hundred and sixty-fifth, one hundred and sixty-sixth and one hundred and sixty-seventh sections of the act to consolidate, revise and amend the penal laws of this commonwealth, the courts shall not require the commonwealth to produce the charter of either of said banks, but the jury may find that fact upon other evidence, under the direction of the court.

Witnesses not to be imprisoned except in certain cases

Proviso.

SECTION 56. No witness in any case who enters his or her recognizance, in such sum as the magistrate may demand, to appear and testify in such prosecutions as require his testimony, shall be committed to prison by the judge, alderman or magistrate before whom any criminal charge may be preferred: Provided however, That in all cases triable in the oyer and terminer, where a positive oath is made, reduced to writing and signed by the deponent, setting forth sufficient reasons or facts to induce the firm belief on the part of the judge, magistrate or alderman, that any witness will abscond, elope or refuse to appear upon the trial, that then and in such case the judge, magistrate or alderman may exact bail of said witness to testify.

Bills of exception and writs of error allowed

SECTION 57. Upon the trial of any indictment for murder, or voluntary manslaughter, it shall and may be lawful for the defendant or defendants to except to any decision of the court upon any point of evidence or law, which exception shall be noted by the court, and filed of record as in civil cases, and a writ of error to the supreme court may be taken by the defendant or defendants, after conviction and sentence.

Written opinions to be filed.

SECTION 58. If during the trial upon any indictment for murder, or voluntary manslaughter, the court shall be required by the defendant or defendants to give an opinion upon any point submitted and stated in writing, it shall be the duty of the court to answer the same fully, and file the point and answer with the records of the case.

Granting of writs regulated.

SECTION 59. No such writ shall be allowed, unless special application be made therefor, and cause shown within thirty days after sentence pronounced; and if the supreme court be sitting in banc in any district, the application shall be made, and cause shown there; if the said court be not sitting, application may be made to, and cause shown before one of the judges of that court, and upon the allowance of such writ, the said court or judge shall fix a time and place for hearing the said case, which time shall not be more than thirty days thereafter; if the said court shall be at that time sitting in banc in any district of the state, the said court or judge, upon the allowance of any such writ, shall make all such proper orders, touching notice to the commonwealth, and paper books, as may be considered necessary.

When a writ of error to issue.

SECTION 60. The writ of error shall issue from the prothonotary's office of the proper district, and all orders, decrees and judgments in the case shall also be entered of record there; but the application and final hearing may be made and had before the said supreme court while sitting in any other district.

Affirmance or reversal of judgment.

SECTION 61. Upon the affirmance of the supreme court of the judgment in any case, the same shall be enforced pursuant to the directions of the judgment so affirmed, and the said court may make any further order requisite for carrying the same into effect ; and if the supreme court shall reverse any judgment, they shall remand the record, with their opinion, setting forth the causes of reversal, to the proper court for further proceeding.

TITLE V. Of Costs.

SECTION 62. In all prosecutions, cases of felony excepted, if the bill of indictment shall be returned ignoramus, the grand jury returning the same shall decide and certify on such bill whether the county or the prosecutor shall pay the costs of prosecution ; and in all cases of acquittals by the petit jury on indictments for the offences aforesaid, the jury trying the same shall determine, by their verdict, whether the county, or the prosecutor, or the defendant, shall pay the costs, or whether the same shall be apportioned between the prosecutor and the defendant, and in what proportions ; and the jury, grand or petit, so determining, in case they direct the prosecutor to pay the costs or any portion thereof, shall name him in their return or verdict ; and whenever the jury shall determine as aforesaid, that the prosecutor or defendant shall pay the costs, the court in which the said determination shall be made shall forthwith pass sentence to that effect, and order him to be committed to the jail of the county until the costs are paid, unless he give security to pay the same within ten days.

over costs.

SECTION 63. That in all prosecutions where the petit jury trying the same shall acquit the defendant, and shall determine, by the verdict, that the prosecutor shall pay the costs, the defendant's bill for his subpoenas, serving the same, and attendance of his material and necessary witnesses, shall be included in the costs and paid accordingly.

Of the defendant's costs.

SECTION 64. That the costs of prosecution accruing on all bills of indictments charging a party with felony, returned ignoramus by the grand jury, shall be paid by the county ; and that the costs of prosecution accruing on bills of indictment charging a party with felony, shall, if such party be acquitted by the petit jury on the traverse of the same, be paid by the county ; and in all cases of conviction of any crime, all costs shall be paid by the party convicted ; but where such party shall have been discharged, according to law, without payment of costs, the costs of prosecution shall be paid by the county ; and in cases of surety of the peace, the costs shall be paid by the prosecutor or the defendant, or jointly between them, or the county, as the court may direct.

costs generally.

SECTION 65. In all cases where two or more persons have committed an indictable offence, the names of all concerned (if a prosecution shall be commenced) shall be contained in one bill of indictment, for which no more costs shall be allowed than if the name of one person only was contained therein.

Joint offenders, relative to costs.

TITLE VI. General Provisions.

SECTION 66. In every case in which it shall be given in evidence upon the trial of any person charged with any crime or misdemeanor, that such person was insane at the time of the Insane prisoners,

relative to.

commission of such offence, and he shall be acquitted, the jury shall be required to find specially whether such person was insane at the time of the commission of such offence, and to declare whether he was acquitted by them on the ground of such insanity; and if they shall so find and declare, the court before whom the trial is had shall have power to order him to be kept in strict custody, in such place and in such manner as to the said court shall seem fit, at the expense of the county in which the trial is had, so long as such person shall continue to be of unsound mind.

Where defendant is found insane upon arraignment

SECTION 67. The same proceedings may be had if any person indicted for an offence shall, upon arraignment, be found to be a lunatic, by a jury lawfully empanelled for the purpose, or if, upon the trial of any person so indicted, such person shall appear to the jury, charged with such indictment, to be a lunatic, the court shall direct such finding to be recorded, and may proceed as aforesaid.

Where prisoner brought up to be discharged appears to be insane

SECTION 68. In every case in which any person charged with any offence shall be brought before the court to be discharged for want of prosecution, and shall, by the oath or affirmation of one or more credible persons, appear to be insane, the court shall order the district attorney to send before the grand jury a written allegation of such insanity in the nature of a bill of indictment; and thereupon the said grand jury shall make inquiry into the case, as in cases of crimes, and make presentment of their finding to said court thereon; and thereupon the court shall order a jury to be empanelled to try the insanity of such person; but before a trial thereof be ordered, the court shall direct notice thereof to be given to the next of kin of such person, by publication or otherwise, as the case requires, and if the jury shall find such person to be insane, the like proceedings may be had as aforesaid.

Insane defendant to be delivered to friends, &c.

SECTION 69. If the kindred or friends of any person who may have been acquitted as aforesaid, on the ground of insanity, or in the default of such, the guardians, overseers or supervisors of any county, township or place, shall give security in such amount as shall be satisfactory to the court, with condition that such lunatic shall be restrained from the commission of any offence by seclusion or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the court to make an order for the enlargement of such lunatic, and his delivery to his kindred or friends, or as the case may be, to such guardians, overseers or supervisors.

How expenses to be paid in such cases.

SECTION 70. The estate and effects of every such lunatic shall, in all cases, be liable to the county for the reimbursement of all costs and expenses paid by such county in pursuance of such order; but if any person acquitted on the grounds of insanity, shall have no estate or effects, the county, township or place to which such lunatic may be chargeable under the laws of this commonwealth relating to the support and employment of the poor, shall, after notice of his detention aforesaid, be liable for all costs and expenses as aforesaid, in like manner as if he had become a charge upon any township not liable for his support under the laws aforesaid.

Civil actions against felons.

SECTION 71. In all cases of felony heretofore committed, or which may hereafter be committed, it shall and may be lawful for any person injured or aggrieved by such felony, to have and maintain his action against the person or persons guilty of such felony, in like manner as if the offence committed had not been feloniously done; and in no case whatever, shall the action of the party injured, be deemed, taken or adjudged to be merged in the felony, or in any manner affected thereby.

SECTION 72. The imprisonment awarded as part of the punishment of any offender, shall not stop or avoid the awarding or taking out of execution to levy such respective sums recovered against them, as such offenders refuse or neglect to pay, when such writs are taken out, which executions shall be directed to the sheriff or coroner of the proper county, requiring him to levy the sums due upon such recoveries as aforesaid, of the lands and tenements, goods and chattels of such offenders, returnable to the next term or session of the court where such conviction was had, which shall be executed accordingly; and the lands, goods and chattels thereby seized shall be sold and conveyed by the said officers, and such sales shall be as available and effectual in law as any other sales of land taken and sold for the payment of debts, by virtue of writs of execution awarded out of the courts of common pleas in the respective counties.

Executions upon sentences of restitution.

SECTION 73. If any person who hath been, or shall be legally indicted in any court of criminal jurisdiction within this commonwealth, of treason, felony of death, robbery, burglary, sodomy or buggery, or as accessories before the fact to any of the same offences, did not or will not appear to answer to such indictment, or having appeared, shall escape before trial, the same indictment, record and proceedings shall be removed by writ of certiorari into the supreme court of this commonwealth, and it shall and may be lawful for the same court to award a writ of capias, directed to the sheriff of the county where the fact shall be charged to have been committed; and if the party indicted shall be supposed, by the indictment, to inhabit or be conversant in any other county, then also to the sheriff of such county; which writ or writs shall be delivered to the said sheriff or sheriffs, at least two months before the day of the return thereof, commanding the said sheriff or sheriffs to take the person so indicted as aforesaid, if he may be found in his or their bailiwicks, and him safely keep, so that he may have his body before the justices of the said supreme court, at the next supreme court to be holden for the said commonwealth, to answer to the said indictment, or prosecute his traverse thereupon, as the case may be, and to be further dealt with as the law shall direct; and if the same sheriff or sheriffs shall make return to the same writ or writs of capias, that the person indicted as aforesaid, cannot be found in his bailiwick, then, after such return, a second writ of capias may issue out of the said supreme court, and be delivered at least three months before the return day thereof, to the sheriff of the county where the fact shall be charged to have been committed; and in case the party shall be supposed, by the indictment, to inhabit or be conversant in any other county, then another writ of capias shall also issue, and be delivered at least three months before the return day thereof, to the sheriff of such county; which writ or writs of ca-

pias shall be returnable before the justices of the same court, on the first day of the second term next after the teste of the said second writ of capias, so that a term shall intervene between the teste of the return days of the same writ or writs, whereby the said sheriff or sheriffs shall be commanded to take the said person so indicted as aforesaid, if he may be found in his or their bailiwicks, and him safely keep, so that he may have his body before the justices of the said supreme court at the day of the return thereof, to answer or prosecute his traverse as aforesaid; but if he cannot be found in his or their bailiwicks, then to cause public proclamation to be made on three several days in one of the courts of quarter sessions of the peace to be held for the said counties respectively, between the teste and return days of the same writ or writs, that the party so indicted shall appear before the said justices of the said supreme court, at a supreme court to be holden at the time and place contained in the same writs, to answer such indictment or prosecute his traverse thereof, as the case may be, or through default thereof, he will at the return of the same writ or writs be outlawed, and attainted of the crime whereof he was indicted as aforesaid; and the said second writ of capias, directed to the sheriff of the county where the crime hath been, or shall be charged to have been committed, shall contain a further clause commanding the said sheriff, in case the person indicted as aforesaid cannot be found in his bailiwick, to cause public advertisement to be made in one or more of the public newspapers of this state, once a week, in six succeeding weeks, between the teste and return of the said second writ of capias, specifying therein the coming of the said second writ of capias to his hands, with the teste thereof, and the time and place of return to be made thereof, naming the person indicted as aforesaid, with his addition of degree, mystery and place of abode, as contained in the writ, stating the nature of the offence charged against him, and commanding him to appear before the justices of the said supreme court, at the day and place directed by the said second writ of capias, to answer to the said indictment, or prosecute his traverse thereof, as the case may be, or through default thereof at the return of the said second writ of capias, he will be outlawed and attainted of the crime whereof he shall have been indicted as aforesaid; and if upon the return of the same writ or writs last mentioned, by the said sheriff or sheriffs, that the directions of the said writ or writs had been fully complied with and pursued, and the person indicted as aforesaid shall not yield himself to one of the said sheriffs, so that he may have his body before the justices of the said supreme court at the day and place as directed by the said writ or writs, or having surrendered himself, shall escape from his custody, or having been bailed, on his surrender or caption shall not appear, so that through want of his appearance at the time and place the said supreme court shall appoint for his trial, no trial of his offence can be had, the justices of the said supreme court shall in either of these cases pronounce and declare the said person indicted as aforesaid, and not appearing at the time and place appointed for his trial as aforesaid, to be outlawed and attainted of the crime whereof he shall have been indicted as aforesaid; the said supreme court to pronounce the judgment of outlawry against the principal offender, previously to the declaration of outlawry against the accessory, against whom, in all other respects, it shall be lawful to carry on the proceedings together, and at the same time the said supreme court shall declare the legal punishment for the same crime; and wherever imprisonment shall be a part of the sentence for any of the said offences, the term thereof shall commence from the time the person outlawed shall, subsequent to his outlawry, actually be in the custody of the sheriff of the county where the offence was or shall be committed, which sentence shall be fully and particularly entered upon the records of the said supreme court; and the said sentence of outlawry shall have the legal effect of a judgment upon verdict or confession against the person so outlawed, for the offence whereupon he shall have been outlawed, unless and until the same outlawry shall be afterwards avoided by the judgment of the same court, on plea pleaded in the nature of a writ of error.

When any person outlawed as aforesaid, shall be taken either by capias utlagatum, or otherwise, or being in the sheriff's custody, shall be brought to the bar of the supreme court, the court shall, upon the suggestion and prayer of the attorney general, award execution to be done upon him, unless the prisoner shall plead either ore tenus, or in writing, as his counsel shall advise, that he was not the person who was outlawed, or shall assign errors, in fact or in law, sufficient to prevent the award of execution, in which case the court shall proceed to determine the same either by an inquest or by their own judgment, agreeably to law; and the prisoner shall by such plea have all the benefit and advantage of all legal matters in his favor, as if he or she had brought a writ of error and had assigned the several matters pleaded as errors: Provided, If any person out- Proviso.
lawed shall within the space of one year next after the outlawry pronounced against him, yield him to one of the justices of the supreme court, and offer to traverse the indictment whereon the said outlawry shall be pronounced as aforesaid, that then he shall be received to the same traverse; and being thereupon found not guilty, by the verdict of a jury, of the offence for which he shall have been outlawed as aforesaid, he shall be clearly acquitted and discharged of the said outlawry, and of all penalties and forfeitures by reason of the same, as fully as if no such outlawry had been had, anything hereinbefore contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

All the costs and charges of the said proceedings to outlawry shall be borne and paid by the county where the crime is laid to have been committed: Provided always, That if the person or Proviso.
persons so outlawed shall have real or personal estate, the same or so much thereof as shall be necessary, shall be sold in the manner provided by the seventy-second section of this act, and the net proceeds of such sales shall be applied to the payment of the said costs and charges, or so far as the same shall extend, in exoneration of the county.

SECTION 74. Whenever any person shall be sentenced to imprisonment at labor by separate or solitary confinement, for any period not less than one year, the imprisonment and labor shall Sentences of separate or solitary confinement.

be had and performed in the state penitentiary for the proper district: Provided, That nothing in this section contained shall prevent such person from being sentenced to imprisonment and labor, by separate or solitary confinement, in the county prisons now or hereafter authorized by law to receive convicts of a like description: And provided also, That no convict shall be sentenced by any court of this commonwealth, to either of the penitentiaries thereof, for any term which shall expire between the fifteenth of November and the fifteenth of February of any year.

Sentences of less than one year, and simple imprisonment. SECTION 75. No person shall be sentenced to imprisonment at labor, by separate or solitary confinement, for a period of time less than one year, except in the counties where, in the opinion of the court pronouncing the sentence, suitable prisons have been erected for such confinement and labor; and all persons sentenced to simple imprisonment for any period of time, shall be confined in the county jail where the conviction shall take place: Provided, That in the counties where suitable prisons for separate or solitary confinement at labor do not exist, and the sentence shall be for less than one year, simple imprisonment shall be substituted in all cases for the separate and solitary confinement at labor required by the act to consolidate, revise and amend the penal laws of this commonwealth.

Execution in capital cases. SECTION 76. Whenever, hereafter, any person shall be condemned to suffer death by hanging, for any crime of which he shall have been convicted, the said punishment shall be inflicted upon him within the walls or yard of the jail of the county in which he shall have been convicted; and it shall be the duty of the sheriff or coroner of the said county to attend and be present at such execution, to which he shall invite the presence of a physician, the district attorney of the county, and twelve reputable citizens, who shall be selected by the sheriff; and the said sheriff shall, at the request of the criminal, permit such ministers of the gospel, not exceeding two, as he may name, and any of his immediate relatives, to attend and be present at such execution, together with such officers of the prison, and such of the sheriff's deputies as the said sheriff or coroner, in his discretion, may think it expedient to have present; and it shall be only permitted to the persons above designated to witness the said execution: Provided, That no person under age shall be permitted, on any account, to witness the same; and after the execution, the said sheriff or coroner shall make oath or affirmation, in writing, that he proceeded to execute the said criminal, within the walls or yard aforesaid, at the time designated by the death warrant of the governor; and the same shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of oyer and terminer of the aforesaid county, and a copy thereof published in two or more newspapers, one, at least, of which shall be printed in the county where the execution took place.

Limitation of prosecutions. SECTION 77. All indictments which shall hereafter be brought or exhibited for any crime or misdemeanor, murder and voluntary manslaughter excepted, shall be brought or exhibited within the time and limitation hereafter expressed, and not after; that is to say, all indictments and prosecutions for treason, arson, sodomy, buggery, robbery, burglary, perjury, counterfeiting, forgery, uttering or publishing any bank note, check or draft, knowing the same to be counterfeited or forged, shall be brought or exhibited within five years next after the offence shall have been committed; and all indictments and prosecutions for other felonies not named or excepted heretofore in this section, and for all misdemeanors, perjury excepted, shall be brought or exhibited within two years next after such felony or misdemeanor shall have been committed: Provided however, That if the person against whom such indictment shall be brought or exhibited, shall not have been an inhabitant of this state, or usual resident therein, during the said respective terms for which he shall be subject and liable to prosecution as aforesaid, then such indictment shall or may be brought or exhibited against such person at any period within a similar space of time during which he shall be an inhabitant of, or usually resident within this state: And provided also, That indictments for misdemeanors committed by any officer of a bank, or other corporation, may be commenced and prosecuted at any time within six years from the time the alleged offence shall have been committed.

No. 376.

AN ACT

To establish a system of Free Banking in Pennsylvania, and to secure the Public against loss from Insolvent Banks.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That any partnership or association of persons, not less than five, in pursuance of this act may establish banks of discount, deposit and circulation, subject to the terms, conditions, contingencies, restrictions and liabilities hereinafter prescribed; but the capital of no bank, established under the provisions of this act, shall exceed one million of dollars, or be less than fifty thousand dollars.

Banks may be established.

Capital.

SECTION 2. That whenever any such partnership or association of citizens desire to establish a bank, or increase its capital, they shall make a certificate, to be hereinafter described, under their hands and seals, and shall cause a notice of the same to be advertised, for at least six months, in at least three newspapers, one published at the seat of government of the state, and the other two in the city or county where such bank is to be located, one of which shall be in the German language, if such paper is published; which certificate, after due notice of the same shall be published as aforesaid, shall be submitted to, and examined by, the attorney general of the commonwealth, and by him certified to be properly drawn and signed, and that the notice of the same has been duly and correctly advertised according to law, and that the certificate and the published notice are in conformity with the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth; for which service the attorney general shall be entitled to a fee of five dollars.

Certificate of intention to establish a bank to be published.

Fee of attorney general.

SECTION 3. That the certificate approved by the attorney general shall specify—

Nature of certificate.

I. The name of such persons, partnership or association, and the names and residences of each member of any partnership or association.

II. The place of business, designating the city, town or village, and the county where the contemplated bank is to be located, and which location shall not be changed, without the consent of the auditor general, after six months' public notice.

III. The amount of capital stock of such association, the number of shares into which the same shall be divided, together with any contemplated increase of capital stock.

IV. The names and places of residence of the shareholders, and the number of shares held by each of them respectively.

V. That when the certificate is so certified by the attorney general as aforesaid, the same shall be recorded in the office for recording of deeds in the city or county where the bank is to be located, in a suitable book to be kept for that purpose, and a copy of said certificate, duly certified by the recorder, shall be filed in the office of the auditor general; and the auditor general, upon the receipt of such certified copy, shall enter thereon, and upon the original certificate to be retained by such partnership or banking association, the day and date of the filing of the same, and shall, moreover, cause a true copy of such certificate to be recorded, at length, in a suitable book to be kept in his office for that purpose, for which he shall receive the sum of five dollars; and the governor shall, upon the certified copy of the aforesaid certificate being produced before him, cause letters patent, under the great seal of the commonwealth, to be issued to the said banker or corporation.

Letters patent.

Body corporate.

Term and letters patent.

Powers and privileges.

SECTION 4. That every association authorized to carry on the business of banking, under this act, shall be held and adjudged to be a body corporate, with succession, for the term of twenty years from the date of letters patent, and thereafter only so long as is necessary to close the affairs of such bank, and by its corporate name shall be competent to contract, prosecute and defend actions of every description, as fully as natural persons; and process against such bank may be served upon its president or cashier, or by leaving a copy thereof at their usual place of business, during the usual hours of business; they shall have power to make and adopt a corporate seal, and to change and renew the same at pleasure; and shall, during the term of twenty years from the date aforesaid, if the said bank shall so long comply with the provisions of this act, have power to loan money, buy, sell and discount bills of exchange, notes, and all other written evidences of debt, except such as it shall be prohibited by this act from buying, selling or discounting, receive deposits, buy and sell gold and silver coin and bullion, collect and pay over money, and transact every such other business as shall appertain to the business of banking, subject, however, to the provisions of this act; may acquire and hold and convey such real estate as may be necessary to the proper transaction of business, and no more; but may, however, acquire title to any real estate pledged to secure any debt previously contracted, or purchased on an execution or order of sale to satisfy any judgment or decree in its favor, or which shall have been conveyed to it in payment of any previous debt, but shall hold any real estate so held no longer than is necessary to secure the payment of said debt, interest and costs, for the collection and securing of the debt for which it was acquired: Provided however, That if at any time before selling the same, the last preceding owner, his, her or their heirs, shall tender to said bank a sum sufficient to secure the payment of such debt, with interest, costs, taxes and other necessary charges for the collection or securing of said debt, for which said real estate was acquired, then the bank shall release to such owner, his, her or their heirs, all right, title and interest therein: Provided further, That said last preceding owner or owners, their heirs or attorneys, shall have the right of redemption of said real estate for the term of twelve months after sale, upon paying debt, interest and costs.

SECTION 5. That it shall be the duty of the auditor general to report, annually, to the legislature, within three days from the commencement of the session, a summary of the state and condition of every incorporated bank or banking institution, and every private bank from which reports have been received for the preceding year, at the several dates to which such reports refer, with an abstract of the whole amount of banking capital returned by them, of the whole amount of their debts and liabilities, specifying, particularly, the amount of circulating notes outstanding, and the total amount of means and resources, specifying the amount of specie held by them at the time of the several returns, and such other information in relation to said banks and associations as, in his judgment, may be useful; the said report shall also contain a statement of the amount of the expenses of his office, on account of banks, during the year, and the amount, if any, for which the treasury shall be in advance; such number of copies of said report, for the use of the legislature, as it may direct, and two hundred and fifty copies for the use of his department, shall be printed, by the public printer, in readiness for distribution within twenty days from the commencement of the legislative session.

Auditor general to make annual report to the legislature of the condition of the banks.

SECTION 6. That any increase of capital, alteration or addition, shall be advertised as is provided for by the second section of this act, for six months, and then submitted to the stockholders at a general meeting called for that purpose, and by them approved; and further, any such increase of capital, alteration or addition, shall also be approved by the auditor general; and if approved by the same, shall be attested and recorded, and published, as is provided in the original formation of said bank.

Increase of capital, relative to.

SECTION 7. That the auditor general of this commonwealth shall cause to be engraved and printed, in the best manner to guard against counterfeiting, such quantity of circulating notes, in blank, of different denominations, not less than five dollars, each of which are authorized to be issued by the banks of this commonwealth incorporated under this act, as he may deem necessary, from time to time, to carry into effect the provisions of this act; said notes shall be countersigned by the auditor general, or by a clerk appointed by him for such purpose, numbered and registered in his office, in manner as directed by him, in a book kept for the purpose; and all notes issued by him shall be uniform, and they shall have stamped on them, secured by the deposit of public stock.

Auditor general to cause notes to be engraved, &c.

SECTION 8. That the plates, dies and materials to be procured by the auditor general, for the printing and making of such bills or notes for circulation, shall remain in his custody and under his direction, and the expenses necessarily incurred in executing the provisions of this act, shall be audited by the auditor general, and paid out of the treasury on his written order; and for the purpose of reimbursing the same, the auditor general is hereby authorized and required to charge against, and receive from, each bank or banking association applying for such notes for circulation, such rate per centum thereon as will repay the expenses necessarily incurred, as before directed.

Plates, dies, &c., to be procured by auditor general, and to remain in his custody.

Expenses, how paid.

SECTION 9. That the auditor general, with the approval of the governor, shall devise a seal, with a suitable inscription, for this branch of his duties, independent of the seal of office now used Auditor general to devise a seal for this branch of his duties.

Description to be filed in office of the secretary of the commonwealth.

by said officer as auditor general, a description of which, with a certificate of approval by the governor, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of the commonwealth, with an impression thereof, which shall thereupon become his seal of office, as set forth in this act, and the same may be renewed when necessary; every certificate, assignment and conveyance, executed by the said auditor general in pursuance of any authority conferred on him by this act, and sealed with the aforesaid seal, shall be received in evidence, and may be recorded in the proper recording offices, in the same manner and with like effect as a deed regularly acknowledged or proved before any officer authorized to take proof or acknowledgments of deeds; and all copies of papers in the office of said auditor general, that have any relation to any of the banks or banking associations of this state, certified by him, and authenticated by the said seal, shall in all cases be in evidence equally and in like manner as the original.

When banks entitled to receive circulating notes

SECTION 10. That banks established under this act, upon legally assigning to and depositing with the auditor general the bonds or evidences of debt of this commonwealth or of the United States, shall be entitled to receive an amount of such circulating notes in blank, of the denominations such as they may require, numbered, registered, countersigned and stamped as is herein provided for, the bonds and stocks to be taken at five per cent. less than their market value: Provided, That the same is not above par, and that the amount to be invested under the provisions of this act, shall not exceed the amount of capital now employed in corporate banking in this state more than fifteen millions of dollars, until otherwise provided.

Proviso.

Auditor general authorized to exchange evidences of debt, &c.

SECTION 11. That the auditor general may, at his discretion, exchange such bonds or evidences of debt, or of any of them, on receiving other approved bonds or evidences of debt of this commonwealth or of the United States, of equal amount; and when any sum of the principal of the bonds or evidences of debt which have been transferred to the auditor general, shall be paid to him, he shall notify the bank or banking association which transferred the same, of such payment, and shall pay the same to such bank or banking association, on receiving other approved bonds or evidences of debt of this commonwealth or of the United States, of an equal amount, or on returning an equal amount of the bills or notes delivered by him to such association for circulation, which bills, when delivered, shall be cancelled; and all bonds or evidences of debt received by the auditor general, under the provisions of this section, shall be subject to all the regulations and restrictions prescribed by the different sections of this act.

Banking associations to receive the interest on securities deposited with auditor general.

SECTION 12. That the bank or banking association transferring bonds or evidences of debt to the auditor general may receive the interest that accrues thereon, unless default shall be made in paying the bills or notes to be countersigned as aforesaid, or unless the bonds or evidences of debt so pledged shall become insufficient security for the payment of such bills or notes; and the auditor general, together with the state treasurer and secretary of the commonwealth, shall, on the first Mondays of March and September, in each year, make an average of the value of the state and United States stocks, pledged for the redemption of notes issued to the several banks and banking institutions incorporated under the provisions of this act, which average shall be made on the value of the stocks aforesaid, during the last preceding six months; which average value shall be the declared value for the six months succeeding; and if the declared value of the stocks aforesaid shall exceed the value of the same at the previous average, then, and in that case, the auditor general is authorized to issue to each bank or banking institution, incorporated under the provisions of this act, an additional amount of notes or bills; but in no case shall the whole amount of the notes or bills issued to any bank or banking institution exceed the amount of five per centum less than the declared value; but if the stocks deposited as aforesaid shall become depreciated in value, so that the averages of the six months shall be below the value of the securities at the last declared value, then the auditor general shall thereupon immediately notify the president or cashier of any bank or banking institution, to place in his hands, within fifteen days, such additional amount of securities of the description named in this act, or to return to his office such an amount of the circulation of the bank as will preserve the value of the securities deposited, and secure, in full, the notes or bills issued as aforesaid; and if such bank or banking institution shall refuse or neglect to comply with the requirements made by the auditor general, then, and in that case, he shall, without delay, proceed to wind up the affairs of such bank or banking institution, in the manner prescribed by the several provisions of this act.

SECTION 13. That the affairs of every bank shall be managed by not less than five nor more than eleven directors, and they shall choose one of their number as president of the bank; every director shall be a citizen of this commonwealth; each director shall own, in his own name and right, at least one per centum of the capital stock of the bank, up to two hundred thousand dollars, and the half of one per centum on its capital stock over two hundred thousand dollars; each director shall take an oath that he will, so far as the duty devolves on him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of the bank, and not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated, any of the provisions of this act, and that he is the bona fide owner, in his own right, of the stock standing in his name on the books of the bank, and that the same is not hypothecated, or in any way pledged as security for any loan obtained or debt owing; which oath, subscribed by himself and certified by the officer before whom it was taken, shall be filed and carefully preserved in the office of the recorder of deeds in the county in which the bank is located; but no person shall be president, cashier or director, or either, of more than one bank at the same time.

Management.

Directors and officers.

Oath of director.

To be filed in recorder's office.

SECTION 14. That the directors of any bank first elected shall hold their places until the first Monday in November next thereafter, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified; all subsequent elections shall be held annually, upon the first Monday in November, and the directors so elected shall hold their places for one year, and until their successors are elected and qualified; but any director removing from the state or ceasing to be the owner of the requisite amount of stock, shall thereby vacate his place; any vacancy in the board shall be filled by appointment by the remaining directors; the director so appointed shall hold his place until the next annual election; and if, from any cause, an election of directors should not be made at the time appointed, the bank shall not, for that cause, be dissolved, but an election may be held on any subsequent day, thirty days' notice thereof having been given in a newspaper printed in the county where the bank is located.

Votes.

SECTION 15. That in all elections for directors, and in deciding all questions at meetings of the stockholders, each share shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote; stockholders may vote by proxy, duly authorized in writing, if dated within thirty days; but no officer, clerk, teller or book-keeper of the bank shall act as proxy, and no stockholder, whose liability to the bank is past due and unpaid, shall be allowed to vote.

Twenty per cent.
to be paid in gold and silver.

SECTION 16. That no bank shall be permitted to commence or carry on the business of banking under this act, unless at least twenty per centum of the capital stock of each bank shall be paid in gold and silver coin, or bullion, and shall be in the actual possession and bona fide the property of the bank at the time of its commencement of its banking business, and at the place designated for carrying on such business.

Capital stock to be divided into shares of fifty dollars each.

SECTION 17. That the capital stock of each bank shall be divided into shares of fifty dollars each, and shall be assignable on the books of the bank, in such manner as the by-laws shall prescribe; but no shareholder shall have power to sell or transfer any shares held in his own right, so long as he shall be liable, either as principal debtor, surety or otherwise, to the bank for any debt, without the consent of a majority of the directors; nor shall such shareholder, when liable to the bank for any debt that is overdue and unpaid, be entitled to receive any dividend, interest or profit on such shares, as long as such liabilities shall continue, but all such dividends, interests or profits shall be retained by the bank and applied to the discharge of such liabilities.

shares.

Liability to bank
by shareholders.

Failure to pay instalments.

SECTION 18. That if any shareholder, or his assignee, shall fail to pay any instalment on his stock, when the same shall be required to be paid, the bank may sell such stock, at public auction, having given three weeks' previous notice thereof in two newspapers, if two are published in the county where the bank is located, to the highest and best bidder for the same, and the excess, if any, after paying the expenses of the sale, shall be refunded to the delinquent stockholder.

Refusal to pay notes in specie to be declared an act of insolvency

SECTION 19. That if any bank, authorized by the provisions of this act, shall refuse to pay its notes of circulation, or any of them, in gold or silver coin of the lawful currency of the United States, on which payment shall be lawfully demanded at its banking house, or customary place of doing banking business, during usual banking hours, the holders of such protested notes may cause the same to be protested for non-payment by a notary public, under his official seal, in the usual manner; and the auditor general, on receiving and filing in his office such protest, shall forthwith give notice, in writing, to the maker of such note or notes, to pay the same; and if they omit to pay the same with interest, costs and protest, for twenty days after such notice, the auditor general shall thereupon declare such bank to have committed an act of insolvency.

SECTION 20. That the auditor general, upon receiving reliable information that any bank has committed an act of insolvency, shall forthwith appoint a committee of three judicious and discreet citizens of this commonwealth, who shall receive five dollars per day each, and their traveling and necessary expenses, all of which to be paid by said bank, who shall make immediate inquiry into the truth of such information, and report thereon to the auditor general of the commonwealth; and if the said committee, or a majority of them, shall report that such bank has suspended payment of its notes in gold and silver, he shall forthwith appoint a suitable receiver, who shall take immediate possession of the books, records, money, choses in action, and property of such bank, of every description, including the securities deposited with the said auditor general, and hold the same for the joint use of the creditors of the failing bank. The compensation of such receiver shall be five dollars per day each, and traveling and necessary expenses, to be paid by said bank, whose assets he is appointed to take possession of.

Proceedings in case of insolvency.

SECTION 21. That the receiver appointed as provided in this act, shall be required to give bond in such sum and with such sureties as the auditor general and the governor shall deem sufficient, and under the direction of said auditor general, shall proceed to settle up the affairs of such bank, and shall convert into money all its assets of every kind whatsoever, with the least possible delay; the money so made shall be applied—

Duty and power of receiver.

I. To pay all the liabilities on account of the notes of circulation, to pay the same on demand, and set aside a sum sufficient to meet all the said notes outstanding.

II. Then to pay all the deposits of the bank.

III. To the payment and discharge of all the remaining liabilities of such bank.

IV. And the residue shall be divided among the stockholders of the failing bank, in proportion to the stock by them respectively held.

SECTION 22. That it shall be the duty of the cashier of every bank to publish monthly, in two newspapers, if two are published, and if two are not published, then in one paper of said county wherein the same may be situate, if there be one published in said county, the entire amount of the assets of the bank as herein provided for, and every class of items therein, under separate heads, setting forth the amount of the capital stock actually paid in, the entire amount of indebtedness and liabilities of said bank, the amount of circulation, the amount of deposits, the amount of gold and silver in the vaults of the bank at the time of making the exhibit, the amount of bills, bonds, notes and other evidences of debt, the value of the real and personal property of the bank.

Cashier to publish monthly statement.

SECTION 23. That the directors of each bank shall semi-annually, on the first Monday in May and November, declare a dividend of so much of the net profits of the bank as they shall judge expedient, and pay the same to the stockholders, on demand, at any time after the expiration of ten days therefrom; but such dividend shall in no case exceed the amount of the net profits actually acquired, so that the capital stock of the bank shall never be thereby impaired; and if the directors of the bank shall make any dividends which shall impair the capital stock of the bank, the directors consenting thereto shall be jointly and severally liable in any action of debt, scire facias, or bill in equity, in their individual capacities, to such corporation, for the amount of the stock so divided; and each director present or otherwise when such dividend shall be made, shall be adjudged to be consenting thereto, unless he forthwith enter his protest on the minutes of the board, and give public notice to the stockholders of the declaring of such dividend.

Tax on dividends

SECTION 24. That said banks shall pay into the treasury of the state, in the manner now directed by law for the payment of a tax on dividends, as follows: On all dividends which do not exceed six per centum per annum, eight per centum; on dividends exceeding six per centum, and not exceeding seven per centum, a tax of nine per centum; on dividends exceeding seven per centum, and not eight per centum per annum, a tax of ten per centum; on dividends exceeding eight per centum per annum, and not exceeding nine per centum, a tax of twelve per centum; on dividends exceeding nine per centum, and not exceeding ten per centum, a tax of thirteen per centum; on dividends exceeding ten per centum, and not exceeding eleven per centum, a tax of fifteen per centum; on dividends exceeding eleven per centum, and not exceeding twelve per centum, a tax of seventeen per centum; on dividends exceeding twelve per centum, and not exceeding fifteen, a tax of twenty per centum; on dividends exceeding fifteen per centum, and not exceeding twenty per centum, a tax of twenty-five per centum; and on all dividends exceeding twenty-five per centum, a tax of thirty per centum.

Cashier to make statement on each dividend day.

SECTION 25. That on each dividend day the cashier shall make a full, clear and accurate statement or exhibit of the condition of the bank, as it shall be on that day, after declaring the dividend, which shall be verified by the oath of the president and cashier, setting forth—

I. The amount of the capital stock actually paid in, and then remaining as the actual capital stock of the bank.

II. The amount of the bills and notes of the bank then in circulation, specifying the amount of each denomination.

III. The greatest amount of notes in circulation at any time since the making of the last previous statement, specifying the time when the same occurred.

IV. The balances and debts of every kind due to banks of this state, and the amount due to banks not of this state.

V. The amount due to depositors.

VI. The total amount of debts and liabilities of every description, and the greatest amount since the last previous statement, specifying the time when the same occurred.

VII. The total amount of dividends declared on the day of making the statement.

VIII. The amount of gold and silver coin and bullion belonging to such bank, and in possession at the time of making the statement, designating the amount of each.

IX. The amount on hand of bills, bonds, notes and other evidences of debts discounted or purchased by the bank, specifying, particularly, the amount of suspended debt, the amount considered bad, the amount considered doubtful, and the amount in suit or judgment.

X. The value of the real and personal property held for the convenience of the bank, specifying the amount of each.

XI. The amount of real estate taken for debts due the bank.

XII. The amount of the undivided profits of the bank.

XIII. The total amount of the liabilities to the bank by the directors thereof collectively, specifying the gross amount of such liabilities as principal debtors, and the gross amount as endorsers or sureties.

XIV. The total amount of liabilities to the bank by the stockholders thereof collectively, specifying the gross amount of such liabilities as principal debtors, and the gross amount as endorsers or sureties; which statement shall be forthwith transmitted to the auditor general of the commonwealth, and a copy thereof immediately published three times in two newspapers of the county in which said bank is located: Provided, The same are Proviso. published, one of which papers shall be in the German language if published within the county, else in two English papers.

SECTION 26. That if any bank, against which the auditor general shall have instituted proceedings on account of any supposed act of insolvency as prescribed in this act, shall deny having committed such act of insolvency, such bank may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for a writ of injunction to said auditor general, to suspend all further proceedings against such bank as an insolvent bank, and such court, after citing said auditor general to appear and show cause why such writ should not be granted, and after the finding of a jury that such bank has, at all times, continued and still continues to redeem, in gold and silver coin, its notes of circulation, shall make an order, enjoining the auditor general from all further proceedings against such bank on account of the supposed act of insolvency, on which such proceedings were instituted, and thereupon all the property and assets of such bank shall be restored to its directors.

SECTION 27. That if the auditor general in any case fail to proceed in the manner prescribed in the foregoing sections of this act, in providing for the payment of the outstanding notes of circulation, and other liabilities of the failing bank, and in closing the affairs of any bank that shall have committed an act of insolvency, the holders of any of its notes of circulation or other creditors of such bank may, in case payment of such notes of circulation or other claim has been refused, when lawfully demanded, and remain unpaid, apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for its writ commanding the auditor general so to proceed; and it shall be the duty of the said court, after citing such bank to appear and show cause why such writ should not issue, and upon the finding of a jury that such act of insolvency has been committed, to issue their writ commanding said auditor general forthwith to proceed in the manner pointed out in the preceding sections of this act, to provide for the payment of outstanding notes of such bank, close up its affairs and make application of its assets.

Neglect or refusal of any bank to comply with any order of auditor general.

SECTION 28. That if any bank shall neglect or refuse to comply with any order of the auditor general, made in accordance with the provisions of this act, requiring such bank to reduce its circulation, or to provide a larger amount of specie or other means, or to pay in its stock, or to do or cease to do any other matter or thing which said auditor general may deem necessary for the security of the noteholders and other creditors, then the auditor general may apply to any judge of competent jurisdiction, by petition, in which the auditor general shall be made the petitioner, and the bank implicated defendant, setting forth the substance of such order or orders, and such neglect or refusal on the part of the bank, its officers or agents, and the auditor general having made affidavit of such neglect or refusal, then it shall be the duty of such judge to allow an injunction, and to enjoin such bank, its officers, agents and all others in its employ or connected therewith, from doing, or suffering, or permitting to be done, any business whatever as a bank, from intermeddling with, or in any manner disposing of the books, papers, money, choses in action, assets or property of the bank, until the further order of the judge to whom application had been made as aforesaid; a petition, reciting the proceedings had, shall be filed in the court where proceedings have been had, as soon as the injunction is allowed.

Injunction to enjoin a bank may be allowed.

Upon the allowance of an injunction, assets to go into hands of receiver.

SECTION 29. That upon the allowance of any such injunction, the property, credits, securities, liens and assets of every description, of such bank, shall forthwith vest in the auditor general, who shall appoint a receiver or receivers, to take possession of the same, as is provided heretofore by this act; a certificate of the appointment of such receiver, from the auditor general of this commonwealth, shall be sufficient authority to him to take possession of the books, property and rights of every description of such bank, and shall be full authority to the sheriff of the county where the bank is located, to give such receiver full possession of such books, property and rights, with the aid of the county, if required, and said bank and receiver shall be governed by the provisions of this act.

Certain kind of security not to be taken for loans or discounts.

Purchaser or holder of the capital stock of banks.

SECTION 30. That no bank shall take as security, for any loan or discount, a lien on any part of its capital stock, but the same security, both in kind and amount, shall be required of shareholders as of persons not shareholders, and no bank shall be the holder or purchaser of any portion of its capital, or of the capital stock of any other incorporated bank, unless such purchase shall be necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith, on security, which at the time was deemed adequate to insure the payment of such debt, independent of any lien upon such stock, or in case of forfeitures of stock for the non-payment of installments due thereon, as provided in this act; and stock so purchased shall in no case be held by the bank so purchasing for a longer period of time than six months, if the same can be sold for what the stock cost the said bank, or at par; nor shall any bank, either directly or indirectly ly, pledge, hypothecate or exchange any of its notes of circulation, for the purpose of securing money to be paid in on its capital stock, nor pledge or hypothecate, directly or indirectly, any such notes to be used in its ordinary business operations.

SECTION 31. That each bank shall at all times have on hand, in gold or silver coin, or its equivalent, in its vaults, an amount equal to twenty per centum of all its circulating notes of every description whatsoever, and whenever the amount of its outstanding circulating notes shall exceed the above named proportion, no more of its notes shall be paid out or otherwise put in circulation by such bank, nor shall such bank increase its liabilities by making any new loans or discounts, nor make any dividends of its profits, until the required proportion between its outstanding circulating notes, and gold and silver coin, or its equivalent, shall be restored.

SECTION 32. That no bank shall, during the time it shall continue its operations, withdraw, or permit to be withdrawn, either in form of dividends, loans to stockholders, or in any other manner, any portion of its capital stock; and if losses shall at any time have been sustained by the bank equal to, or exceeding its undivided profits then on hand, no dividends shall be made, and no dividends shall ever be made by a bank while it shall continue its banking operations, to an amount greater than its net profits then on hand, deducting therefrom its losses and bad and suspended debts; and all debts due to a bank on which interest is paid, due and unpaid for a period of six months, unless the same shall be well secured or shall be in process of collection, shall be considered bad and suspended debts within the meaning of this section.

Losses, relative to.

SECTION 33. That no bank shall at any time issue or have in circulation any note, draft, bill of exchange, acceptance, certificate of deposit, or other evidence of debt, which from its character or appearance, shall be circulated or intended to circulate as money, other than such notes of circulation as are by this act described, and which such bank is by this act authorized to issue for the purpose of being circulated as money.

Circulation, relative to.

SECTION 34. That each bank shall receive at par, at the office or banking house of such bank, in payment of dues payable at such bank, for notes of hand, bills of exchange, or other evidences of debt, discounted or purchased by, or belonging to such bank, the notes of circulation issued by any other solvent bank incorporated under the provisions of this act.

Banks to receive at par each other's notes.

SECTION 35. That every bank may take, reserve, receive and charge on any loan or discount made, or upon any note or bill of exchange or other evidence of debt, at the rate of six per centum per annum on the amount of any such note, bill of exchange, or other evidence of debt so discounted, and no more: Provided however, That interest may be reserved or taken in advance at the time of making the loan or discount, according to the usual rules of banking, and the knowingly taking, reserving or charging on any debt or demand discounted or purchased by any bank, a rate of interest greater than that allowed by this section, shall be held and adjudged a forfeiture of such debt or demand; but the purchase or discount of a bona fide bill of exchange or note, payable at another place than the place of such purchase or discount, and the taking or reserving of interest thereon at the rate aforesaid, from the time of such purchase or discount until the maturity of such bill or note, shall not be held usurious, although exchange on the place where it is made payable, is at the time of such purchase or discount worth a premium; nor shall the discount or purchase of a bona fide bill or note payable at a place between which and the place of discount or purchase exchange is in favor of the place of discount or purchase, and the taking in addition to the rate of interest aforesaid, the rate of exchange between such places, be deemed usurious: Provided, That no loan to or discount in favor of any director, in which more than six per centum shall be taken, reserved or charged, shall be forfeited, but the same shall be valid against such party: And provided further, That no director shall be allowed to purchase any note or obligation which has been rejected by the board of directors, except upon the same terms prescribed by the bank.

Proviso.

Proviso.

Transfers of notes, bonds and other evidences of debt.

SECTION 36. That all transfers of notes, bonds, bills of exchange, and other evidences of debt owing to any bank, or of deposits to its credit; all assignments of mortgages or other securities on real estate, or of judgments or decrees in its favor; all deposits of money, bullion or other valuable thing, for its use, or for the use of any of its stockholders or creditors; all payments of money to either, made after the commission of an act of insolvency, or in contemplation thereof, with a view to prevent the application of its assets in the manner prescribed by this act, or with a view to the preference of one creditor to another, except in payment of it circulating notes, shall be held utterly null and void.

SECTION 37. That if the directors of any bank shall knowingly violate, or knowingly permit any of the officers, agents or servants of such bank to violate any of the provisions of this act, all the rights, privileges and franchises of such bank shall thereby be forfeited; such violation shall, however, be determined and adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, agreeably to the laws of this state, and the practice of such court, before the corporation shall be declared dissolved; and in case of such violation, every director who participated in, or assented to the same, shall be held liable, in his personal and individual capacity, for all damages which the bank, its shareholders, or any other persons, body politic or corporate, shall have sustained in consequence of such violation.

SECTION 38. That every president, director, cashier, teller, clerk or agent of any bank who shall embezzle, abstract or wilfully misapply any of the moneys, funds or credits of such bank, or shall, without authority from the directors, issue or put in circulation any of the notes of such bank, or shall, without such authority, issue or put forth any certificate of deposit, draw any order or bill of exchange, make any acceptance, sign any note, bond, draft, bill of exchange, mortgage or other instrument of writing, or shall make any false entry on any book, report or statement of the bank, with an intent, in either case, to injure or defraud such bank, or to injure or defraud any other company, body corporate or politic, or any individual person, or to deceive any officer or agent appointed to inspect the affairs of any bank, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in the penitentiary, at hard labor, not less than one, nor more than ten years. Penalty.

SECTION 39. That the several banks and banking associations of this commonwealth, incorporated for the purposes of banking under special charters, are hereby authorized, by a vote of the stockholders of said institutions, to call in and cancel their circulating notes, and to carry on the business of banking under the provisions of this act; and that any association of citizens who have declared their intention to make application to the present legislature for an act of incorporation to organize a bank of issue, and have caused such advertisement to be made of the same as is required by law, may, with their associates, establish a bank, under the provisions of this act, at any time after its passage: Provided, The attorney general is satisfied, and does certify that such advertisement has been made in conformity with the constitution and present laws of this commonwealth. Banks chartered under special charters, relative to. Proviso.

SECTION 40. That the notes issued by any bank incorporated under this act shall at all times be receivable in payment of all state taxes, and other state dues. Notes to be received in payment of state indebtedness.

SECTION 41. That the general assembly may alter or repeal this act at pleasure; but no act altering or repealing this act shall impose any injustice or wrong upon the stockholders of any bank. Reservations.

A N A C T

Incorporating the Union Bridge Company, at Warren.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That John H. King, John Sill, G. C. James, C. W. Rathburn and J. D. James, and such others as may be associated with them, are hereby incorporated into a company, by the name and style of the Union bridge company, for the purpose of erecting and maintaining a bridge across the Allegheny river, at Warren, in the county of Warren, with a capital of fifteen thousand dollars.

Style.

Capital.

SECTION 2. That the company hereby incorporated shall have the same privileges, and be subject to the same restrictions, as were conferred and imposed on the Warren bridge company by the act incorporating the same, and other laws of this commonwealth relating thereto, except so far as is herein otherwise provided.

Privileges and restrictions.

Subscriptions may be received by either corporation.

Election of officers.

By-laws.

SECTION 3. That it shall be lawful for either of the corpora-tors above named to receive subscriptions to the stock in said company, either in cash, materials or labor, under such conditions as said corporators, or a majority of them, may prescribe.

SECTION 4. That when the sum of five thousand dollars shall have been subscribed, a meeting of the stockholders may be called, for the purpose of electing five directors, who shall elect one of their number president, and to manage and conduct the affairs of said company, notice of which shall be given, either by publication in a newspaper in Warren, or personally, on each stockholder.

SECTION 5. That said company shall have power to make such by-laws, not inconsistent with laws of this commonwealth, as a majority of the stockholders, convened for that purpose, may adopt.

AN ACT

To authorize a lease of the Hempfield Railroad.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the surviving trustees, named in the first mortgage given by the Hempfield railroad company, and their successors in the said trust, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to lease the said railroad to any corporation or corporations, individual or individuals, for such time, and upon such terms and conditions as the president and directors of said company may agree upon, for the purpose of finishing and putting the said road, or part thereof, in full and complete running order, and, also, of equipping and operating the same; and the said trustees or their successors, are further authorized to make and execute all leases and agreements pertaining to the accomplishment of the before named objects: Provided however, That any lease made in pursuance of this act, shall be approved by a majority of the votes of the stockholders of said company, who may be present or represented at a meeting called therefor, of which twenty days' notice shall be given by publication in two or more newspapers, in the borough of Washington and the city of Philadelphia: Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not affect the lien of any mortgage, judgment, or other creditor or bondholder, or in any way interfere with the rights of parties who may have brought suits, or entered upon any other proceedings at law, or in equity, for the recovery or greater security of their claims as creditors of the said company.

AN ACT

Appropriating an area of Ground in Philadelphia as an open Public Place for the health and enjoyment of the People, and also to preserve the purity of the Schuylkill water, at Fairmount.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The strip of ground on the west bank of the river Schuylkill, as hereinafter fully described, should be owned by the city of Philadelphia, to prevent the erection of factories and breweries thereon, whose refuse fluids will flow into the stream, and so pass into the forebay at Fairmount:

And whereas, The natural advantages of the ground (abounding as it does in diversified scenery) fits it eminently for a park, thus securing, in the ownership thereof, a place for the health and recreation of the people, and preserving forever the purity of the water they drink:

And whereas, The rapid expansion of the city on the west of the river Schuylkill, urges immediate action herein; now, therefore,

Boundaries of
for a public park

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the title to and ownership of the area of ground which, according to an accurate survey thereof, is bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on the river Schuylkill, at the intersection of the north line of Bridge street and low water mark in said river; thence along said north side of Bridge street six hundred and twenty-two feet (622) to the easterly side of the Pennsylvania railroad, thirty-seven and one-half feet ( $37\frac{1}{2}$ ) easterly of the centre line thereof; thence along the easterly side of said railroad its several courses four thousand and eighty-two (4082) feet to the easterly side of Thirty-seventh street; thence along the easterly side of said Thirty-seventh street three thousand (3000) feet, to the water line in the dam to supply Fairmount, on the river Schuylkill; thence southerly along the said westerly water line of the river Schuylkill, its several courses and distances, to the place of beginning, excepting therefrom and thereout that part of which the Schuylkill navigation company is seized in fee, shall be vested in the city of Philadelphia, to be laid out and maintained forever as an open public place for the health and enjoyment of the people; and the councils of the city of Philadelphia are hereby empowered, within ninety days from the passage hereof, to enter upon said ground and take immediate possession thereof for the purposes aforesaid.

Valuation, and how paid for.

SECTION 2. That the owner or owners of said ground, by the first section hereof appropriated for public purposes, shall be paid for the same according to the value, which shall be ascertained by a jury of twelve men, appointed (either upon the petition of the city of Philadelphia or of the owners) by the district court of the county of Philadelphia, and their report upon the same shall be final and conclusive; and a mandamus may issue, within six months after the confirmation of said report, to collect the sums awarded, if not paid meanwhile.

SECTION 3. That the chief engineer and surveyor of the city of Philadelphia shall advertise, once a week for four weeks, in five daily newspapers published in the city of Philadelphia, for plans for the improvement of said ground, in the first section hereof described; and the same, when received, shall be considered by himself, in conjunction with the mayor, commissioner of city property, and the presidents of the select and common councils, who shall approve one of them; and the designer thereof shall receive the sum of one thousand dollars.

Amount to be paid for approved plan.

SECTION 4. That upon the approval of the plan as provided for in the foregoing section, the commissioner of city property shall advertise for proposals for the improvement of said ground according to said plan, and shall award the contract to the lowest bidder, who shall perform the work under the supervision of the designer of the plan.

Proposals to be received for the improvement of grounds, &c.

SECTION 5. That this act shall not take effect until the councils of Philadelphia shall, by ordinance, declare their approval thereof.

AN ACT

To authorize the appointment of Commissioners to examine and adjust Certain Claims.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It is just and proper that the commonwealth of Pennsylvania should afford such of her citizens, as have equitable claims against her, opportunity of showing the same:

And whereas, The said commonwealth has certain sums of money due, and owing to her, from James J. Dull, which claims are not disputed, but the said Dull alleges that the said commonwealth is justly indebted to him, as assignee of J. K. Moorhead and Henry L. Patterson, contractors on the Allegheny Portage railroad, for work and labor done, and materials furnished to said road; therefore,

Commissioners to examine and adjust the claims.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That William Overfield, Jr., Eli Slifer and Thomas E. Cochran, be and are hereby appointed commissioners, to examine, settle and adjust the claims between the commonwealth of Pennsylvania and James J. Dull.

Duties of commissioners.

SECTION 2. The said commissioners shall, as soon as practicable, after notice, sit at Harrisburg, and proceed to perform the duties imposed upon them by this act, by hearing evidence, et cetera, and shall, after adjusting the claims of each of the said parties, strike a balance; which claims and balance they shall report to the legislature, and in case any balance shall be found to be due to the said Dull, the state treasurer shall pay the same out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated: Provided however, That if the just claims of the said Dull, as proven to the said commissioners, shall exceed the sum found by them to be due and owing by the said Dull to the commonwealth, then the said commissioners shall charge the said Dull with the whole of any sum or sums of money which may be due to the said commonwealth from him, as surety or co-obligor on any official bond given to the said commonwealth, reserving, however, to the said Dull, his legal remedy over against such principal, co-sureties or co-obligors: And provided, That the ex- Proviso.

Proviso

 pense of the commission, as created by this act, shall be paid jointly by the said Dull, and the commonwealth of Pennsylv-vania: And provided further, That this act shall not be con- Proviso.

To incorporate the Brownsburg Delaware Bridge Company.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It is represented to the legislature, by the petition of a number of the inhabitants of the county of Bucks, that the erection of a bridge over the Delaware river, at Brownsburg, would be a great convenience and accommodation to the public; therefore,

Capital stock.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the capital stock of the Brownsburg Delaware bridge company shall amount to twenty thousand dollars, with the privilege of increasing the same to twenty-five thousand dollars, and the same shall be divided into shares of fifty dollars each; and the subscribers to the said capital stock shall pay the sum or sums of money for the share or shares by them respectively subscribed, at such periods and in such proportions as the president and directors of the said company may determine.

Commissioners.

SECTION 2. That Stacy Brown, John A. Beaumont, James M'Nair and John Eastburn be and they are hereby appointed commissioners on the part of this state, who, with commissioners to be appointed by the state of New Jersey, shall be authorized to receive subscriptions to the said capital stock, at such times and places as they, or a majority of them, may direct, giving notice thereof in two newspapers printed in the county of Bucks, in this state, and in two newspapers printed in the county of Mercer, in the state of New Jersey, for twenty days at least, of the time and places when and where the said subscription shall be received; and at the time of subscribing for the said stock, five dollars shall be paid, upon each share subscribed for, to the commissioners, or some of them; which money shall be paid over to the treasurer of the company as soon as one shall be appointed, and that the residue of the subscriptions shall be paid in such instalments, and at such times and places, and to such persons as the president and directors of the company shall from time to time direct, and give public notice of; and upon failure of payment thereof, as so directed, for thirty days thereafter, the said president and directors shall have power to forfeit the shares of each and every person failing to pay the said instalments, or any of them, to and for the use of the said company: Provided, That if the number of shares subscribed for shall exceed the amount or number of shares authorized by this act to be subscribed for, that then the said commissioners shall apportion the said stock among such stockholders, in proportion to the amount or number of shares by them subscribed as aforesaid.

Proviso.

SECTION 3. That when three hundred shares are subscribed for, the persons holding the same shall be and they are hereby incorporated into a company, by the name of the Brownsburg Delaware bridge company; and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and all the privileges and franchises incident to a corporation; and shall be capable of taking and holding their said capital stock, and the increase and profits thereof; and of purchasing, taking and holding, to them, and their successors and assigns, in fee simple or for any less estate, such lands as may be necessary in the erection of said bridge and suitable toll houses, and of suing and being sued.

When to be incorporated into a company.
Name.

SECTION 4. That as soon as three hundred shares of the said capital stock shall be subscribed as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to give notice, in two or more of the newspapers printed in the county of Bucks, in the state of Pennsylvania, and the county of Mercer, in the state of New Jersey, of a time and place by them to be appointed, not less than thirty days from the time of issuing the said notice, at which time and place the said stockholders shall proceed to organize the said company, and shall choose by ballot, by a majority of votes, to be delivered in person or by proxy, one president, six directors, one secretary and one treasurer, and such other officers as they shall think necessary to conduct the business of the said company until the next annual election, and shall make such by-laws and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this state or of the United States, as shall be necessary for well ordering the affairs of the said company: Provided, That no person shall have more than twenty votes at an election, and that each person shall be entitled to one vote for every share by him held not exceeding ten, and one vote for every two shares above ten and not exceeding twenty, and one vote for every five shares above twenty, until the number of votes amounts to twenty.

Proviso.

Annual election. SECTION 5. That the said stockholders shall meet on the first Monday in January in every succeeding year, at such place as shall be fixed by the by-laws of said company, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year.

Certificates of stock, relative to SECTION 6. That the president and directors first to be chosen as aforesaid, shall issue certificates of stock to the several stockholders respectively, signed by the president and countersigned by the treasurer of the said company, which certificates shall be transferable at his or her pleasure, in person or by attorney, subject, however, to the payments due and may grow due thereon; and the assignee holding any certificate, having first caused the assignment and transfer to be entered in a book of the company to be kept by the treasurer for that purpose, shall, for every share of stock so held by him or her, be entitled to his or her equal proportion of the said capital stock, and of all the estates and emoluments of the company, to vote as aforesaid, at the meetings thereof.

Times and places of meeting of directors. SECTION 7. That the said president and directors shall meet at such times and places, and be convened in such manner as shall be agreed on for transacting their business; at such meetings five members shall be a quorum, who, in the absence of the president, may choose a chairman, and shall keep minutes of all their transactions, fairly entered in a book by the secretary; and a quorum being met, they shall have full power and authority to agree with and appoint such engineers, superintendents, artists and other officers as they shall think necessary to carry on said bridge, and complete the same, and fix their salaries and other wages, to determine the time, manner and proportions in which the stockholders shall pay the money due on their respective shares, to draw orders on the treasurer for all money that may be required, the same to be signed by the president and attested by the secretary of the board, and to do and transact all matters and things as by the by-laws or regulations of the said company shall be lawful.

Site and erection of bridge. SECTION 8. That after the place for the erection of the said bridge shall be fixed, and before the said president and directors shall proceed to erect the same, it shall and may be lawful for the said president and directors to contract and agree with the owner or owners of any lands and tenements, for the purchase of so much thereof as shall be necessary for the purpose of erecting and perfecting the said bridge, and making and establishing all the necessary works and roads to and from the same, if they can agree with the owner or owners of the same; but in case they cannot agree, then it shall and may be lawful for the president and directors to apply to one of the judges of the supreme court of this state, not being a stockholder or otherwise interested, who, upon such application, is hereby authorized and directed to appoint three discreet and disinterested freeholders of this state, who, after being duly sworn or affirmed before any justice of the peace faithfully to perform the duties enjoined upon them by this act, shall proceed to view and examine said banks, and all such lands and tenements as shall be necessary for the purpose of erecting and perfecting said bridge, and making and establishing all necessary works and roads to and from the same; and shall, according to the best of their skill and judgment, ascertain and estimate the injury and damage that will be sustained by the owner or owners of such lands and tenements so necessary to be taken as aforesaid, and shall report what sum shall be paid by the said company for the same; which report shall be made in writing, under their hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any two of them, and shall return the same, together with a map describing the metes and bounds of such lands and tenements, to the supreme court next after they shall have agreed upon and signed the same; and the said report, having been confirmed by the supreme court, shall be filed in the clerk's office of the said court, with the map aforesaid; and the said president and directors having paid the said owners, respectively, the several sums awarded to be paid to them in and by the said report, together with the fees of the said arbitrators, at the rate of two dollars to each for every day employed in the said business, and their necessary expenses, the said company shall be entitled to have and to hold, to them and their successors and assigns forever, the said lands and tenements, as fully and effectually as if the same had been granted to them by the respective owners thereof; and it shall and may be lawful thereupon, and not before, for the said president and directors to enter upon the said lands and tenements, and to commence and to complete the erection of the said bridge.

SECTION 9. That it shall and may be lawful for the president and directors aforesaid, their superintendents, engineers and artists of every kind, to enter into and upon all lands and enclosures near to the place where the said bridge is to be built, and examine the ground for the purpose of obtaining stone, gravel or sand for the building of the said bridge; and shall and may be lawful for the said president, directors, overseers, superintendents, or any other person, in building the said bridge, to enter with wagons, carts, sleds or sleighs, or beasts of burden or draught of any kind whatsoever, first giving notice to the owners, doing as little damage as possible, and repairing any breaches of fences they may have occasion to make, and first making amends for any damage that may be done; which damage shall be ascertained by the parties, if they can agree, or if they cannot agree, then by the appraisement thereof, to be made upon oath or affirmation of three disinterested freeholders of the neighborhood, or any two of them, to be mutually chosen; or if the owner, or president and directors, superintendents, engineers or artists, upon due notice, shall neglect or refuse to join in the choice, then the said freeholders to be appointed by any justice of the peace of the county, not interested on either side; and the said president and directors, or other persons by them employed as aforesaid, after tender of the appraised value to the owner, may enter, and dig and carry away any stone, gravel, sand or earth, most conveniently situated for making and repairing said bridge.

Authorized to enter upon lands to obtain materials for constructing bridge, &c.

SECTION 10. That the president and directors of the said company shall keep fair and just accounts of all moneys received by them from the said commissioners and from the stockholders, and of the profits on shares that may be forfeited, as aforesaid, and of all voluntary contributions, and, also, of all moneys by them expended in the prosecution of the said work, and shall

SECTION 11. That when a good and complete bridge is erected over the said river Delaware, at the place aforesaid, the property of the said bridge shall be vested in the said company, their successors and assigns, forever; and the said company, their successors and assigns, may demand and receive toll from travelers and others, not to exceed the following rates: For every coach, landau, chariot, phaeton, or other pleasureable carriage with four wheels, drawn by four horses, the sum of sixty cents; for the same kind of carriage with two horses, the sum of forty cents; for every wagon with four horses, the sum of fifty cents; for every carriage of the same description, drawn by two horses, forty cents; for every chaise, riding chair, sulky, cart, or other two wheel carriage, or a sleigh or sled, with two horses, the sum of thirty cents; for the same with one horse, the sum of fifteen cents; for a single horse and rider, the sum of ten cents; for every led or driven horse or mule, the sum of five cents; for every foot passenger, the sum of two cents; for every head of horned cattle, the sum of three cents; for every sheep or swine, the sum of one cent: Provided, That all persons going to and returning from funerals, persons going to and returning from meeting or church on the Sabbath, children going to and returning from school, all persons going to or returning from military trainings or parade, shall pass free of toll: Provided also, That fixing the toll of all carriages drawn wholly by oxen, or partly by horses and partly by oxen, two oxen shall be estimated equal to one horse; and the said company shall so erect the said bridge as in nowise to injure, stop or interrupt the navigation of the said river, or prevent boats or craft from passing, or persons from fording the said river.

SECTION 12. That if any person or persons shall wilfully cut or destroy, break or remove from off the said bridge, or any part thereof, any piece or pieces of timber, plank or planks, stone or stones, chain or chains, bolt or bolts, or any other material whatsoever belonging to said bridge, or otherwise wilfully or maliciously damage the same, he, she or they so offending, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, over and above the damages done to the said bridge, the sum of thirty dollars, to be recovered before any justice of the peace in the county of Bucks, in the state of Pennsylvania, or the county of Mercer, in the state of New Jersey.

SECTION 13. That if the said company, their successors and assigns, and whosoever shall own or possess the said bridge, shall collect or demand any greater rate or prices for the passing over the said bridge than what are hereinbefore prescribed and specified, or shall neglect to keep the said bridge in good order and repair, he, she or they so offending, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of thirty dollars, one-third thereof for the use of the poor of the county of Bucks, in the state of Pennsylvania, and one-third thereof to the use of the poor of the township of Hopewell, Mercer county, in the state of New Jersey, and the other third to the use of the person who may sue for the same: Provided always, That no suit or action shall be brought unless within sixty days after such offence shall be committed.

SECTION 14. That the said president and directors and company shall also keep a just and true account of all and every the moneys received by their respective collector or collectors of toll, for crossing the said bridge; and shall make and declare a dividend of the profits and income thereof among all the stockholders of the said company, deducting first therefrom all contingent costs and charges, and such proportion of said income as may be deemed necessary for a growing fund, to provide against the decay and for the re-building and repairing the said bridge; and shall on every first Monday in January and July, in each and every year, publish the dividend to be made of the said clear profits thereof amongst the stockholders, and the time and place when and where the same shall be paid, and shall cause the same to be paid accordingly. To keep account of all moneys received, &c.
Dividends.

SECTION 15. That this act shall not take effect or go into operation until the legislature of the state of New Jersey shall pass a law appointing commissioners on their part, vesting like power and authority in the subscribers to the said capital stock, of erecting a bridge at the place aforesaid, and of extending the same from shore to shore, with as full and ample powers, privileges, franchises and emoluments, as to the said company are hereby given. Assent of the legislature of New Jersey to be had.

SECTION 16. That nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to authorize the said bridge company to exercise any banking privileges, or to issue any bank note or notes in the nature of bank notes; and the legislature reserves the right of altering, amending or annulling the charter whenever they think proper. Construction.

SECTION 17. That the president and directors may and shall have power and authority, instead of forfeiting shares for non-payment of instalments, of enforcing the payment of all instalments due, as other debts of similar amounts are recovered, as to them may be deemed best. To authorize the erection of a Poor House by the township of Wilkesbarre, in Luzerne county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Commissioners. E. W. Sturdevant, William Hibler, John W. Horton, Alexander

M'Clane and Thomas Quick, junior, of the township of Wilkesbarre, in Luzerne county, be and are hereby appointed commissioners, whose duty it shall be, or a majority of them, as soon after the passage of this act as practicable, to determine upon, and with the assent of the court of the quarter sessions of Luzerne county, purchase such real estate as may be necessary and proper for the accommodation of the poor of the township of Wilkesbarre aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for said commissioners to take and receive proper conveyances therefor, in the name and for the use of the corporation mentioned in the second section of this act; and upon the receipt of such conveyance, to execute, in the name of said corporation, and deliver to the vendee or vendees, bonds or mortgage upon said real estate, to secure the payment of so much of the purchase money thereof as shall then remain unpaid, and also to erect thereon suitable buildings for the accommodation and keeping of the poor of said township; and they are also authorized and empowered to borrow such sum or sums of money as may, in their opinion, be advisable and necessary, not exceeding four thousand dollars, to be used in the payment of the expense of purchasing said farm and erecting said buildings, and to secure the payment of the same by bonds and mortgages on said real estate.

SECTION 2. That the said E. W. Sturdevant, William Hibler, John W. Horton, Alexander M'Clane and Thomas Quick, junior, are hereby constituted directors of the poor in the township aforesaid, until successors are appointed and qualified, as hereinafter provided; and they, and their successors in office, are hereby created a body politic and corporate, in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, relative to the poor of said township, and shall have perpetual succession, by the name, style and title of the directors of the poor of Wilkesbarre township; and by that name may be sued, plead and be impleaded, receive, take and hold any lands, tenements and hereditaments, not exceeding the yearly value of three thousand dollars, to erect and keep in proper condition suitable buildings for the reception, use, accommodation and employment of the poor of said township, and to provide all things necessary for the lodging, maintenance and employment of the poor of said township.

SECTION 3. That the said E. W. Sturdevant, William Hibler, John W. Horton, Alexander M'Clane and Thomas Quick, junior, shall continue in office as directors until the annual March election in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, at which time the qualified electors of said township shall elect three persons to serve as directors of the poor of said township, one to serve for one year, one for two years, and one for three years, and yearly thereafter the said electors shall elect one person to serve as director as aforesaid for three years; and the returns of all elections under this act, and proceedings connected therewith, shall be the same as in the case of the election of township officers: Provided, That any vacancy in the said office of director, by resignation or otherwise, shall be filled by the court of quarter sessions of Luzerne county until the next ensuing election of directors, when the said vacancy shall be filled by election, under the limitations aforesaid; and the said court shall have power to remove any director for gross neglect of Officers.

SECTION 4. That the said directors shall, before entering upon the duties of their office, be duly sworn or affirmed to faithfully discharge the duties of said office; and the persons herein appointed directors shall, as soon as they shall think proper after the passage of this act, appoint a treasurer, steward or superintendent, collector of poor taxes, and such other assistants as they shall deem necessary, who shall serve until successors are appointed; and in the month of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and in the month of January in each year thereafter, the said directors shall appoint a treasurer, a collector, a steward, physician, and such other assistants as they may deem necessary, to serve for one year, and until successors are appointed and qualified; the said treasurer and collector to give bonds, with sufficient security, conditioned for the faithful performance of their respective duties, in such sum as the directors may require; any of said officers or assistants may be removed by said directors for neglect of duty, or for improper conduct in office, and the vacancies, as well as all vacancies which shall otherwise occur, to be filled by them.

Tax to be laid and collected.

SECTION 5. That the said directors, any two of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, shall have power annually, as soon after the returns of the annual assessments in said county as is practicable, to lay a rate or assessment, not exceeding one cent on the dollar at one time, upon all real and personal estates within the township aforesaid, for defraying the expenses of purchasing said farm, erecting said buildings, and maintaining the poor of said township, which shall be the same rate per centum in said township, and shall be levied upon the basis of the last adjusted valuation made for regulating county rates and levies; and having caused fair duplicates of such rate or assessment by them laid to be made, which shall be signed by them, shall issue their warrant to the collector of such tax therein, authorizing and requiring him to demand, receive and collect, from every person therein named, the sum wherewith such person stands charged, in the manner and by the same process as poor taxes are now by law collectable; and the said directors shall, from the time of providing by them of suitable buildings for the accommodation of said poor, exercise and perform all the powers and duties which overseers of the poor may and are now required by law to exercise and perform within said township, except so far as such acts, duties and powers as are herein expressly prescribed or limited.

Statement and certificate to be filed.

SECTION 6. That the said directors shall, as soon as they shall have provided suitable buildings for the accommodation of the poor of said township, file in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of Luzerne county, a certificate, setting forth that such buildings are ready for the reception and accommodation of said poor; which certificate shall also contain a statement of the real estate purchased, with a brief description of the buildings thereon, the cost of procuring and fitting up the same; and they shall also thereupon give notice to the overseers of the poor of said township of their readiness to receive and accommodate the poor thereof, which said overseers are required forthwith to furnish said directors with a list of the names of the persons then a charge upon said township, or receiving relief therefrom, with the place of residence of each; and the said directors shall thereupon cause such poor persons, or such of them as they shall think it expedient, to be removed to said house so provided, and thereafter to be kept, lodged and maintained therein, so long as such persons shall continue a charge upon said township; and no person who shall refuse to go to said poor house, or to be maintained therein, shall be entitled to relief or support from said directors, or from said township, during the time of such refusal: Provided however, That said directors may, if they think proper, furnish assistance and afford relief to any poor persons, without requiring them to be removed to and kept at said poor house.

Their duties.

Proviso.

SECTION 7. That the said directors are hereby authorized to provide work and employment, for such poor persons as may be able to perform any labor, or pursue any employment, and if any poor person unless unable, by reason of age, infancy, disease, infirmity or other disability, shall refuse to perform such reasonable labor or service, as shall be allotted to or required of him or her by said directors, such person or persons shall not be entitled to, or receive any relief or assistance during such refusal, and shall immediately upon such refusal, be discharged from said poor house.

Employment of the poor.

SECTION 8. That the overseers of the poor of the township aforesaid, shall, as soon as notified by the directors, in the manner provided for in the sixth section of this act, cease to act as overseers of the poor in said township, except so far as may be required to settle, adjust and close their accounts as overseers with said township, or with persons with whom they have transacted business; and they shall, upon demand, deliver to the said directors, transcripts of all poor taxes remaining unpaid on duplicates in their hands, together with all books, papers, orders and documents, pertaining to their office as overseers, and shall also pay to the said directors, or to the treasurer appointed by them, all the moneys unexpended in their hands, belonging to the said township, and the said directors shall forthwith issue their warrant to the collector, for the collection of all such unpaid poor taxes, which shall be collected in the same manner as is provided for the collection of taxes assessed by said directors.

Duty of overseers

SECTION 9. That if upon a final settlement by said overseers of the township aforesaid, of their account as overseers, any balance shall be found due them, or either of them, the said balance due shall be certified by the auditors making such settlement, and thereupon the said directors are required to issue their order upon the treasurer, in favor of such overseer or overseers for the amount or amounts so certified to be due.

Balances to be paid.

SECTION 10. That the steward or manager of said poor house is hereby required yearly, on the first Monday in January in each year, to furnish to said directors, a statement of the income of said real estate, as nearly as the same can be done; also of excess of his expenditures over and above said income, the amount and kind of personal property then on hand, including grain, et cetera, the number of persons admitted and discharged during the year, with the number then therein, the length of time each remained, and the age and sex of each; the treasurer shall annually, on the first Monday of each year, render to said directors, a just and correct account of his receipts and disbursements during the preceding year; and the said directors shall annually, in the month of January in each year, publish in one or more newspapers, that may be published in borough of Wilkesbarre, a statement of the receipts, disbursements and expenditures of said corporation during the preceding year, with a statement of property, real and personal, then held by them.

Publication to be made.

Auditors.

SECTION 11. That the auditors of the township of Wilkesbarre shall constitute a board of auditors to settle the accounts of the directors; and which auditors shall meet for that purpose on the second Monday of January in each year, and shall receive for their services each one dollar per day, for every day necessarily employed.

Orders for relief.

SECTION 12. That all orders issued for the relief of any poor person or persons, within said township, after the filing of the certificates mentioned in the sixth section of this act, shall be directed to the directors of the poor of Wilkesbarre township; and upon the receipt of such orders, said directors, or any one of them, shall immediately proceed to inquire into the circumstances, and if the person or persons therein named, are found by him to be entitled to relief, he or they shall furnish such relief, or cause such person or persons to be removed and taken to said poor house, and there kept and maintained until legally discharged; any one of said directors shall have authority to direct a poor person to be admitted into said poor house; but no person shall be discharged therefrom unless at his or her own request, except by the direction of at least two of said directors.

Binding out of children.

SECTION 13. That the said directors are hereby authorized to bind out the poor children under their care, whose parents are dead or unable to support them, as apprentices, in the same manner and under the same restrictions as the overseers of the poor may now by law put out such children; and the said directors shall exercise the same power and authority over all real and personal estate of any poor person under their care, as is now by law vested in the overseers of the poor.

Pay of officers.

SECTION 14. That the compensation of the treasurer, collector, steward, matron, physician, and other officers or assistants, shall be fixed by the directors, and the compensation of the directors shall be fixed by the board of auditors, at each yearly settlement, for the next succeeding year: Provided, That the compensation of said directors, from the passage of the act until the first settlement, shall be fixed by the board of auditors at the first yearly settlement; the said directors to furnish the said auditors a correct account of the time and expenses lost and incurred by them, in attending to their duties, from which account the said compensation shall be fixed and adjusted.

Proviso.

Appeals.

SECTION 15. That the said directors or treasurer, or any one or more of the tax-payers of said township, may, within twenty days from the yearly settlement by the auditors as aforesaid, appeal from such settlement to the court of common pleas of Luzerne county, in the same manner, and under the same provisions and regulations, that appeals from settlements by township auditors are now allowed.

SECTION 16. That no moneys shall be paid by the treasurer except upon orders drawn by the directors and signed by at least two of said directors. Treasurer.

SECTION 17. That all acts of assembly, or parts of acts, hereby supplied or inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed. Repeal.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT

To the act to incorporate the Norristown and Freemansburg Railroad Company, passed April third, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, by supplement, passed April sixth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, changed to the corporate name of the Norristown and Allentown Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the charter of the Norristown and Allentown railroad company be and is hereby extended for the period of eight years from the passage of this act, so far as relates to the completion of the said road; and that the making of surveys by authority of the board of directors, the issuing of stock by the corporation, the paying in of instalments due on stock, and the election of a board of directors, president and other officers annually by said corporation, is hereby deemed and declared to be a commencement of the said road.

Charter extended as relates to completion.

SECTION 2. That it shall and may be lawful for the Norristown and Allentown railroad company to sell to and merge the whole or any part of its corporate rights, powers, franchises and privileges, into the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown railroad company, so that, by virtue of this act, the Norristown and Allentown railroad company may, from time to time, as hereinafter provided, sell and transfer the whole or any part of its property, right, franchises and privileges to the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown railroad company.

May merge its rights, &c., into another road.

SECTION 3. That said sale and transfer shall be made under the following conditions and restrictions, to wit: That the directors or board of managers of each of said corporations may enter into a joint agreement, under the corporate seal of each company, for the sale and transfer of the Norristown and Allentown railroad by sections, prescribing the terms and conditions,

Conditions and restrictions of sale and transfer and the manner of converting the capital stock, or any part thereof, into the capital stock of the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown railroad company, and all other such provisions as they shall deem necessary to perfect the said sale and transfer: Provided however, That no transfer shall take place until the Norristown and Allentown railroad company shall have graded and laid the track upon at least nine miles of their road, commencing at Norristown terminus and running toward the Allentown terminus; and as each additional section of five miles or more is from time to time graded, and the track thereon laid, the same may be transferred, until all the corporate rights and privileges and franchises of the Norristown and Allentown railroad company are merged in the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown railroad company; said agreement, providing for the sale and transfer, shall be submitted to the stockholders of each of the said companies, at a meeting thereof, called separately, for the purpose of considering the same; of the time, place and object of the meeting due public notice shall be given, by publication in at least one newspaper published in the city of Philadelphia, and in each of the counties through which the said roads respectively pass; and at the said meeting of the stockholders the agreement of the said directors shall be considered, and a vote by ballot taken for the adoption or rejection of the same, each share entitling the holder thereof to one vote; and the ballots shall be cast in person or by proxy; and if a majority of all the votes cast at each of such meetings shall be in favor of the adoption of said agreement, then that fact shall be certified by the secretary of such company, which, together with a copy of the agreement, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of the commonwealth, and shall be deemed and taken to be the agreement, and act of sale, and transfer of so much of the road as is contained in said article of agreement; and every section of the said road thus sold and transferred, shall be the absolute property of the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown railroad company, and be under and subject to their control as firmly and effectually as if originally embraced in act of incorporation of the said Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown railroad company; the said agreement for the sale and transfer may be entered into at any time after the passage of this act.

SECTION 4. That the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown railroad company, for the purpose of effecting said purchase and transfer, are hereby authorized to create and issue shares of their stock, of the par value of fifty dollars each, to the stockholders of the Norristown and Allentown railroad company, in amount sufficient to pay such price as may be agreed upon and stipulated by each of the said companies, as part of the agreement of such sale and transfer; and the stock so created and issued shall become part of the capital stock of the said Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown railroad company, and the holders thereof shall become stockholders in said company, and enjoy such privileges as are stipulated in said written agreement of sale and transfer.

New shares of stock may be issued to stockholders of Norristown and Allentown railroad company.

SECTION 5. That if it shall be deemed advisable, the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown railroad company are hereby Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown railroad company to elect additional directors, &c.

authorized, at the next annual election after the sale and transfer of the first section of the Norristown and Allentown railroad as aforesaid, to elect three additional directors, in the same manner as their directors are now elected, and thereafter their board shall consist of fifteen directors, to be elected as is provided by their charter; and the three directors thus elected as above, shall determine, by casting lots, whose term shall expire in one year, whose term shall expire in two years, and whose term shall expire in three years: Provided however, That this section, to become part of the charter of said company, shall be embraced in the said written agreement, and be submitted to the vote of the stockholders of said company as part of said agreement.

Proviso.

Certified copies of proceedings to be recorded.

SECTION 6. That a certified copy, under oath or affirmation, of the proceedings of said meetings of stockholders, made by the secretaries thereof, respectively, and attached to said agreement, shall be duly recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds for the city of Philadelphia, and in the counties of Montgomery and Lehigh; and certified copies thereof shall be evidence of the lawful holding and action of such meetings, and of the sale and transfer of any section of the Norristown and Allentown railroad to the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown railroad company.

Supplementary to an act incorporating the town of Lawrenceville into a borough, approved the thirteenth day of February, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four.

Paving streets, alleys, &c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That whenever the town council of the borough of Lawrenceville, in the county of Allegheny, shall consider the paving of any street, lane or alley in said borough necessary for the convenience of the citizens thereof, it shall and may be lawful for said council to ordain, enact, repeal or amend all such by-laws, ordinances, rules and regulations as shall be deemed expedient for paving such street, lane or alley, subject to the following provisions.

SECTION 2. That immediately after the completion by said borough of the pavement of any street, lane or alley, for a distance not less than one square, pursuant to existing laws, the cost of materials furnished and paving done on such street, lane or alley, shall be ascertained by the burgess of said borough, and equally apportioned among the owners of any lots bounding and abutting on said street, lane or alley, in proportion to the feet front thereon, and comprised and bounding and abutting as aforesaid; and the burgess of said borough shall give to such owner or owners, or his, her or their agent, of any lot or lots before which any paving is done as aforesaid, a certificate in writing of the amount so ascertained to have been expended by the said borough in paving in front of his, her or their lot or lots; and if, within thirty days after said notice is given, he, she or they, or either of them, shall refuse or neglect to pay to the treasurer of said borough the amount specified in such certificate, in the manner hereinafter provided, then it shall and may be lawful for the council in said borough to collect the amount claimed, of the owner or owners of any lot or lots, by an action of debt, in the corporate name of said borough, as debts of like amount are at law collected, and the same shall be a lien on such lot or lots from the time such work is done as aforesaid; but if the owner or owners of any such lot or lots does not reside in the said borough, then and in that case a certificate put up on such lot or lots shall be notice to the owner or owners thereof; and after default for the space of thirty days, it shall and may be lawful for the said burgess to file a certificate of the amount of such material and paving, signed by him, and attested by the clerk of the council, in the office of the prothonotary of the court of common pleas for the county of Allegheny, setting forth the amount due by the said owner or owners, and it shall be the duty of the prothonotary to enter the same on his docket; which certificate shall have the same operation and effect as a judgment of the said court, and execution may issue thereon, in like manner as in judgments, for the amount remaining unpaid, with costs: Provided, That if any owner or owners of any lot or lots, against whom any certificate shall be filed as aforesaid, shall make an affidavit before the prothonotary of the said court, or any magistrate, that he, she or they may have a just defence to a whole or a part of the amount so claimed in such certificate, and file the same in the office of said prothonotary within thirty days of the filing of said certificate, and not after, then the prothonotary of said court shall put the cause on the trial list of the next regular term of said court, to be there tried and determined by the court and jury as cases of appeal to said court: Provided further, That this act shall not be so construed as to require the Citizens' Passenger railway company to pave more than one-half of any street in said borough.

Authorizing Abraham Varns, of the borough of New Buffalo, Perry county, to sell and convey certain Real Estate.

WHEREAS, Abraham Varns, of the borough of New Buffalo, Perry county, is the owner of a certain house and lot situate in the said borough, which he purchased from one George Leshner, for the sum of four hundred and sixty dollars, as fully described in a certain deed of conveyance executed to him the said Abraham Varns, dated the eighteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and recorded among the records of said county, in book Q, volume one, page three hundred and seventy-one :

And whereas, The said Abraham Varns is now very aged and infirm, and incapable of supporting himself and earning a livelihood, and has no other means for his support than the rents derived from the said real estate, which he acquired and owned before his marriage with his present wife, Maria Varns :

And whereas, His said wife has since their marriage, to wit : on the fourth of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, been found and declared to be a lunatic by virtue of a commission de lunatico inquirendo, regularly issued out of the court of common pleas of the said county, and is now an inmate of the Pennsylvania State Lunatic hospital and Union asylum for the insane, and is pronounced to be incurable :

And whereas, The said Abraham Varns, for the purpose of raising means for the support of himself and family, the rents arising from the said real estate being entirely inadequate for said purpose, is desirous to sell and convey the said property and make title to the purchaser, but cannot do so by reason of the hopeless insanity of his said wife, and the courts possess no power to relieve him in this emergency ; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the said Abraham Varns shall have and possess the power to sell and convey, in fee simple, the said real estate, so that the purchaser thereof shall receive the same clear of the incumbrance and divested of all present or future claim of dower in favor of his said wife, the same title to pass to the purchaser as if she were now naturally dead : Provided, That before any such sale be made, the truth of the statements contained in the preamble of this act shall be made to appear satisfactorily to the court of common pleas of said county, by proper depositions or otherwise, who, upon being so satisfied, shall order such sale to be made, and the purchase money paid to said Abraham Varns ; a record of which said order shall be regularly made on the minutes of said court, and the costs of the same be paid by the alienor.

AN ACT

Empowering the Orphans' Court of Armstrong county to decree distribution of the funds belonging to the Estate of John Woodburn, deceased, in the hands of his Executors.

WHEREAS, John Woodburn, late of the borough of Freeport, county of Armstrong, deceased, by his last will and testament, did, among other things, direct that his executors, John Woods, Esq., and Jacob Shoop, purchase with the residue of his estate, after the payment of all debts, a small piece of land, as near Freeport aforesaid as they could get it, for the use of his family, as soon as they thought expedient and convenient, of which his widow should have the management and control as long as she lived and remained his widow; and that after her death or marriage, the same, as also whatever money remained in the executors' hands after supporting the said widow and children of said deceased, should be equally divided among all his children, but not until they had arrived at the age of twenty-one years:

And whereas, The said executors have settled their final account in the orphans' court of Armstrong county, which was, on the nineteenth day of October, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, confirmed by said court, whereby it appears that the said executors have in their hands moneys belonging to said estate to the amount of nine hundred and thirty-six dollars and ninety-seven cents, which bears interest from the said nineteenth day of October, of which the said John Woods, Esq., has in his hands three hundred and fifty-two dollars and seventy-nine cents, and Jacob Shoop, five hundred and eighty-four dollars and eighteen cents; and the said widow and children, (some of the latter being minors,) being willing and desirous that said executors shall not purchase the land aforesaid, but shall make equal distribution of the said funds in their hands, amongst said children; now therefore, shall die before said distribution shall be decreed, the said deceased child shall be represented by his or her legal heirs, to whom the said court shall decree the share of such deceased child.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the orphans' court of Armstrong county aforesaid, shall have full power and authority to decree distribution of the aforesaid funds, belonging to the estate of John Woodburn, deceased, in the hands of his aforesaid executors, equally among his children, James Woodburn, Robert H. Woodburn, Wm. Woodburn, Elizabeth Woodburn, Margaret Ann Woodburn, Martha Jane Woodburn and Mary Woodburn, which shall be decreed to be payable in such instalments, and at such times as the said widow and children, and the guardian of those that are minors, shall have agreed to or may hereafter agree to with said executors in writing, which writing shall be filed in said court and be made a part of the decree thereof: Provided, That if any of said children

Supplemental to an act to incorporate the Glenwood Cemetery Company.

WHEREAS, The property of the Glenwood cemetery company was originally divided into a certain number of shares, the holders of which alone elect the board of directors: Preamble.

And whereas, The said shares were not, under the act of assembly to which this is a supplement, liable to assessment, nor were the lots laid out upon the grounds of the said company, the inconvenience of which is now felt by the said company in view of the expenses incurred in improving and beautifying the said grounds, and in meeting the yearly charges and taxes thereon:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Glenwood cemetery company to assess upon its several shares of stock whatever sums of money may, in the opinion of the board of directors, be deemed necessary, to be determined by a vote of two-thirds of the directors present at any stated or at a special meeting called for that purpose, for the purpose of discharging the present indebtedness of the said company; and when such assessment shall be made, notice thereof shall be given to the shareholders, respectively, of the amount so assessed; and in case such shareholders shall not, within six months thereafter, pay and discharge the respective amounts so assessed upon their several shares, then it shall and may be lawful for the said company, at any subsequent meeting of the said board of directors, to declare such share or shares of stock forfeited, and the said company may by any public sale proceed to sell, after two weeks' notice to such shareholder, any share or shares of stock so forfeited, and apply the proceeds of such sale to the payment of the assessment or assessments charged against such particular share, and the balance of such proceeds, if any shall remain, shall be paid over to the holder or holders of such stock forfeited and sold as aforesaid; and the purchaser or purchasers thereof, at any such sale, shall have and hold such share or shares of stock, so bought by him, her or them, as fully and absolutely as the original shareholder or shareholders held the same previous to and at the time of the said forfeiture and sale; and to such purchaser or purchasers, the said company may, upon the payment of the purchase money by him, her or them, issue new certificates of stock for the share or shares so purchased as aforesaid; and in case of the forfeiture and sale of any share or shares of stock, as aforesaid, the certificate or certificates for the same, outstanding at the time of such sale, shall be deemed and be utterly void: Provided however, That any moneys that have been or shall be paid on account of, or in anticipation of and in lieu of such assessments on any share or

The object of said association is to erect, in the borough of Johnstown, a suitable building as a town hall, and for the meeting of the different benevolent, literary and other associations of the said borough, and for other legitimate purposes; and the capital stock thereof shall consist of eight hundred shares, of twenty-five dollars each.

Organization. SECTION 4. The commissioners as aforesaid, acting in the premises, as soon as may be after receiving the letters patent as aforesaid, shall appoint a time and place for the meeting of the subscribers to the capital stock of the said association, to organize the same, of which said time and place they shall give at least two weeks' public notice, by advertisement, in at least two newspapers published in the borough of Johnstown; and the subscribers when met, shall, by ballot, elect, by a plurality of votes present, to be given in person or by proxy, fifteen directors, all of whom shall be stockholders in said association, or members of beneficial or other societies holding stock therein, and who shall hold office until the first Monday of January, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and until others are chosen.

Meeting of directors. SECTION 5. On the first Monday of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and annually thereafter, the stockholders of said association shall meet at such place in the borough of Johnstown as shall be designated by the directors of said association, of which time and place public notice shall be given, by advertisement, in at least two newspapers published in the said borough of Johnstown, for three weeks next preceding the time of said meeting, and shall, in the manner provided in the foregoing section, elect fifteen directors of said association, qualified as provided in the preceding section, for the year ensuing, and until their successors are chosen.

Votes. SECTION 6. At all elections for directors of said association, the stockholders therein shall be entitled to vote in proportion to the number of shares of stock held by them therein, as follows: For every share of stock not exceeding five, one vote; for every three shares of stock exceeding five, and not exceeding fifty, one vote; for every five shares of stock exceeding fifty, and not exceeding one hundred, one vote; for every ten shares of stock exceeding one hundred, one vote.

SECTION 7. The directors of said association shall, at their first meeting after having been chosen as aforesaid, elect from their own number one person to act as president of said association, and either from their own number or otherwise, as they shall deem advisable, one person to act as treasurer, and one person to act as secretary, and such other subordinate officers as the by-laws may provide for; and the said president and directors shall manage and conduct the affairs of said association, and keep a record of all their official proceedings, which shall be open to the inspection of every stockholder, shall make an accurate report of the financial condition of the association at each annual meeting of the stockholders thereof; and eight directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Officers.
Management.

SECTION 8. The capital stock of said association shall be called in and paid at such times and places, and in such proportions and instalments, not exceeding five dollars per share per month, as the directors shall require, of which public notice shall be given, by advertisement, in at least one paper published in the borough of Johnstown; and if any stockholder shall neglect to pay such proportion or instalment so called for, at the time and place appointed, he, she or they shall be liable to pay, in addition to the instalment called for, at the rate of two per cent. per month on the amount of the instalments called in and unpaid; and if any subscriber shall fail to pay an instalment and said additional penalty, or neglect, for the period of four months after the same has been called in, the directors may, at their discretion, declare all the shares, on account of which such default was made, forfeited to the association, or may bring suit for the recovery of the amount of said unpaid instalment, with the additional penalty, as aforesaid. Payment and collection of capital

SECTION 9. That the first board of directors elected for said association shall cause to be provided suitable certificates of stock, and one or more of the same, signed by the president and countersigned by the treasurer, and sealed with the seal of the association, shall be delivered to each party entitled to receive the same, according to the number of shares held by him, her or them; and the said certificates shall be transferable, under such limitations and restrictions as may be provided by the by-laws of the association: Provided, That no party shall receive any of such certificates until the amount subscribed by him, her or them, to the capital stock, shall have been fully paid. ## AN ACT

Supplementary to the several acts in relation to the Williamsport and Elmira Railroad Company.

Preamble

WHEREAS, By virtue of certain proceedings in the supreme court of the state of Pennsylvania, and in pursuance of a decree of the said court, the whole of the railroad of the Williamsport and Elmira railroad company, together with its franchises, tracts of land and the property of said company, and its appurtenances, except the rolling stock described in the inventory attached to the mortgage, known as the chattel mortgage of the said company, may be sold at public sale; and all the parties interested in the said company as stockholders and bondholders, or a large majority of them, have agreed upon an amicable settlement of their differences, and require the authority of a law to carry the same into effect; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in case the railroad, property and franchises of the Williamsport and Elmira railroad company shall be exposed at public sale, by virtue of any decree of the supreme court of the state of Pennsylvania, it shall be lawful for the agent or attorney of the holders of the bonds, or more than one-half thereof, secured by the first mortgage executed by the said company, dated the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, to bid for and purchase the whole of the said property; and if such agent or attorney shall become the purchaser thereof at the said sale, he shall, on the confirmation of the sale by the said court, or one of the judges thereof, sitting in equity, and the execution and delivery of a deed or deeds for the said property, thereupon become seized and possessed of the same, and of all the rights, powers, immunities, franchises and appurtenances granted to and conferred upon the said Williamsport and Elmira railroad company by any laws of this commonwealth, and resolutions of the general assembly, for the use and benefit of the said first mortgage bondholders, who have, or may, by writing, under their respective hands, authorize him or them to act for them in the premises.

Sale of road, relative to.

Rights and powers of purchaser.

SECTION 2. That in case F. A. Van Dyke, junior, John Tucker, James S. Fox, William Schott, Thomas Kimber, junior, Stephen R. Crawford, S. V. Merrick, William D. Lewis, R. J. Mercer and A. S. Diven, or the survivors, or a majority of them, shall, within sixty days after the passage of this act, or within thirty days after the delivery of the aforesaid deed for said premises, if said delivery shall take place after the passage of this act, agree to accept the provisions of this act, it shall be lawful for them, or a majority of them, to meet, on notice of any one of them, and by written articles of association, organize themselves into, and they shall be a corporation, under the name and title of the Elmira and Williamsport railroad company; and the parties then attending, being a majority of the parties aforesaid, shall proceed to elect, by ballot, a president and six managers, one of whom shall be a resident of the state of New York, to manage and conduct the affairs of the said corporation; and on the formation of said corporation, within sixty days after the passage of this act, or within thirty days after the delivery of the deed for the property aforesaid, to the said agent or attorney of first mortgage bondholders, (if said delivery shall take place after the passage of this act,) it shall be lawful for and be the duty of said agent or attorney, and he or they are hereby authorized, and absolutely required, to sell and convey to the said corporation all of the said property, rights and franchises so as aforesaid purchased by and conveyed to him or them, for the price or sum of one million of dollars, on the terms and conditions hereinafter expressed, and to execute and deliver a deed or deeds for the said property, together with all the rights, powers, immunities, franchises and appurtenances vested in him as aforesaid; and immediately upon the delivery of the said deed to the said corporation, organized as aforesaid, the said body politic and corporate, in deed and in law, shall become and be vested with, and shall have and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities, franchises and appurtenances, heretofore granted to and conferred upon the said Williamsport and Elmira railroad company, by the laws and resolutions of the general assembly of this commonwealth, so far as the same shall be consistent with the provisions of this act.

SECTION 3. That the said Elmira and Williamsport railroad company shall execute, under their corporate seal, their bonds for the sum of one million of dollars, payable on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, with interest at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, commencing from July first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and payable on the first days of January and July, in each and every year, until the principal thereof shall become due; and any or all of the said bonds shall be convertible into the common stock of the company, at par, at the option of the holder or holders thereof; and the said bonds may be coupon bonds, or transferable on the books of the company, at the election of the said agent or attorney, and shall be in such amounts, of not less than one hundred dollars each, as the said agent or attorney shall designate; and the said company shall execute, under their corporate seal, to a trustee or trustees, to be named by Ellis Lewis, Charles Macalester, E. S. Whelen, Moncure Robinson, C. Gibbons, W. H. Drayton, or a majority of them, or of the survivors of them, a mortgage of all the property, rights and franchises which may be conveyed to the said company as aforesaid, and conferred upon them by this act, to secure the payment of the principal and interest of the said bonds; and they shall deliver the said bonds and mortgage to said agent or attorney, in settlement of and as the said purchase money, at and immediately after the delivery of his said deed to the company; and the said company are hereby further authorized and required to execute and deliver to the agent of the first mortgage bondholders, their bond or obligation to reimburse all the expenses incurred by said bondholders in this proceeding, except the charges of their counsel.

To be convertible into common stock.

Selection of trustee to whom mortgage is to be executed.

Expenses in this proceeding, how paid.

Payment of semi-annual interest, relative to.

SECTION 4. That the mortgage authorized by the third section of this act shall contain a covenant, on the part of the company with the said trustees, that the said company shall make monthly deposits, to the joint credit of the said trustees and company, in the Pennsylvania company for insurance on lives and granting annuities, or in such other corporation, authorized to receive deposits, as the said trustees may designate, from time to time, of such sums as have been or may be agreed upon, sufficient in the aggregate to pay the semi-annual interest on the said bonds, as the same from time to time becomes due, and in trust for that purpose; and that on failure, for sixty days, of the said company to make such monthly deposits for the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, so as to provide for the interest falling due on the said bonds on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, or on failure of said company, from time to time, to pay the interest on said bonds, or any of them, for sixty days after interest thereon shall become due, the whole principal sum on each and all of the bonds then outstanding shall become due and payable; and the trustees of the said mortgage shall have power to enter upon the property and franchises of the company, or sell the same, or to adopt any other legal or equitable remedies to enforce payment of the said principal and interest; and it shall be imperative on the said trustees to enter and sell, without excuse or delay, in case of any such default, on the request, in writing, of the holders of two hundred thousand dollars in amount of the said bonds; and in case of such entry or sale, the rights of the stockholders, and the powers of the managers and agents of the said company, shall thereupon cease; and the purchasers at such sale shall be vested with all the corporate powers, property, rights and franchises of the said corporation, and shall have power to hold elections for officers; and each bondholder, in case the said property shall be purchased for them, shall be entitled to two votes for every one hundred dollars of loan held by him or her, secured by said bonds and mortgage.

SECTION 5. That the capital stock of the said Elmira and Williamsport railroad company shall be one million of dollars, consisting of twenty thousand shares of fifty dollars each, to be divided into ten thousand shares of seven per cent. preferred stock, and ten thousand shares of common stock; and the said company shall deliver and distribute seven thousand shares of said preferred stock, pro rata, among the holders of the bonds secured by the second mortgage of the Williamsport and Elmira railroad company, and the remaining three thousand shares of preferred stock shall be applied, by the managers of the said company, to the payment of the confidential debt of the Williamsport and Elmira railroad company, as agreed in respect thereto; and the said managers shall deliver to the present stockholders of the Williamsport and Elmira railroad company, certificates for six thousand shares of the said common stock, in proportion to their respective interests in the stock of the old company, and certificates for two thousand shares thereof to the said agent or attorney mentioned in the first section of this act, for the payment of outstanding coupons on the said first mortgage bonds, and may, at their discretion, apply the residue of the said common stock towards the payment of the unsecured debt of the company.

SECTION 10. That the county of Cameron shall be annexed to and compose part of the fourth judicial district of this commonwealth ; and the courts in said county of Cameron shall be held on the Monday next succeeding after the courts are held in Elk county, to continue one week at each term, if necessary ; the first court to be held on the second Monday of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

SECTION 11. That the certioraries directed to, and appeals from the judgment of, any justice of the peace of the said county of Cameron, and all criminal prosecutions which may originate in said county before the test day hereinafter mentioned, shall be proceeded in as heretofore in the courts of common pleas and quarter sessions of the county of Elk ; and all process to issue from the courts of the said county of Cameron, returnable to the first term in said county, shall bear test on the last Monday of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

SECTION 12. That in all cases where it would be lawful for the sheriff, jailor or prison-keeper of the county of Cameron to hold in close custody the body of any person in the common jail of the said county, if such jail were at this time erected in and for the said county, such person shall be delivered to and kept in close custody by the sheriff, jailor or prison-keeper of the county of Clinton, who, upon delivery of such prisoners to him or them, at the common jail in said county of Clinton, shall safely keep him, her or them until they be discharged by the due course of law, and shall also be answerable in like manner, and liable to the same penalties and pains as if the persons so delivered were liable to confinement in the common jail of Clinton ; and the parties aggrieved shall be entitled to the same remedies against them, or any of them, as if such prisoner had been committed to his or their custody by virtue of legal process issued by proper authority of the said county of Clinton : Provided always,

That the sheriff of Cameron county be allowed, out of the stock of said county, ten cents per mile as full compensation for every person charged with a criminal offence who he may deliver at the Clinton jail by virtue of this act, by orders drawn by the commissioners of Cameron county on the treasurer thereof.

SECTION 13. That the sheriff, jailor or prison-keeper of Clinton shall receive all prisoners as aforesaid, and shall provide for them according to law, and shall be entitled to the fees for keeping them, and also for such allowance as is directed by law for the maintenance of prisoners in similar cases; which allowance shall be defrayed and paid by the commissioners of the county of Cameron, out of the county stock.

Prison-keeper of Clinton county to receive prisoners, entitled to fees, &c.

SECTION 14. That the twelfth and thirteenth sections of this act shall be and continue in force for the term of four years, or until the commissioners of Cameron county shall have certified to the court that a jail is erected and ready for the reception of prisoners, and approved of by the court and grand jury, who shall enter approbation, signed by them, on the record of said county; and from thenceforth it shall be lawful for the sheriff of Cameron county to receive all and every person or persons who may then be confined in the county jail of Clinton county, in pursuance of this act, and convey them to the jail of Cameron county, and to keep them in close custody until they be discharged by due course of law.

How long certain sections of act to be continued in force.

SECTION 15. That the general laws of this commonwealth be and the same are hereby extended to the county of Cameron, subject to the provisions of this act: Provided, That the said new county of Cameron hereby obligates itself, from and after the passage of this act, to pay to the said counties of Clinton, Elk, M'Kean and Potter that portion of their public debt as shall be represented by the territory hereby stricken off and annexed to the said county of Cameron; that the governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania be and he is hereby authorized to appoint three commissioners, to fix and establish the county seat for the said county of Cameron.

D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and recorded in Indiana county, in record book of deeds, volume twenty-third, pages four hundred and seventy-seven, four hundred and seventy-eight and four hundred and seventy-nine; by deed from William Sweeney and wife, dated the first day of July, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, and recorded in Indiana county, in deed book number twenty-three, pages four hundred and seventy-nine and four hundred and eighty; by deed from Joseph Piper, dated the tenth day of October, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and recorded in Indiana county, in deed book number twenty-third, pages four hundred and eighty-three and four hundred and eighty-four; and by deed from Joseph M'Dowell, dated the first day of July, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, recorded in Indiana county, in deed book number twenty-three, pages four hundred and eighty and four hundred and eighty-one, all of which deeds are to the said William B. Foster, junior, and on the said coal rights, there remain unsatisfied certain purchase money, mortgages upon which there is now due and owing by the estate of the said William B. Foster, junior, a balance in the aggregate of fifteen thousand and three hundred and ninety-five dollars, ($15,395 :)

And whereas, The said William B. Foster, junior, in his life time, was desirous of selling certain interests in the said lands and coal rights, so that the purchasers thereof and himself, might convert their respective interests therein, into the capital stock of a corporation, and the said mortgage indebtedness be thus paid and discharged :

And whereas, The interests of the heirs of the said William B. Foster, junior, who are minors, would be materially injured if not entirely sacrificed, if the payment of the said mortgage indebtedness was pressed, the rest of the estate of the said decedent being altogether insufficient for that purpose ; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Robert L. Burnett, administrator of the estate of the said William B. Foster junior, J. Edgar Thompson, James Magee, Thomas A. Sco and Edward C. Biddle, and such other persons as may purchase an interest or interests in the said lands and coal rights, their successors and assigns, be and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, under the name, style and title of the Foster coal and iron company, by which name the said corporators shall have perpetual succession, and enjoy all the privileges, incidents and franchises usually pertaining to a corporation, and not inconsistent with the powers and duties thereafter set forth.

To narrow Wakefield street, from East Logan to Penn street, in the Twenty-second ward of the city of Philadelphia.

WHEREAS, Wakefield, late Clinton street, was originally laid out of the width of thirty-feet, from East Logan to Brighthurst street, the owners of lots erected dwellings and other buildings upon said street:

And whereas, Under the survey of the late borough of Germantown, the width of said street was confirmed upon the plan, as a fifty foot street, which, if declared as a public highway, would cause the destruction or serious injury to a very large majority of the said buildings:

And whereas, The original buildings were so erected, that a street of forty feet can be opened without injury to private property; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Wakefield street, from East Logan street to Penn street, in the Twenty-second ward of the city of Philadelphia, be and the same is reduced from the width of fifty feet to the width of forty feet, by vacating five feet on each side of the said street; and that the five feet of soil so taken from the south-west side of said street, shall be and is hereby vested in fee simple in the respective owners of the ground adjoining thereto, and fronting on the south-west line of said street, and that the five feet of soil so taken from the north-east side of said street, shall be and is hereby vested in fee simple in the respective owners adjoining thereto and fronting on the north-east line of said street.

A N A C T

To incorporate the Female Domestic Missionary Society for the support of the Gospel in the Almshouse of the city of Philadelphia.

WHEREAS, For about forty-five years past some ladies of Philadelphia have been associated together under the above title, and have been much encouraged in their labor of love during that time, and believing that the interests of the mission would be better secured by its being incorporated, and becoming a body politic in law; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Eliza M'Kean, Sarah M. Lisle, Mary Cowell, Ann Hartung, Sarah Boylan, Eleanor A. Lapsley, Caroline M. Tate, Nancy O'Brien, Anna Purves, Mary Campbell, Mary Jane Miliken, Phoebe Bell and Mary Stewart, and their successors, and all persons who may hereafter be associated with them, in accordance with the conditions hereinafter named, are hereby created a body politic and corporate, in deed and in law, by the name of "The Female Domestic Missionary society for the support of the gospel in the almshouse and vicinity of the city of Philadelphia;" and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and be able to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, in any court of law or elsewhere; and shall be able to receive, take, have, hold and enjoy, to them and their successors, for the use of the said society, any estate in lands, messuages, tenements and hereditaments, goods, chattels, money or effects of whatsoever nature, by gift, grant, bargain, sale, assurance, devise or bequest, from any body corporate or person whatsoever, and the same, or any part thereof, to sell or dispose of at pleasure; and to make, have and use a common seal, and to break, alter and renew the same at pleasure; and generally to do all and every other matter or thing which any corporation or body politic lawfully may or can do to carry into effect the object and purposes set forth in the succeeding sections: Provided, That the clear yearly income or profits of all estate had and enjoyed by the said society shall not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars.

CONSTITUTION.

SECTION 2. This society shall be known by the name of "The Female Domestic Missionary society for the support of the gospel in the almshouse and vicinity of the city of Philadelphia."

SECTION 3. The object of the society shall be to afford to the inmates of the almshouse and its vicinity, stated and regular means of moral and religious instruction, by sending among them a minister of the gospel, and using every possible and proper means to better their moral and spiritual condition, to inculcate in them a life of virtue and piety within the sphere of the mission of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and in accordance with the rules of the almshouse.

Officers. SECTION 4. That the officers of the society shall consist of a board of not more than twenty managers, to be chosen as hereinafter provided. They shall have power, from time to time, to apply the rents, revenues and funds of the corporation for the maintenance and support of the gospel in the almshouse and vicinity.

Rents, revenues and funds, how to be applied.

Managers to be elected annually SECTION 5. That the board of managers shall be elected at the annual meeting held in March, and continue in office one year, or until others are chosen by a majority of all the members voting: Provided, That the persons named in the first section of this act, or a majority of them, shall constitute a board of managers to transact the business of the society until the regular election shall be held, as hereinbefore named.

Proviso.

When officers to be chosen. SECTION 6. That the board of managers shall, within one week after notice of their election, choose from among their own body a directress, secretary and treasurer. The officer last named shall give ample and sufficient security for the faithful performance of her trust. The duties of the officers shall be prescribed by the by-laws. The board of managers shall have power to fill all vacancies that may occur in their body by death or otherwise.

Treasurer to give security.

By-laws. SECTION 7. That the board of managers may enact such by-laws and ordinances for their government as they may deem requisite: Provided, That the said rules and ordinances, or any of them, be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of the United States, or the constitution and laws of this commonwealth.

Proviso.

Stated and special meetings. SECTION 8. The stated and special meetings shall be held at such times and in such way and manner as shall be directed in the by-laws: Provided, That one stated meeting be held in the month of March of each year.

Proviso.

Membership. SECTION 9. Any person may become a member of this society by contributing annually any sum of money not less than one dollar.

Misnomer. SECTION 10. That no misnomer of the said corporation shall defeat or annul any gift, grant, devise or bequest to the said society: Provided, The intent of the party making the same shall sufficiently appear on the face of the will, gift, grant or other writing, whereby an estate or interest was intended to be given or passed to the society.

To authorize the Trustees of the Presbyterian Church of Middletown, to sell and convey certain lots of ground.

WHEREAS, The Presbyterian church of the borough of Middletown is in possession of two contiguous lots of ground in said borough, known and designated in the plan thereof, by the numbers ninety-four and ninety-five, containing in front on High street, sixty-six and two-thirds feet each, and in depth one hundred and twenty feet, which two said lots were granted, and have been held for use as a burying ground, from a period anterior to the commencement of the present century:

And whereas, The practice of burying the dead within the limits of populous towns has become almost obsolete, so that the reservation of the said ground for such purpose is no longer useful or necessary, either to the said church or to the community at large, and the intentions of the grantors will be more efficiently carried out by authorizing the trustees of said church to sell and convey the same, and appropriate the proceeds to such uses as, in their opinion, may best advance the cause of religion in their community; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the trustees of the Presbyterian church at Middletown are hereby authorized and empowered to sell and convey, to any purchaser or purchasers, the two aforesaid contiguous lots of ground, bounded on the east by property of the devisee of the late Jonas Metzgar, deceased, on the west by property of George Smuller, on the north by High street, and on the south by property of George Smuller, and to appropriate the proceeds of such sale, after the expense of removal of the dead therein interred has been defrayed, to the payment of the debts of said church, and if any balance should thereafter remain, it shall go into the hands of the treasurer of said church, for the general uses of the association.

duplicate books of the assessment of said ward, at the same time that the books are furnished to the general receiver by the commissioners.

To give bond.

SECTION 2. That the said ward receiver shall give bond to the city with good and sufficient security, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, for the faithful collecting and paying over to the general receiver of taxes, all money so received, accompanied by a list of the parties so paying, the amount of valuation, with the amount of city and state taxes so paid, opposite to each name, once in every week during the current year for which said tax shall have been levied.

To be a citizen of the ward.

SECTION 3. That the said ward receiver shall be a citizen of the Twenty-third ward, and shall have an office conveniently located in said ward, and it shall be his duty to keep said office open during business hours, for the purpose of receiving the taxes of persons wishing to pay the same; and the said ward receiver shall receive from the city treasurer, by warrant drawn by the general tax receiver, as compensation for his services, the rate and amount of one and one-half per centum of all moneys received by him during the current year for which the same shall have been levied, in lieu of the salary now paid to the clerk of the Twenty-third ward, in the general receiver's office, whom this ward receiver is to supersede.

When to enter upon duties.

SECTION 4. That the receiver, so appointed, shall enter upon the duties of his office, at the same time as the general receiver of taxes elect shall enter upon the duties of his office, and shall be accountable to the general receiver for all taxes received by him as provided in section third.

Collection of delinquent taxes, compensation for, &c.

SECTION 5. That the said ward receiver shall collect all the delinquent taxes of said ward, but shall receive no compensation from the city for the collection of the same, but shall charge and receive from each such delinquent, the rate and amount of five per cent. on all such tax, and seventy-five cents on each bill, and no more, except in case of distress for the collection of the same; then he shall be allowed to charge, in addition to the above, the same costs as is allowed to the constables of said city, in cases of distress for rent, et cetera; he shall be allowed to charge the rate of three cents per mile circular measurement, to be but once charged to each delinquent; and any greater charge in any case than above recited, shall be considered a misdemeanor, and shall be punished in like manner as is provided for in the case of the sheriff for a like offence; and the said receiver shall have all the powers now vested in the collectors of delinquent taxes of the city of Philadelphia, but no distress shall be made in any case, until he shall have served a printed notice upon the delinquent or tenant, or some adult member of his family, stating that if the amount be not paid within thirty days, distress will be made therefor, and for the costs, giving the amount of such tax and costs, nor until after such time has expired.

SECTION 6. That if taxes be paid into the office of the general receiver, after the bills have passed into and remain in the hands of the said ward receiver, the general receiver shall collect the same costs which would have been then payable to the ward receiver, if the money had been received by him, and shall pay them over to the said ward receiver; and the general receiver shall pay to the said ward receiver fifty cents, by draft on the treasurer, for every case where he shall have reported the proof of a tax having been paid or discharged by judicial sale, and which had not been entered upon the receiver's books or registry of taxes, as having been paid; and whenever said ward receiver shall ascertain the true owner of a vacant lot to be a different person than the person in whose name the assessment was made, he shall receive the sum of fifty cents, by draft on the treasury as provided for the proof of a tax having been paid, and the general receiver shall cause such alteration to be made on the books in his office.

SECTION 7. That all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

place within the limits of the city of Philadelphia, east of Broad street, west of Third, and north of Callowhill street, the same to be occupied and used as a public market house, for the sale and vending of meats and vegetables, and all other kinds of victuals and provisions: Provided, That this act shall not be construed to prohibit persons who shall rent stalls in said market, who may send or carry the produce of their farms to market, from selling or exposing for sale, beef, mutton, veal, pork and poultry, in such quantities as they may desire, which may have been slaughtered on their farms, or butter, or cheese, or other articles manufactured or produced thereon for market; the said market building, the stalls, or any one or more or all of the same, to be leased, rented or disposed of to farmers and such others, and in such a manner, and upon such terms and conditions as the managers shall determine.

SECTION 3. The capital stock of said company shall consist of eight hundred shares of one hundred dollars each, with the privilege of increasing the same to any number of shares, not exceeding two thousand: Provided, The stockholders, at a general or special meeting, shall so determine.

SECTION 4. That the parties hereinbefore named, or any nine of them, may proceed to organize said company, and obtain subscriptions to the capital stock thereof; and after six hundred shares shall have been subscribed, by not less than two hundred persons, and at least five per centum paid in on said subscriptions, they shall provide, by advertisements in two or more weekly newspapers in the city of Philadelphia, and in two or more newspapers in each of the counties of Bucks and Montgomery, for at least two weeks, for the election of a board of nine directors, who shall serve until the second Tuesday of January next, and until their successors shall be duly elected; and annually thereafter, upon the second Tuesday of January, the stockholders shall elect a similar board of directors, to serve in like manner for one year, and until their successors shall be duly elected; and if, from any reason, any of said elections shall not be held at the time appointed, another time shall be appointed, according to the by-laws of said company, for said purpose, not more than two months later than said date; the directors so elected shall elect a president, secretary and treasurer from among themselves, and shall supply all vacancies in their board that may occur, by death, resignation or otherwise, until the next annual election; but no person shall be elected or appointed a director who shall not be at the time a practical farmer and stockholder in said company; and in every election for directors, each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote, by ballot, for each share of stock not exceeding ten shares, and for every additional ten shares, one vote, held by him or her in said company; but no stockholder, whether original subscriber or assignee, shall be entitled to vote at any election or meeting of said company, unless the whole sum due and payable on the share or shares by him or her held at the time, shall have been fully paid and discharged.

SECTION 5. The said directors shall have power to make and enforce such by-laws and ordinances as shall be necessary to carry out the true intent and meaning of this act. The stock-

AN ACT

To incorporate the Eastern Iron Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That

David Thomas, Melchoir H. Horn, junior, Jesse M. Line, Peter Weikel, James Kline, Reuben Leh and Samuel Lewis, and such other persons as shall be associated with them, and their successors, be and the same are hereby erected into a body corporate and politic, for the purpose of manufacturing iron from the crude state into any shape, in the county of Lehigh or Northampton, under the name and style of the Eastern iron company, with a capital stock of five hundred thousand dollars, with power to increase the same to ten hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of fifty dollars each.

SECTION 2. That the affairs of said company shall be managed by a board of seven directors, one of whom shall be the president, who shall be chosen by the stockholders; the first election shall be held within sixty days after this act shall take effect, of which election public notice shall be given at least two weeks, in one newspaper published in the county of Lehigh; and subsequent elections shall be held at such time and place, annually, as the directors shall determine, of which the same notice shall be given; all elections shall be by ballot, and every share of stock subscribed, and the required instalments paid in, shall entitle the holder to one vote, in person or by proxy: Provided, That in case of failure to hold an election under this act, the former directors shall continue in office until their successors be duly elected; and in case of resignation or death of any director, the remaining directors shall elect a person to serve until the next annual election.

SECTION 3. That this corporation shall have authority to hold and use a common seal, and the same to change, alter and amend at pleasure; and by the style and title aforesaid shall be capable in law to sue and be sued before any court in this commonwealth, and may do and make all needful rules, regulations and by-laws for the well ordering of the business affairs of the corporation, so that the same in no wise conflict with, or be contrary to, the laws and constitution of the commonwealth or of the United States.

SECTION 4. That the said corporation, by the name aforesaid, may hold, in Lehigh and adjoining counties, lands not exceeding five thousand acres at one time, with power to mortgage, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof; and the capital of the company may be employed in mining ore, making and manufacturing iron from the crude state into any shape or form, mining coal and limestone, and transporting and vending the same, and for such other objects as may be necessary and beneficial in the prosecution of said business: Provided, That the said company shall not engage in the business of banking.

SECTION 5. That the stock may be transferred agreeably to the by-laws which may be adopted by the corporation.

SECTION 6. That dividends may be declared and paid whenever the directors deem it advisable, but said dividends shall in no case exceed the amount of actual profits acquired by the corporation; and if the directors shall make a dividend of more than the actual net profits, the directors consenting thereto shall severally be liable to the corporation, in their individual capacity, for the excess so divided and paid; and the said company shall pay into the treasury of the state a bonus of one-half of one per centum upon the amount of the capital stock and any increase of the same, payable in four annual instalments, the first whereof shall be paid within one year from the date hereof.

Individual liability.

SECTION 7. That the stockholders of said company shall be jointly and severally liable, in their individual capacities, for debts due mechanics, workmen and laborers employed by said company, and for country provisions furnished for said company, to be sued for and collected as is provided in the twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth sections of the act incorporating the Lackawanna coal and iron company, approved the fifth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Subject to.

When this act to take effect.

SECTION 8. That this act shall not take effect until five hundred shares shall be subscribed, and at least one-half of that amount be paid in, of which a statement, containing the names of the subscribers and the amount subscribed by each, shall be given to the governor, to be filed in the office of the secretary of the commonwealth; whereupon the governor shall issue letters patent to the corporators.

Payment of subscriptions.

SECTION 9. That subscriptions of stock may be paid in real and personal estate, appropriated to the business contemplated by this act, at a bona fide cash valuation to be agreed upon by a majority in interest of the subscribers and stockholders; and the said corporation may issue bonds, and sell the same at their market value, notwithstanding it may be less than par; but no bond shall be issued for a less sum than one hundred dollars.

Reservation.

SECTION 10. That the legislature hereby reserves the right to amend, alter or repeal this charter at any time; in such manner, however, as shall not do injustice to the corporators; and this charter shall extend for a period of twenty years, and no longer.

Limitation.

That if any person or persons shall wilfully or maliciously injure or destroy any of such booms or piers, or other works connected therewith, he or they shall pay the amount of damages to the corporation, to be recovered by action of trespass, and further be liable to indictment and prosecution, before the court of quarter sessions, for a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine, for the use of the county, not exceeding five hundred dollars, and to suffer imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year.

Penalty.

Duty of corporation.

SECTION 5. That it shall be the duty of the corporation to raft all lumber in said booms securely and faithfully, with suitable wraps and wedges for rafting, and securing the same below said boom, ten days, if the number of logs, belonging to any one man or company of men, does not exceed one hundred; if the number be over one hundred and does not exceed three hundred, five days; and if the owner, at the expiration of the time aforesaid, has not removed the same, the corporation may remove them to some safe and convenient place, and the owners thereof shall pay such expense as may arise in the removal and securing of the same; and should any person or persons suffer any loss in consequence of the neglect or carelessness of the corporation, then the said corporation shall be accountable for such loss; the owner of the lumber shall drive it as near the main body of logs, or as near the place where they are to be rafted, as may be.

Tolls.

SECTION 6. That said corporation shall have the right to charge and collect toll on boomage upon the lumber thus boomed, rafted and secured, including warps and wedges by which they are rafted, to wit: thirty-seven and one-half cents per thousand feet, board measure, for board-logs, and a reasonable sum for finding warp, rafting and booming all square timber, spars, clap board bolts and other lumber, in proportion to other board-logs; and said tolls shall at all times be subject to the further regulation paid to the corporation: Provided, That in any case where spars, square or round timber may have been rafted to run to market, and such raft may have been staved, or broken to pieces in any other way, and said logs should go into said boom by accident, or be taken in by the agents of said corporation, the said company shall deliver the same to the owner, on the production, by him, of reasonable evidence of his right thereto, for which they shall be entitled to twelve and one-half cents for every spar and log of square timber, and six cents for every log of round timber, to be paid by the person claiming the same: Provided, That it shall be lawful for all persons desirous of floating logs below any boom or booms of said company, to give notice, in writing, to said boom company, on or before first March, in each year, to that effect, designating the probable quantity of said logs, and the marks on same, in which case the said boom company shall pass said logs and lumber through their said boom or booms with the least possible delay and without charge for boomage.

SECTION 7. That if any logs shall be boomed, rafted and secured, as aforesaid, and no person should appear to claim the same and pay the tolls thereon, it shall be lawful for the corporation, after advertising the same sixty days in the towns of Lock Haven and Bellefonte, with the marks thereon, if any there be, to dispose of the same to the best advantage, if no owner appear to claim the same; and the owners, at any time within two years from said sale, shall be entitled to receive the avails thereof, after deducting the tolls, expenses and necessary charges; but if not claimed within said two years, the proceeds shall be vested in the corporation for their own use.

SECTION 8. That for the purposes aforesaid, the said corporation be and are hereby authorized and empowered to purchase, hold and possess any real estate adjacent to said boom or booms, or convenient thereto, with leave to build all such buildings as may be deemed necessary for the convenient management of the affairs of said corporation; and for the same purposes their agent and those in their employ are hereby empowered to use and occupy the lands on the shore of said creek, so far as may be necessary, at the place or places where said booms are erected, and at such other place or places as may be necessary for rafting and securing logs and other lumber, and to pass and re-pass, on foot, to and from said boom or booms over the lands on both sides of said creek, for the purpose of erecting said boom, or making repairs from time to time, and generally for doing all matters and things necessary for the full accomplishment of the object of this corporation; subject, however, to pay such damages as may arise in the prosecution of such objects or purposes, the damages to be ascertained as in the third section of this act.

May occupy lands on shores.

SECTION 9. That all logs rafted out of said booms or any of the branches thereof, shall be counted or measured, and their quantity ascertained by some competent person or persons, to be appointed by the court of common pleas of Clinton county, whose duty it shall be to keep an account of all such lumber as may be turned through said boom or booms, agreeably to the fifth and sixth sections of this act.

Lumber to be measured.

SECTION 10. That the legislature hereby reserves the right to alter or repeal this charter at any time; in such a manner, however, that no injustice be done the corporators.

SECTION 10. That the said railway company shall be and they are hereby required to lay the track of their said road of such a gauge as to be most convenient for the use of carriages and buggies passing over the said road ; and in all cases the carriage or vehicle following the car shall have the right to the track, and the carriage or vehicle coming in the opposite direction shall be required to turn off the track.

SECTION 11. That if any person or persons shall wilfully break, remove, destroy or injure any part of the said railway, or the cars, carriages, stations, houses or other buildings or property of said company, or shall, without the consent of said company, obstruct or impede the passage on or over the said railway, or any part thereof, the person or persons so offending shall forfeit and pay, for every such offence, the sum of five dollars to the said company ; but no such suit shall be brought unless commenced within sixty days after such offence shall have been committed ; and the person or persons so offending shall be and remain liable, in addition to said penalty, to action or actions at the suit of said railway company, for any loss or damage occasioned by his, her or their act or acts as aforesaid.

SECTION 12. That the councils of Allegheny city shall have Power of councils of Allegheny city power to establish such regulations, in regard to said railway, as may be required for the purpose of paving, repairing, grading, culverting and laying gas and water pipes in and along the streets in said city, used by said company, and to prevent obstructions thereon; and the said company shall never obstruct the streets or roads over which their road passes, by permitting the passage of freight or burden cars, or the use of locomotive engines thereon: Provided, That this section shall not be construed to prevent said railway company from running freight or burden cars, drawn by horses, between the hours of nine o'clock at night and seven in the morning, on the said road west of the Allegheny river, whenever the councils of said city shall, by ordinance duly passed, authorize the same. Proviso.

SECTION 13. That no greater fare shall be charged upon said road per passenger, to or from Etna, than ten cents; for any distance less than two miles, five cents; and for any greater distance, not more than two and one-half cents a mile; but in no case to exceed ten cents. Amount of fare fixed.

SECTION 14. That said railway company shall, at the intersection of their road with any railroad upon which locomotives are used, cause their cars to stop before crossing the same, under a penalty of twenty-five dollars for each violation of this section Cars to stop before crossing railroad tracks.

SECTION 15. That the said company shall commence the construction of the railway hereby authorized, within one year after the consent of the councils of the city of Allegheny shall have been given to the same, and complete the same to Etna within two years thereafter. Limitation Relating to the Susquehanna and Waterford Turnpike Road, in Clarion, Jefferson and Clearfield counties.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, By virtue of an act of general assembly, approved the sixth day of April, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the corporate powers of the Susquehanna and Waterford turnpike road company have been repealed, without any sufficient provision being made for keeping said road in suitable repair for traveling; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the several courts of quarter sessions of the counties of Clarion, Jefferson and Clearfield, or any two judges thereof, are authorized and empowered, upon petition, to incorporate, in the said counties, respectively, a company to take charge of that portion of said turnpike road which passes through the said county; which said companies, when incorporated, are hereby invested with all the powers, rights, privileges and franchises, and subject to all the restrictions and liabilities of the said turnpike road company within the limits of the respective counties.

Powers and rights.

Company incorporated by the county of Clarion to re-build bridge, &c.

SECTION 2. That the company incorporated in and for the county of Clarion, is hereby authorized to re-build the bridge across the Clarion river, where said turnpike road crosses said river, with all the rights, powers, privileges and franchises, and subject to the same restrictions and liabilities of the company which originally erected said bridge.
